The Death of Sheridan. General Sheridan is dead. This is the sad news that was flashed across the wires of the country just as Sunday night was merging into Monday morning. The nouncement comes with a great shock to those who had been hoping against hope that "Little Phil" would be spared yet a little longer to the country he bat-tled so hard for and to the people who loved him so well. Sheridan was not a youth of surpassing promise. He graduated at West Point a year later than his regular class, due to an act of insubordination, and on his final graduation stood thirty-fourth in a class of fifty-two members. But though not wedded to books, his nature was well adapted to the stern arbitrament of war. He was probably the most aggressive fighter who was developed in the civil war. His great special knowledge was cavalry work and masters of the art of war, such as Von Moltke and the late Emperor William of Germany, considored him the greatest cavalryman of the

Though Sheridan has passed away, his deeds will live while the memory of heroism survives, and future historians will give due credit to the intrepid young Irish soldier who knew not defeat and who was the personification of indomitable courage. His life is enshrined in the annals of the country. Brave soldier that he was, he was generous to the fallen foe, and he was not found in the reconstruction period waving the "bloody shirt" in the faces of those who had gone down in the lost cause.

One by one the great soldiers of the war are being gathered to their fathers. Meade, McClellan, Thomas, Hooker, Burnside, Halleck, Hancock and Grant are goneand Sheridan follows them. Only Sherman, Rosecraps and Buell remain. The war and its bitter memories are fading from view, and the great record of heroism and results accomplished shines out brighter each day, a heritage in common for a reunited people.

An Athletic Revival.

Though Lancaster has only a few amatour base ball clubs, it will be evident to sayone who takes a trip to the Athletic park on Saturday afternoon that the earnest efforts of our young men to revive outdoor pastimes in this city are fully appreciated. Among the spectators he ball games are to be seen the faces of men in all walks of life, with those who have always made it a point to encourage the sports which quicken the eye and develop the muscle.

But base ball is not the only sport which has received new life in Lancaster. A glance at the list of the members of the Lancaster Gun club will show the names of many of our most highly respected citizens. The matches which have taken place between this organization and those of other places indicate that we have in our midst marksmen of no mean ability.

Boating on the creek, although enjoyed to some extent for the past two or three seasons, has never been so popular as it has been this year. It was a rare occurrence five or six years ago to see a pleasure boat on our creek after nightfall. But it is different now. One may take a ride to Potts' Landing on a pleasant evening and there find hundreds of pleasureseekers enjoying themselves either by skimming over the waters or resting under the delightful shade of the park.

One thing yet remains to push Lancaster still further onward to all the requirements of a progressive city a. 4 that is a natatorium. In our present situation our creek is of little utility to bathers. Let the same young men who have devoted so much of their energy to the revival of all legitimate sports form the inspiration by which we may have a natatorium which will prove a blessing to our population and a source of pride for our

Was Harrison a Free Trader ?

Candidate Harrison is said to have been the author of the tariff plank adopted by the Indiana Republican convention of 1886, which was as fellows :

Following the reduction and readjust ment of the tariff from time to time as circumstances may require, upon the basis of affording protection to the products and re-suits of American skill and industry, in our opinion the duties should be reduced as low as will be allowed by a wiss ob-servance of the necessity to protect that por-tion of our manufactures and labor whose Prosperity is essential to our national salety and independence.

It will be seen that even the Republican candidate is not in harmony with the miserable party platform of Chicago origin. Of course, in accepting the nomination from the committee of notification, he swallowed the platform. But when he reads his own tariff planks in the past, he will be treated to a gagging experience that will not be enviable.

A New Trade.

So scarce thas the young man, who dances and flirts, become at the seaside and mountain resorts that the enterprising hotel proprietors are offering him special inducements to come and lodge with them. Some hotel men charge nothing for these very desirable acquisitions to the body of their guests, while others give them a one-third rate.

It is very fortunate for the young swells of the country that these cheap rates come just when they have least money and most leisure. A dude who walks into a hotel with his full dress suit done up in a paper box will be received with more effusiveness now than a milonaire many times over. But it cannot be a pleasant reflection for the young men that they are hired as dummies to keep the young girls from ennui. The dudes thus are classed with the paid attractions of the place. Heaven help the young women who are ever foolish enough to regard them as serious creatures.

The Business Situation The business situation for a presiden ial year is phenomenally good, and the commercial agencies report the volume of business thus far in 1888 as fully equa to that of a year ago.

One reason for this is the excellence of the crops which this year will probably touch high-water mark prices. Then, too, our neighbors across the ocean England and the other continental countrier, save Russia, have been visited by lacking crops, and will have to buy their deficit largely from the United States.

But the best reason for business confidence exists in the administration of President Cleveland. The people have such entire confidence in his wisdom and patriotism and the impression is so general that he will be easily elected his own successor that the business people show ess fear of embarking in new enterprises than if the issue was fraught with doubt. The unusual business prosperity at this time will be an important factor in attracting votes to the Democratic ticket-

BLAINE, Allison, Hawley, Hale and the late Vice President Wheeler, voted for free coal. Were they free traders ?

MR. W. B. WILSON, of Philadelphia, who was some years ago freight agent of the Pennsylvania railroad at this place, has found time from his multifarious duties to write a 27-page pamphlet entitled "A Leaf from the History of the Rebellion." Wilson was a military telegrapher in that flerce civil strife and had close relations with McClellan, Cameron and Scott. Some of the facts which he relates have never before been given to the public. It is a very creditable place of literary work. The work is dedicated to the memory of the late Thomas A. Scott.

THE Philadelphia Press still reiterates the story that President Norvin Green, of the Western Union Telegraph company, gave $10,000 to the Democratic campaign fund. Mr. Green has denied this over his own signature, but that makes no difference to the Press, which must have its doublepriced political news, even if the latter reeks with falsehood.

THE 1 (ernstional Tuberculosis Congress in Paris practically agreed upon the identity of tuberculesis in men, women and cattle Here was an illustration used; A dairy maid with consumption coughs and spits on a bundle of hay. A cow cats the hay and gets the same disease. The cow is milked and some one drinks the milk, and if he is apt to take the disease, he gets consumption. Many strong people, of course, escape, and in a general way the stronger the general health and constitution the less likely is the person to get the infection, but the proportion liable to get it is very large. Over one-fifth of the population of the world dies of tuberculosis. In France alone 100,-000 yearly perish. The remedy proposed is to cook all mest thoroughly, boil all milk used and live as much as possible in the open air.

PRESIDENT GRANT in one of his messages recommended that raw wool be placed on the free list. Was he a free trader?

DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN BRICE sends out very encouraging reports of the Democratic situation through the country. He finds everywhere a feeling of confidence in President Cleveland. He says: "Even those who do not distinctly understand the tariff issue are so strong in this feeling that the efforts to befog and bewilder them entirely fail. They will vote for Cleveland on their feeling of trust and confidence. They consider him patriotic, brave, honest and faithful. This confidence our reports indicate as particularly atrong in the agricultural regions of the West. The farmers trust Cieveland. Michigan, 1111 nois, Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota will go for Cleveland and Thurman, and the great advantage of this will be in the gain it will insure in senators and congressmen. The great reforms that the executive plans will be encouraged by a Democratic Congress, instead of thwarted by an opposition

THESE are the days when thoughtless people make the burden of life heavier by the inquiry : " Is it hot enough for you !"

Ex GOVERNOR PORTER, of Indiana, relterates his determination not to accept the Republican nomination for governor. He says his wife and children uphold him in this decision. He seems honest in his withdrawal and in his speech on Saturday night said: "I feel that I must stand fast by my integrity. cannot afford for any public honor that could be put upon me to have it said justly by any living man that for the sake of popularity or office I would not stand by my word. My simple integrity requires that I shall not be in the way of any of the gentlemen whom I have mentioned." But what if all the gentlemen mentioned persisted in getting out of Porter's way, would he then accept? It would seem so.

PERSONAL.

LARRY JEROME, the prince of good livers and a famous New York wit, is dying in Sharon, Conn. REV. MATTHIAS BRINSER, aged 94, presented at Elizabethtown on Sunday. Rev. Brinser is a resident of the lower end of Dauphin county.

JUDGE JOHN STROTHER BOYD died at Cynthia, Ky, yesterday morning, aged 6i years, after a long illness. He was one of the most prominent barristers in Kentucky. SAMUEL SPOTTS, of Reading, the man who built the first coal car for the Reading ratiroad, fell down stairs and was killed 'ew days ago. He was 75 years of age, and had worked for the company since 1810 longer than any other Reading hand.

THE INDIANA CAMPAIGN.

A Democratic Mass Meeting in Terre Haute and Speech by Senator Voorhees. The Democracy of Terre Haute, Indiana, and vicinity, held a mass meeting Saturday night, and Senator Voorhees made the opening speech of the Democratic campaign in Indiana, this being the senator's hone The street procession was a large and credtable display, and the wigwam where the meeting was held was crowded. Senator Voorhees was tendered an ovation on his appearance, the audience rising and cheer ing several minutes. On the platform were ing several minutes. On the platform were many Democrats of state and local prominence. Senator Voorhees' address was listened to with marked attention, and he was frequently interrupted by rounds of spplause. He said:

For 19 years the Republican party has caused the people to pay the manufacturers at least $100.000,000 a year in consideration of a tax paid by the manufacturer to the government, not a dollar of which tax during that time was paid. Nearly $2,000.000, 000 have thus been wrenched from the folling masses. The manay his articles and every effort to reduce the mountainous tariff duties by which they have tainous tariff duties by which they have drained the earnings of the people. Bonds and coupons, bank stocks and railroad profits were made exempt from the tax gatherer's demand, while the tax on your shirt and your wife's calico dress and flannel petitioat remained the same or were increased.

Senator Voorhees then discussed at length the labor question and the surplus. He declared the labor interest of the country decisred the labor interest of the country need in circulation every dollar that can be spared from the expense of the government, and yet at this hour there is piled up as a useless surplus enough of the laboring people's money to pay down in cash more than £500 for every day since the birth of Christ.

You want free salt, cheap nais, cheap farming materials and cheap articles for household and kitchen use.

Touching upon the Republican internal revenue plank, Senator Voorhees said: "It is hard to speak in terms of moderation of this monstrous proposition. In this Christian land and age, men sometimes spoken of as Christian statesmen think nothing better than free whisky and tobacco to offer the people in response to their cry for rethe people in response to their cry for re-

Thoughts For Workingmen,

From the San Francisco Examiner. You are supposed to be the chief beneficiaries of the war tariff. To improve your condition is alleged to be the single aim of its advocates. You have a right then to demand all the advantages that you are told it can afford you. Suppose you see whether you are getting them.

There are, on a generous estimate, perhaps 20,000 workers in protected industries in California. By protected industries we mean, of course, industries the price of whose products is artificially kept up by the tariff. Of these 20,000 fully 15,000 are Courses.

whose products in arthonomy acts up by the tariff. Of these 20,000 fully 15,000 are Chinese.

The people of California pay at least $20,-00,000 a year to "protect American labor." That means to protect you, the 5,000 white workers in the protected industries of California—for of course the workers in other sistes are supposed to be cared for by the taxes paid by their neighbors.

Suppose the 15,000 Cainamen average $10 a week apiece, their total wages amount to $7,500,000 a year. That leaves $12,200,000 for you, or about $2,500 apiece.

In other words, the people of California are taxing themselves enough to pay you average wages of $2,000 a year, supposing that all your wages have to come out of their taxes and nothing out of the returns of your employer's business.

Do you get it? You help to pay the bills, but do you get the reward?

but do you get the reward?
Unless the average "protected" worker in California is receiving $2,500 a year, omebody is swindled. The Estraces to the Catacomb

Is not more forbidding than a mouth disman-tied of teeth. This disfigurement is in most instances, the consequence of a want of atten-tion to them in youth, but is happily prevent-ible, with SOZODONT, used, as a stump speaker once arged his auditors to vote, "early and often," This staple article is a thoroughly reliable means of rendering the teeth ornamental and serviceable. The press and medical profession endorse it.
