

SUNDAY AT LANDISVILLE.

A LARGE NUMBER OF PEOPLE ATTEND THE CAMPMEETING.

A. v. Dunson, Geo. F. French, to a Large Audience—Rev. Roads, Coxson, Durill and Others, Take Part in the Day's Exercises.

Sunday is usually a big day at the Landisville campmeeting, and this one was no exception. The air was cool and pleasant all day, and finer weather could not have been desired.

Among the people who attended the camp were a number of the Lancaster bicycle club, who rode from this city to the grounds and presented a very handsome appearance in their new uniforms.

On Sunday the number of stands was much larger than ever before and they reached from the railroad station almost to the Harrisburg turnpike.

The services throughout the day were of the most interesting nature. The Pennsylvania railroad train but one to the grounds. It came from Marietta and thence to Landisville via Columbia and Lancaster.

The evening sermon was preached by Presiding Elder J. F. Crouch. His sermon was a most excellent one.

SAUNDAY AFTERNOON. Features of the Children's Meeting—Exercises of the Women's Missionary Society.

LANDISVILLE, July 28.—The children's service at 1:30 o'clock today was conducted as usual by Rev. Roads, assisted by Rev. F. G. Coxson.

After Rev. Roads had concluded his talk and prayer, he turned in particular to those handling the same subject that Rev. Roads had taken.

MENTZER BREAKS LOOSE.

THE NATIVE ORATOR FIRES THE FIRST REAL BIG GUN FOR HIS PARTY.

Littiz Republicans Convinced by the Discharge of the Prothonotary's Heavy Artillery on Saturday—A New War in the Galaxy of Lancaster County Created.

The Republicans had a pole raising and ratification meeting in Littiz on Saturday. The afternoon was devoted to getting up the pole and the meeting was held in the evening in the barroom, on the west end porch and in the yard of the Springs Hotel.

The chairman then announced that before he introduced another speaker, well known to them all, a celebrated musician would entertain the crowd with some choice music.

THE DEBUT OF MENTZER. The introduction of Prothonotary Mentzer to the assembled multitude was the signal for such a demonstration as seldom has warmed the heart of any native orator.

When he quit the audience broke into exclamations of surprise and admiration for the bar-room. Mentzer was surrounded by admiring friends. He shook hands right and left and set them up to all hands.
