THE PIREMEN SAVE THE STRUCTURE FROM TOPAL DESTRUCTION.

Mathiot and Samuel Moore Discove Finmer and Summon the Department. The Less, About $500, is Fally Insured. Religious and Other Town Notes.

COLUNEIA, Aug. 18.-The large stable of the Chestnut Hill Iron Ore company was partially destroyed by fire last night about 10:30 o'clock. The stable is situated near the intraces of the company, a short disire was discovered by Edgar Mathiot and armosi Moore, who immediately gave the larm, and in a very short time the entire fre department was on hand. The fire marted in the lower end of the hay mow ad gained rapid headway owing to there ing about ten tons of hay and a large mantity of siraw in the mow. Four bornes of the company were in the the company were in the the second story was destroyed Some people think that the fire started by spontaneous combustion, but the hay was in the mow for six weeks. Many think that it was of incendiary origin. The loss in bout $500, but is fully insured. When the fismes were under control a water fight took place between the Columcampmeeting in Conrad's woods, Provibis and Vigilant companies caused by an accident. The fight ended by the engines dence townships, some weeks ago, he has been kept busy with law suits. Each day chutting off. The only injury done was a he sues somebody or is sued himself. Officers Elected.

The following officers were elected of the P. R. R. hose company, No. 4, at a meeting last night : President, S. B. Clepper ; vio president, John Zell ; secretary, W. E. Madden ; treasurer, James Bloomfield. The members will parade equipped in white flannel shirt, white cap, blue necktie and white overalls.

Gen. Welsh Post are holding their annual picnic to day at Penryn. On the morning train 1,655 people left the R. & C. station. A large number went on the noon train. The unfavorable weather kept many at home.

The Columbia Ride club will hold an important meeting on Monday evening a Shenberger & Son's office. John Bittner and Will Glatfelter sued Wash Null for assault and battery before Squire Solly. It is claimed that Null hit them with a board at the fire last night. It is thought the matter will be settled.

Wm. B. Given, enq., left yesterday for s trip to Cape May.

Harry Gallagher Makes More Threats. Harry Gallagher was released from prison a few days ago upon promising to leave town, but he failed to do so. One of the charges for which he was committed was preferred by J. M. Walton, whose complaint was that Gallagher threatened to kill bim. Walton called upon Alderman Barr this morning and stated that Gallagher had again threatened to do him great harm. It is probable that Gallagher will be rear-rested if he does not leave town to-day. Deputy Prothonotary Breider's Accident, Deputy Prothonotary William E. Kreider met with an accident this morning which

THE QUESTION THAT NOW SEEMS to Affect the Interests of Farmer, Me-chanic, Manufacturer, et al., is PROTECTION VS. FREE TRADE ! As fair consideration and honorable discus-sion are the order of the day, it can and will be fully demonstrated that the above declaration of the issue now before the peo-ple is a Failacy, and that the keal issue is quite different-one that should and must eventually go hand in-hand-that of FAIE TRADE AND PHOTECTION !! Without Fair Trade there can be no Pro-tection ; and vice versa, without Protection there can be no Fair Trade. To prove this fact go to the OLD BELLABLE
