An unfamiliar guest,
An unfamiliar guest,
I stand awared; such high, imperial air,
Buch pomp of color these bright bloss
wear,
Proud strangers of the West-How beautiful they are! Celestial blue The harebells lift their dezzling spires to view;

And warm with golden sheen
The popples hold their satin spiender up,
And the wild daisy in its glided cup
Still hides the mountain dew.

The lilies white, but dashed with crimson fire, Are daughters of the sun! These purple spires Bloomed on a crag so high
The robes of morning and of evening swept
Their opening buds, and their ripe petals kept
The kisses of the sky.

And yet, as one entranced may stard alone
In some great festival where all unknown
A thousand faces grow,
And suddenly, from far-forgotten days,
Some shadow face, with pleading, tender gaze
Mevives the long #gp =

So, as I gaze upon these haughty flowers Of the Biorras, dear New England bowers Breathe back their lost perfume; I see the mayflower, with its flush of pink, And sweeter still, upon the river's brink,
My own wild roses blow!

BPECIAL NOTICES. Reducing the Surplus

Reducing the Surplus.

The disposition of the surplus in the U.S. treasury engages the attention of our statesmen, but a more vital question has our attention, and that is the reduction of the Surplus Consumptives. Since the discovery and introduction of Dr. Ring's New Discovery for Consumption, there has been a marked decrease in the mortality from this dreaded discose, and it is possible to still further reduce the number of consumptives. How? By keeping constantly on hand a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and using according to directions, upon the appearance of the first symptoms, such as a Cough, a Cold, a Sore Throat, a Chest, or Side Pain. Taken thus early a cure is guaranteed.
