

Babies Caught Stealing. A little girl five years of age has been arrested for stealing in a New York store. With her was another child of eight. They gave their names as Ida and Anna Meyer, and said they were stealing for their mother, Mrs. Barbara Meyer, of No. 805 Finching avenue. The children were taken to the office, where it was found they had a great number of small articles of wearing apparel and fancy goods stuffed away in the pockets of their dresses. Each girl wore an apron, and under the aprons were a series of pockets.

LACTATED FOOD. Plum and Rosy Babies Sleep All Night, Happy All Day. 'I had a little boy who, when he was only three months old, was very ill. He was lying in bed for three months, and it was thought he was going to die. I had heard of Lactated Food, and I bought a box of it. I gave him a little of it every day, and in a few days he began to get better. He was able to get up and walk in a week, and in a few more days he was able to eat solid food. I have since given it to several other children, and they all have done just as well. I can heartily recommend it to all parents who have young children who are ill.' - Mrs. M. J. Smith, No. 1234 W. 10th St., St. Louis, Mo.

THE RESULT OF USING LACTATED FOOD. Most nourishing and economical of foods. It is a valuable article for all infants, but especially for those who are suffering from indigestion, colic, or other ailments. It is easily prepared. At druggists. - See, St. Louis, Mo.

In the Amazing Comedietta of 'Ted Up,' Sir Charles Childers, a blase man of fashion, is made to denigrate everything in which everybody else is supposed to take interest. With the languid remark that there is really nothing in it, 'he even extended this derisive notice to the crater of Vesuvius, down which he looked out as 'nothing in it.' Such characters are scarce on this side of the Atlantic, but abroad, but they are not so scarce. Such men are also not so scarce. They are also not so scarce. They are also not so scarce. They are also not so scarce.
