ing the "Welcome Col. Brice, chairman of the Democratic campaign committee, spoke on Saturday in New York of Mr. Blaine's arrival and Itseffect on the campaign. He said that "Democrats have little to fear, and the fa lure of his reception shows that the Re-publicans have little to hope from it. If Mr. Biaine will only continue making speeches of the same kind as his speech to

mr. Blaine will only continue making speeches of the same kind as his speech to to the Pat Ford clowd on Friday nght the Democracy can sek nothing better. That speech was an insult to the intelligence of the American people. For instance, Mr. Blaine stated that ever since Mr. Cleveland's tariff reform message is t December the manufacturers and commarce of the country had experienced confusion and disaster. Almost while he was saying this the columns of the Tribuna contained the refutation. Its commercial article showed, in accordance with the real facts, that the fountry is more prosperous now than in August, 1887, and that mer cantile interests are on a more to id basis.

"Mr. Blaine, too, has resorted to a pure plece of demagoguery in asserting that the English want the Mills bill to become a law. On the contrary, English newspapers contain editorials every day expressing their conviction that English newspapers contain editorials every day expressing their conviction that English newspapers contain editorials every day expressing their conviction that English newspapers contain editorials every day expressing their conviction that English newspapers contain editorials every day expressing their conviction that English newspapers contain editorials every day expressing their conviction that English newspapers contain editorials every day expressing their conviction that English newspapers contain editorials every day expressing their conviction that English newspapers contain editorials every day expressing their conviction that English newspapers contain editorials every day expressing their conviction of the properties.

"There never was anything that fell flatter upon the public generally than Mr. Blaine's arrival. For weeks his friends have been making preparations for it. It was to be the case, and in his first speech on Saturday used the words, 'The compagn on which we are now about to enter.' There was to be nothing of importance done on the Republican side until Mr. Blaine's arrival. Yet the only per deals impartially with all and knows no distinctions of race. Most of them are working men, and they understand that high tariff makes the capitalist grow rich and keeps the workingman poor; that it builds up monopolies, for whose benefit workingmen are 'axed." What is the outlook at the end of this week? work of the campaign is going on effectively. The campaign committee is in constant communication with all parts of the country. I am not only confident of the election of Cleveland and Thurman, but of the election of a Democratic Senate and House, which will enable the reforms with which Mr. Cleveland stands indent fied to be carried into effect."

From Birth to the Grave We carry with us certain physical traits, as we de certain mental characterístics. Insomuch that psychologists have striven to designate by generic titles certain temperaments-as the bilious, the nervous, the lymphatic. The individual with a sallow complexion is set down as bilious, often rightly plexion is set down as billous, often rightly so. If the saffron in the hue of his skin is traceable to bile in the blood, its presence in the wrong place instead of the liver, will also be evinced by fur on the tongue, pain beneath the right ribs and through the right shoulder-blade, sick headache, constipation, fatulence and indigestion. For the relief of this very common, but not essentially perilous complaint, there is no more genial and thorough remedy than Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is also a beneficent tonic and strength-promoter, and a widely esteemed remedy for and preventive of fever and ague, rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles.
