

The Daily Intelligencer.

LANCASTER, AUGUST 16, 1934. THE DAILY INTELLIGENCER publishes all the news of the United States...

Harrison should lead him to succumb to the force of logic supporting tariff revision and become a Democrat.

Female Suffrage Suppressed. The supreme court of Washington territory has just made a very important decision on the woman's suffrage question.

So the women who would vote must let the outposts alone and continue hammering at the gates of the capitol for admission to the rights of citizenship.

Engineering News notes with horror the statement of a Chicago newspaper that in January of this year the corners of that city had held inquests on the bodies of 126 persons killed at railway crossings in that place.

There are any Americans who favor any such policy they must be found among those Republican friends of a deformed tariff, who look with complacency upon the support by the people of industries employing the lowest class of foreign cheap labor.

The death of Charles Crocker will recall to many the day when the Central Pacific railroad was looked upon in the same light that now gives the Pacific canal enterprises so uncertain an appearance.

There can be no concealing the fact that the attempt to reawaken the old Tippecanoe and Tyler Zoo excitement is a flat and profound failure.

There is something to be said for the candidate losing his balance so early in the campaign, and if the criticism had not the sting of truth, it is hard to see why he should recall from it.

It is a curious old time sort of story that comes from the city of London. Recently a band of brigands invaded a small Roumanian town and captured the daughter of a peasant, a young girl named in that locality for her beauty.

A Prosecutor's Victim. In Aurora, Ill., Rev. G. S. Cooper set fire to his house at an early hour Wednesday morning with the intention of committing suicide...

Many people before purchasing a medicine naturally inquire into the life of the doctor and the strength of it.

Wanamaker's. Closed at 1 P. M. on Saturdays. When you come to the city bear in mind that Wanamaker's is a meeting and resting and waiting place as well as the biggest store in the world.

Wanamaker's Philadelphia. You know that there is no worthy hot weather (or any weather) thing for wear or home use but we have it.
