COLUMBIA, Aug. 16 -The "Jolly Twentygre" camping club left town this after-noon on the 3:40 train over the Reading & Columbia ratiroad for their camp at Virinaville, Berke county. The club consist twenty members and are fully equipped provided with everything necessary adopted a neat uniform, consisting of a gray shirt, light feit hat, polks dot neckties and white suspenders. Headed by the Metro-politan band the club paraded from their headquarters at Schlegelmiich's hotel, on Lawrence street, to the passenger station. They made a fine appearance and attracted much attention. The camp will last for ten days. The club is composed of the following officers and members : President John W. Duttenhofer, vice president George H. Wike; secretary, John W. Michael; treasurer, Joseph Schlegelmilch; captain, Peter Engroff; members, John Booth, Frederick Brink, Benj. Dennis, Jacob Duttenhofer, James Harsh, Michael Hook, Daniei Hook, William Hershey, Patrick Hanion, Samuel Keller, Albert Kimes, James Kelley, Paul McMahon, Howell Michael, John S. Weidler. An Alleged Wife-Benter.

The upper end of town, in the neighbor Eighth and Ridge avenue, was thrown into a state of excitement about midnight last night by the cry of "murder arder!' The cry came from the resi-nce of John Roath, a cigarmaker, on Righth street, and the many people who and badly using his wife. Some say he openly said he was going to kill her and had a revolver in his hand. Mrs. Roath was taken to the residence of Samuel Brighton, on Bethel street, where she spent the balance of the night. About 2:30 o'clock this morning Officer John Gilbert arrested Roath and 'Squire Hershey held him in bell for a hearing this evening at 7:30 Oberlin Wnis.

A Third Track on North Queen Street. The Lancaster City Street Rallway com pany this morning began making prepara-tions for laying a third rail or North Queen street from the Pennsylvania railroad to Centre Square where it will conne t with their other roads. The third rail will be placed close to the west side of the west rais of Lancaster and Millersville track and the cast rail of the Millersville track will be used by both companies. There will be a "turnout" about half way between Orange and Chestout streets to enable the cars of the two companies to pass each other; and here is where the trouble will begir. North Queen street is already badly out up with the single track now laid upon it. The "turnout" will make it much worse, and general growl from the public may be ex-

We understand that the laying of the third track from the Pennsylvania railroad to Centre Square was opposed by some of the wiscet heads in the management of the company. What they wanted was to lay down Orange to Prince to Conestogs, along Concetogs to South Queen street, where it would connect with the other branch o their road. It is claimed that this route would have picked up many more passengorn than the other.

A Peculiar Larcony Case. Justice Hudson, of Sale Harbor, returned to the quarter sessions court to-day a larcepy case against Bridget O Neill. The presecutor is Andrew McCleery, and his complaint sets forth that "Bridget O'Neill utor is Andrew McCleery, and his did steal and take away one pocketbook, worth ninety cents, from his door step, that his child dropped, and that he has good reason to believe that she took the pocketbook, thinking that his two weeks wages were in it, with the full intention of stealing it." MALTED BY A RUPPIAN. A Woman is Encountered By an Unknows Man on Beaver Street.

For a number of days the flying carriage has been located at the extreme end of Beaver street, and every night it is attended by a hard crowd of men and boys who in-sult young ladies living in that neighbor-hood in an outrageous manner, and the lan-guage used is unfit to hear. Last evening Mrs. Mary Beamsderier, wife of Mr. Milton Beamsderfer, residing at No. 85 Hazel street, in company with two other young ladies, had occasion to visit that section of the city. When they came to the location of the flying carriage, a ruffian boldly stepped before Mrs. Beamsderfer and would not allow her to go her way. She did not become frightened at her predica-ment, but demanded that she be left pass. This the rascal refused to do, and began ner, making threats of a violent character. Again she demanded to be let go, but he talk only seemed to intensify the determination of the villain, and the unfortunate woman was now at the mercy of the wretch. The other two young ladies fortunately escaped without being haited, and when they had seen Mrs. Beamsderfer's plight they immediately started to inform her husband of what had happened. Mr. Beamsderfer soon arrived at the scene of the occurrence. In his efforts to secure the release of his wife, he made a narrow esespe from being badly beaten by a crowd of men, who threatened to kill him if he did not leave. After a great deal of diffi culty he succeeded in freeing his wife from

The people of that section of the city are complaining of being nightly disturbed by a gang of both men and boys.

EAST END DEMOCRATS.

The Democracy of Sart, Sadsbury and Sall GAP, Aug. 16.—A large and enthusiastic number of Democrate, representing the townships of Bart, Sadabury and Salisbury, assembled at J. R. Rutter's Believue Inn here, on Wednesday evening and organized a club for the purpose of for tering true Jeffersonian principles and of promoting the interests of Cleveland and Thurtuan.

The meeting was called to order by Geo. Boone, of Sadsbury, at 8 o'clock, when the organization was effected with the fol lowing permanent officers: President, Christian Fox, Sallabury ; vice president, William S. Hastings, Sadebury ; secretary, J. R. Chamberlain, Bart ; assistant secre tary, Jay Rutter Worst, Salisbury ; treasurer, H. C. Witwer, Sadabury.

The club will be known as the William Unler Hensel Central Democratic club and its meetings will be held monthly throughout the year. Over one hundred and fifty names were enrolled as members after which spirited addresses were de livered by James M. Walker, esq., Jas P. Marsh, Gec. S. Boone, I. D. Worst and William S. Hastings. The greatest enthuslasm existed during the meeting and it adjourned with three rousing cheers for the national ticket.

Merchante Have a Piente.

GAP, Aug. 16 .- The Retail Merchants association, of Ostoraro, held its first annual plente in Townsend's grove, near Smyrns, vesterday, and it proved to be a complet success. This is a branch of the State sano clatton, located at Pittsburg, and is made up of the best and most progressive merchants of those sections of Chester and Lancaster counties where it is situated. A platform and seats were erected, and, dur ing the morning and alternoon, speeches were made by members of the Philadel this association, nine of whom were present an delegates.

The meeting was presided over by the vice president of the Octoraro association Mr. Lewis Costes, of Christians, the president being unavoidably absent.

The music for the occasion was furnished y the Gap Philharmonic quintette and the Christiana band, and was quite a promisent feature of the programme.

The best of order prevailed, and everyone seemed to consider it a day well and pleasantly spent.

WHAT A KICKING HORSE DID.

He Wrecks a Buggy And Is the Cause of Ar Accident to a Child. There was an excitement on East Vine tree: early on Wednesday evening caused by a kicking horse. It was hitched to a buggy, and a man named Rinehart was the driver. When opposite Jacob Reaker's outcher shop the horse began kicking and attempted to run away. The driver held on the horse as long as possible, but was finally obliged to leave the vehicle. The buggy was a total wreck. The horse was stopped by his feet becoming fastened in the cross-bar of the shaft. A large number of people were on the street at the time, and fearing injury there was a general scramble to get away from danger. Helen. a young child of Charles Burns, was on the street, and in the efforts of her sunt to get the child to a place of safety the child stumbled and fell, but fortunately was not seriously injured. Dr. R. A. Campbell examined the child and pronounces the in-

Another Case of Till Tapping. Wednesday evening, between 9 and 10 o'clock, the till behind the bar of C. Vogt'r Excelsior saloon, East King street, was robbed of $10 or $12. It appears that there was a party playing a game in the room ad joining the bar-room, and the bartender left the bar for a moment to look at them. No one was in the bar-room at the time, but a rather genteel looking young man, about 22 years of age, wearing light brown clothes, and a light hat. He had no beard and had a prominent nose. When the bartender returned, the young man was gone and the noney was taken from the till, which was under the bar. It was evident that the stranger had stepped up to the bar, reached over it, opened the till and appropriated all the contents except a quarter dollar and a few dimes and nickels. Mr. Vogt says he never before saw the stranger, but would readily identify him if he should see him

A Constable Robbed.

It is seldom that constables are robbed, but such an evidence has just come to light here. Constable S. G. Pickel, of East Hempfield, is employed at Joseph Lederman's tobacco warehouse, on Charlotte street, this city. Yesterday afternoon he intended going away and he brought his good pantaloons with him to the warehouse at noon. He hung them up and donned his old clotnes to work in. When he went to dress he found that his pocketbook had been stolen from his pantaioons. There was about $1.25 in it, but Pickel thinks the thief supposed he had more as he was going away.
