Sitting Bull a Republican, The earliest rays of the morning sun were gl'dirg over the minareta of Standing Rock when Sitting Bull addressed the assembled chieftains of the Sioux in the foliowing glowing speech. The question was on the adoption of the pending treaty with the pale-faces. After calling Hole-in-the-Wall to the chair Mr. Bull said: "I am opposed to the treaty. Treating is a white man's custom. If we sell out our rolling prairie home we can buy firewater with the proceeds, it is true; but let us wait, some of the plain, and see it the Great Chief of Indianapolis becomes Great Father at Washington. Then there will be no need of baying for the Great Chief of Indianapolis has declared for free whisky. I have spoken."

Like the Light Weights
Of the profession pugilistic, the kidneys are small but active in a state of health. Their secretion contains impurities productive of rheumatism, gout and dropsy, if allowed to remain. When they are inactive, the blood becomes choked with animal debris capable of destroying life. To promote their activity when sluggish with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is not only to guard against the diseases mentioned, but to prevent the fatty degeneration and ultimate destruction of the organs by those exe edingly dangerous maladies—Bright's disease and diabetes. Activity of the bladder also insures it against the formation of gravel, which is sometimes requires one of the most dangerous and painful operations in surgery to remove. Gravel, moreover, is a most agonizing complaint. The Bitters further commend themselves by remedying constipation, tyspepsia, debility, liver complaint and nervousness, and nullify influences productive of malarial disease. Like the Light Weights

Are rolling in. You can't escape them; but you can escape the sleepless nights, loss of appetite, and languid feeling that result from draining the nervous force by muscular or mental exertion in summer's torrid days. The use of Paine's Celery Compound, that great nerve tonic, will at once strengthen the nervous system, and fortify it against the attacks of summer debility. This preparation is a medicine—not a drink. It is a scientific combination of the best tonics, giving lasting benefit to body and brain. It cures all nervous diseases, and has brought new life and health to thousands whose weakened nerves were the cause of their many ills. It is especially valuable at this season, when feeble persons are so liable to sunstroke, a disease which is nearly always fatal. Paine's Celery Compound, by restoring perfect health, almost entirely removes the liability to this dread disease. If you feel the effects of summer's heat, you can't afford to delay another day before gaining the vitality only obtained by this great medicine. Sold by Draggists. Six for $5.00.
