COLUMBIA, July 26 .- The improvement to the council chamber and the other pub-lic business rooms are about finished. The chief burgess' room has been thoroughly renovated and painted white, papered with gold embossed raper and the cornices and centre pieces calsomined in five colors.

The committee room differs from the chief burgess' room only in having figured the borough regulator's room has been palated white, papered with white blank paper, having a very neat figure, and the ornices and centre pieces are calcimined in aix colors. The council chamber is the handsomest of them all, being finished in grained walnut, papered with gold embossed paper, the cornices frescoed in nine colors. Each room has been furnished with new shades, and all the chandellers have been regilded and decorated, and the counc chamber has been carpeted with body brussels with a handsome figure on a dark red ground. The steam heating apparatus throughout the building has been refitted and glided with copper glit bronzs. The tower has been repaired and the roof re-Mr. G. A. Grove did the painting, Geo.

A. & Allen Richards the papering; John Bhenberger & Son furnished the carpet and shades; and L. H. Bachler, of Lancaster repaired the steam beating apparatus.

The property committee, consisting of Chas. E. Grove, Chas. W. Stevenson and Frank H. Wilson, are receiving a great deal of credit for the manner in which they have conducted this work, Congregational Meetings.

A meeting of the male membership of the Methodist Episcopal church was held last evening. It was decided to buy the lot on the corner of Sixth and Chesnut streets, for the purpose of erecting a chapel ; and a committee was appointed to make plans and specifications for the said caspel. The poard of trustees were instructed to sell the Cookman chapel to the school board for the sum of $1,200. A congregational meeting of the Preaby-terian church was held last evening. The building committee was instructed to award the contract for building the church to the best kidder. No alterations will be made in the plans. This church when completed together with the ground on which it will stand will be worth over $50,000. Accidents and Incidents

The five-year-old son of John Quigley while playing in the yard yesterday on a rake, imbedding two of the teeth so firmly into his flesh that it took considerable force to extricate them.

A large heavily leaded wagon lost a tire yesterday on Third street and damaged the fellow. The damage was repaired, the only ill-results of the secident being the loss of about three hours' time.

The Y. M. C. A. will hold a meeting on Tuesday evening for the purpose of arrangng as to the part they will take in the cenennist celebration.

In answer to invitations issued for fire companies to participate in the centennial parades, the Shawnee company has received letters of acceptance from the Good Will company of Allentown; Juniors of Bazleton; Alpha of Littlestown, and the Good Will of York, provided the hotel rates are suitable. The P. and E. company of Renovo, will not be able to come.

Last evening a stray bay horse was caught on; the Washington turnpike by Mr. Harry Kauffman, The owner can recover his property by applying to the above named gentleman. Samuel B. Moore, charged with assult and battery on George Reese and John Now, and drawing a platel in a fight, was given a hearing before 'Squire Solly last evening and held in ball for court. The St. Paul's P. E. Sunday school left for Penrya park this morning in five cars.

The St. John's Lutheran Sunday school will picule at Little to-morrow.

The Wagner hotel is being repaired. The appearance of Dr. Markel's drug store has been improved by the new tild floor that has just been laid. Miss Berths Huntoon, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Miss Parry at Fairview. Miss Houston left town for a visit to relatives in Patradelphia. Philip M. Hoover went to Atlantic City for the summer. Rev. Geo. Wells Ely, of the Presbyterian church, is spending his vacation at Clifton Wedded At the Hespital.

Wednesday morning David B. Houck and Annie Sandoe, both residents of East Earl township, came to Lancaster to get married. They took out a license and then went in search of Rev. Swenk, who is moral instructor at the county institutions. When they arrived at the residence of that entleman, on East Orange atreet, they found that that he had gone to the almsouse to pay his usual visit. The intended bridegroom had made up his mind that Mr. Swenk and no one else should marry them, so they followed and found him at the county hospital. In the reception room, and in the presence of Dr. Sensenig and his family, the happy couple were made man and wife, after which they left for their home. Dr. Sensenig says that many queer occurrences are continually taking place at the institutions, but this I the first wedding in his experience.

Welsh Mountain Ontlaws.

A Honeybrook special to the Philadelphis Press says : " A band of outlaws at present infest the old haunts of Abe Buzgard on the Welsh mountains and are making their presence felt by nightly visits to farm houses in the Conestoga and Peques Valleys. Edward White, of this place, while crossing the mountains in a buggy with $250 in his pocket was stopped by two men who selzed his horse by the head and demanded the money. Quick as a firsh he pulled out his revolver and fired at one of them. The horse gave a leap, threw one man down, broke loose from the other and sped down the road at a full run, the buggy bouncing over the prostrate body of the 0.10 who iell. As William Ewing, of this place, who fell. As William Ewing, of this place, was returning late from a festival at New Holland, he was waylaid and relieved of a $30 sliver watch and about $5 in money. Last night a horse, light buggy and harness valued at $200 were stolen from Jacob Relser, who fives about one half mile out of town. The Honsybrook Horse company has five squads of men out searching the mountains."

Again In Service. No. 8 engine, of the city fire department, which had an axie broken while on the way to the fire at Stackhouse's store, July i, is sgain in service. It was found neces. sary to secure an entirely new axle, which was made by the Manchester (N. H.) locomotive works. Yesterday atternoon the engine was given a trial and it was found that the machinery had not been damaged, but worked all right.

HAS WILLIAM HEIDA GONE? The Allerman Discourged Him and His Wife

The case of William Heids, charged by his wife with descriton, was heard before his wife with descritor, was heard before Alderman Spurrier last evening. It will be remembered by many readers of the INTELLIGENCER that Heida was convicted in the April quarter sessions of a similar charge preferred by his wife, and in default of ball to comply with the order of the court was imprisoned for three months, and having served his term was discharged last Saturday. Mrs. Heids on Sunday called upon day. Mrs. Helds on Sunday called upon Alderman Spurrier and made another complaint of desertion against her husband. A warrant was issued and he was arrested on Monday, and held for a hearing, Alder nan Spurrier not being aware at the time that Helds had just been discharged from jall for the same offense. At the hearing last evening there was a pretty lively time, the testimony being given in Polish, German and English. The purport of it was as given above, and after an address by Chas. I. Landis, seq , in favor of Heida's release, the alderman discharged him on payment of costs, ($3.34) and gave him instructions as to his duty to support his wife. Helds left the office in company of several friends, and the last seen of him he was at the residence of his brother, Christian Heids, on Middle street. Mrs. Heids, who talked violently in the alderman's office, boasted that she would make another complaint of desertion against her nusband and have him in jail again inside of twenty-four hours. It is not believed that any alderman familiar with the facts of the case would entertain such a complaint. at least not until Helda has been given a chance to earn money for her support. He is a strapping big Pole, weighing about 200 pounds, and said to be a good workman. His wife is a little "sawed off" woman, not much more than four feet high with a vixenish face and a glib tongue. They are certainly an ill assorted couple and should keep a county or two between them. It is believed that Helda left town the threats made against him by his wife. Cruelty to animals. Last evening quite a number of mon and boys witnessed a disgusting sight in front of the Grape hotel. George Kreiner, who was drunk, had two terrier dogs, which he set to fighting on the pavement. One of the animals was so old that he had no teeth, and the other had the advantage of him to a great extent. The animals floundered around in the gutter for fifteen minutes or more and every time they showed any signs of stopping they were encours, d to renew the struggle. Fin dly when they stopped or were separated Kreiner picked each up by the cuff of the neck and made them fight in his hands. The older animal of the two was badly bitten. Many who witnessed the spectacle were disgusted while others thought it was fun. A gentleman of the former class went to the office of Alderman Deen and made complaint against Kreiner, charging him with cruelty to animals and drunk and disorderly conduct. Kreiner has been drunk for a long time past and when in that condition he acts like a crazy man.

Six Speakers to Afflict Little, There is a treat in store for the people who go to the Little Springs hotel, where there will be a Republican pole raising on Saturday. The names of the speakers as they appear on the "apple butter" will, read in this way : "Thomas B. Holahan, Esq., John W. Mentzer, Esq., A. B. Hassler, Esq. Martin S. Fry, esq , H. B. Keller, Esq , and Hon. J. A. Stober." Fry cannot understand why his "esq." got on the bill without a capital E, but he thinks the printer ran short of "sorts." Mart. feels aggrieved at this mistake, and will use it as an excuso to make a short speech. Ever since Prothonotary Mentzer returned from Chicago he has been anxious to make a speech. He was greatly encouraged by the reception secorded him at the Young Republicans' rooms recently, and he has determined to stump the county. It is seldom that the public has an opportunity of hearing one of the kind of speakers in the above list, but when they get a whole sextette they think it a little too much.

The Temperance People at Christiana. Wednesday evening the tent of temperance party at Christiana was crowded with people to such an extent that all could not get in; about eight hundred are supposed to have been present. The music was under the direction of Dr. C. I. Reese, of Atgle", a well-known Fisk and Brooks champion, who carries the temperance banner in all kinds of weather. It added interest to the exercises. The addresses were well received by the audience; Rev. Congleton's part being confined to the opening prayer-a song without musicand an outburst at the close. Rev. M. Hubbard, of New Castle, Dal., delivered a very approciative and telling address. The exercises will be changed somewhat this evening, and an admission of 10 cents will be charged. The Honeysuckie club and White Rose quartette of Lancaster will give music. A graduate of a Boston elocutionary school will read selections, and five-minute speeches will be the order of

He Mysteriously Disappeared.

Lust evening an unknown man entered the house of Davis Kitch, Jr., at No. 10 East Andrew street. Mr. Kitch is the driver of Engine No. 2 of the city fire department, and he was at the engine house at the time. Mrs. Kitch had gone to a neighbor's about 8 o'clock, when a strange man was seen to walk in their alley. He went late the house and the children, who were on the perch, gave the a arm. The neighbors heard it and ran to the house. Mr. Eitch was also notified and he was soon at home. The house was searched but the stranger could not be found. He is believed to have made his escape out the back way. Nothing was missed. How to Reach Landisvide on Sunday. The Reading ratiroad will run excursion to Landisville on Sunday for persons who desire to attend the campmeeting. They will leave here at 8:10 and 10:30 a. m., 1:15 and 3:55 p. m. Returning they will leave Landiaville at 2:55, 5:15 and 7 p. m. The Pennsylvania railroad will run but one tisin, it will leave at 8:15 a. m. and returning will leave Landisville at 6:15 p. m. Both roads will sell tickets at very low rates and the prices will be the same.

A Bu cher's Runaway, This morning the horse of a butcher frightened and ran up North Mulberry street. At Lemon the wagon struck an awning and was upset. The wagon had an axie bent and the top broken. The money of the butcher, which was in a box in the wagon, was splited all over the street, but all except a $5 gold piece was

Reward for An Alleged Aborttonist. The chief of police has a circular offering reward of $150 for A. P. A DWELLING ON FIRE

Firemen Subdue the Flames After Countder-able Damage Was Sustained. A serious fire and one that might have aused much more trouble took place in the three story brick residence of J. W. Eckenrode, insurance agent, at No. 351 West Orange street, Wednesday afternoon. 1t was about half past four o'clock when an alarm was struck from box 21, at Charlotte and West King streets, and the nremen time, having gone to a picnic at Penryn, and the fire was discovered by his niece who is visiting him. She told Mrs. Eck enrode that there was smoke up stairs and she believed something was wrong. That ady ran up stairs and saw there was a fire in the closet. An alarm was given and the smoke began rolling out of the front windows. A number of neighbors smith arrived he had a ladder run up and The carpets, &c., on the second floor were damaged by water and dirt.

Mr. Eckeprode's loss on the house will probably be $200, while that on the clothing, etc., will be from $100 to $150. His house is insured with Eckenrode & Myers in the St. Paul Fire and Marine company for $1,500 and the contents for $1,000. How the fire started no one knows. About ten minutes before it was discovered Mrs. Eckeprode was up-stairs. She went to place a dress in the closet, and as she went away she noticed that a backet of clothing inside prevented the door from shutting. She kicked the basket back and then went away from the closet. It may be that there was a match in the basket which was ignited by the kicking.

A False Amrm of Fire. A fire alarm came in from box 42, at Lemon and Mulberry streets, about half past eleven o'clock this forenoon. It was caused by smoke issuing from the house of John Hutchinson at No. 424 North Mulberry street. Mrs. Hutchinson was alone at the time and the neighbors saw the smoke. The wife of Police Officer George Myers rapped on the shutters, which were shut, but received no response. She slarmed P. W. Sensenderfer and Frank Rittenhouse, who ran to the house. They opened the rear door and found Mrs. Hutchinson lying on the floor and the house filled with smoke. It seems that the old lady was taken with a fainting spell, to which she is subject, and fell on the floor The dinner, consisting of beans, meat, &c. was in a pot on the stove boiling. When the water boiled out the contents of the potook fire and this caused the great smoke, but no damage was done.

Fell Under a Car Wheel. James Tola, an Irishman about 28 years of age, who says his home is in Philadelphis, was brought to this city from Cclumbia this morning at 2 o'clock and placed in the county hospital. He says that be had been to Harrisburg in sea ch of work and was trying to get back to Philadelphia by freight. When he arrived at Columbia he found it necessary to change trains. He got off one safely, but in trying to board an oil tank car of another he fell. A car wheel passed over one of his feet, cutting off three toes. Tola is a single man and says that he last worked for a contractor named McFarland, in Philadelphia, and boarded at the southeast corner of Ninth street and

BREWING COMPANY.

THE TANNHABUSER BEER is unquestionably the Finest Light Beer extant. It is brewed from the finest Pale Canada West Barley Malt and Saarer Hops, and is especially recommended by physicians for its tonic and nutritive qualities, for family or medicinal use. Attention is called to the SUPERIOR PACKING of this Beer, it being put up in ATTRACTIVE FLINT-GLASS BOTTLES.

The high reputation enjoyed by the BEEGNEE & ENGEL BREWING COMPANY is due to the fact that only the Finest and Best Materials are used, and that the greatest skill and care are exercised during manufacture.

BERGHER & ENGEL received two prizes at the Centennial Exhibition, Philadelphia 1876, and were awarded the GRAND PRIZE at the Universal Exposition, Paris, 1878. The GRAND PRIZE, awarded at the Paris Exposition, is the only one of its grade (the highest) awarded for the excellence of Lager Beer actually exhibited and adjudicated, while only two other Grand Prizes were awarded to Europe in Brewers for their merits and prominence in the business, and upon special recommendation by their respective governments.

The fire broke out in a closet under the stairway in the front part of the house leading from the second to the third floor. Mr. Eckenrode was away from home at the and men at work in the vicinity secured buckets and threw water on the flames. ; When Chief Engineer Vonderstream put on from engine No. 1. This soon extinguished the flames, but not until the house was considerably damaged. The closet was filled with clothing, including four dresses, of Mrs. Eckenrode and the children. These were all consumed, The door was burned off the closet and the other woodwork almost entirely destroyed. The doors of three had rooms near the closet were so badly burned that they may have to be replaced. The railing of the stairway leading to the third il or was also charred.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon Aldernoon Spurrier dismissed the complaint of false pretense made sgainst Henry Gainer, by J. F. Bair. The allegation was that Gainer made a false statement as to the working qualities of s horse. The alderman thought there was insufficient evidence to sustain the com-
