Wants to Fight Salityan.

There is no doubt that Richard K. Fox it a man of blood as well as money, but it is generally believed that the fight between Smith and Kilrain was a "fake" of the worst kind. Fox is continually doing something to advertise his paper, but he row comes to the front with an offer to book Jack Kilrain sgainst Sullivan or a y other fighter living for $10,000. Fox claims to have the greatest confidence in Kilrain and is confident that becan whip Suttivan. There are many others who believe the same since Sullivan's miserable exhibition with Mitobell. The former has just been on another big drunk in Boston and was arrested for disorderly conduct. He says he can get a man to back him for $10,000, but it is doubtful. Sullivan has lost friends in large numbers and many people charider him a big loafer. Pat Killen, of Minneapolie, offers to fight Kilrain but no notice has been taken of him by Fox, who thinks his name is not sufficient to "use" in connection with his paper.

Obtideen Burned to Death, cottage of G. D. McCorkie, at the The cottage of G. D. McCorkie, at the Mount Tabor, N. J., Methodist compressing grounds was destroyed by fire Tuesday morning. Mr. McCorkie's family consisted of himself, wife, two pairs of twins, one pair aged eighteen months and other pair six months, a five-year-old boy and a servant girl. The hired girl started a fire in the stove to prepare break fast. The wood in the stove refused to bure, and she resorted to coal oil. An explosion followed and the cottage was soon in ashes. The charred and almost unrecognizable bodies of one of the younger twins and one of the elder twins were found in the ruins. Intense excitement prevailed during the fire, and the father and mother of the little ones are now prostrated with grief.

From Birth to the Grave We carry with us certain physical traits, as We carry with as certain physical train, as we do certain mental characteristics. Inso-much that psychologists have striven to designate by generic titles certain tempera-ments—as the billous, the nervous, the lymphatic. The individual with a sallow comphatic. The individual with a sallow com-plexion is set down as bilious, often rightly so. If the saffron in the blood, its presence in the wrong place instead of the liver, will also be evinced by fur on the tongue, pain beneath the right ribs and through the right shoulder-blade, sick headache, constipation, fatulence and indigestion. For the relief of this very common, but not essentially perilous com-plaint, there is no more genial and thorough remedy than Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is also a beneficent tonic and strength-promoter, and a widely esteemed remedy for and preventive of fewer and ague, rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles.

OUTIOURA REMEDIES. A Frightful Skin Disease.

MESSEN. FIRVERS & BRUNER, Monroe, N. O.

Deer Sire.—About two months ago, on your recommendation, I bought a bottle of curticutal kinsolver, one box of Curtoura Salve, and one cake of Curtoura Soar, for my sem, aged thirteen years, who had been afflicted with ecomes for a long time, and I am pressed to say that I believe the remedies have cured him. His sufferings were intense, his head being nearly raw, his ears being gone except the grierle, and his body was covered with sorce. His condition was frightful to behold. The stree have now all disappeared, his skin is heating, eyes bright, cheerind in disposition, and is working every day. My neighbors are witnesses to this remarkable cure, and the doubting once are requested to call or write me, or any of my neighbors.

Sneezing Catarrh. The distressing sneeze, sneeze, the acrid, watery discharges from the eyes and nose, the painful inflammation extending to the threat the swelling of the mucous lining, causing choking sensations, cough, ringing noises in the head and splitting headaches,—how familiar these symptoms are to thousands who suffer periodically from head colds or influence, and who live in ignorance of the fact that a single application of Sanronn's Badical funs rok Catarra will afford instantaneous relief.

But this treatment in cases of simple Catarrh gives but a saint idea of what this remedy will do in the chronic forms, where the breathing is obstructed by choking, putrid mucous accumulations, the hearthy affected, smell and taste gone, throat ulcerated and hecking cough gradually fastening itself upon the deblitated system.
