MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARED

[illegible] NET, A CARPENTER, LEAVES HIS BOARDING HOUSE ON AUGUST 11.

His Plans for the Conestoga Creek to Take a Swim and Pains to Mourn—A Motive Which He May Have Been Fatally Dazed With, as He Had Money.

Joseph Net, a carpenter, who boarded at the house of Lorenz Smith, No. 222 East Walnut street, has mysteriously disappeared. He left Mr. Smith's house on the morning of Saturday, August 11, at 10 o'clock, since which time nothing has been heard of him. Prior to his departure he told Mrs. Smith that he was going to the "Three Stumps" for a swim, and as it was his habit to go to the creek two or three times a week nothing was thought of the matter. As he did not return Mrs. Smith mentioned that he had gone to some other place to work, but as she has not received any word from him, and as he took with him only the clothes he wore, she now fears that some accident has befallen the man.

Net is a German, who came to this country about five months ago, and was employed by John Adam Barger, carpenter. He worked on the Southern market until the week he disappeared, and stopped work because he was laid off by his employer. He was a sober man, and is supposed to have had considerable money and a watch when he left his boarding-house.

He was not disposed to associate with his fellow workmen and sequaintances. He preferred to be alone, and Mrs. Smith says that frequently he would sit for hours in the yard without talking to any one, with his gaze fixed at one point. She tried to rouse him and invited him to the front door step where he could see what was going on in the street, but he invariably declined the invitations. Some of his acquaintances seem to think that he was homesick and in a fit of despondency took his life, while others are of the opinion that the man was murdered for his money and valuables and his body secreted.

He was always prompt in the payment of his board and a week's board due on the day of his disappearance was left unpaid, but he had the money to pay the same and Mrs. Smith does not think that the board bill sent him away, because he left behind in his room a large lot of clothing.

He is described as being 30 years old, of medium height, stout, dark hair and beard slightly mixed with gray and wore dark clothing. Any information of the man's whereabouts may be left at the INTELLIGENCER office and it will be reported to his friends.

CENTENNIAL MATTERS.

Those Who Will Be Aids to the Chief Marshal Death of Mrs. Charles M. Haldeman.

COLUMBIA, Aug. 21.—The industrial committee of the centennial held a meeting last evening in the chief burgess' room. It was decided not to allow space for the display of Wenamaker & Brown on the ground that the parade is for Columbia merchants. The following aids to the chief marshal were appointed: A. R. Moss, John Westerman, George Tillie, F. W. Heckel, F. G. Paine, S. S. Detwiler, G. W. Paules, I. L. Auwerter and W. A. King. The uniforms for the marshal and aids will be high silk hats with band containing their position, red, white and blue sash, one color for each division, baton, badge and white gloves. The parade will be about 2 miles long and will pass over all the streets of town.

The programme, rifle, shotgun, fireworks, regatta, baseball and bicycle committees will meet the conference committee this evening at chief burgess' room to complete the second day programme.

Special meetings of the Vigilant fire committee and P. R. R. hose company will be held this evening.

The grand marshal and aids of the third day parade will meet at the Franklin house this evening to adopt uniforms and form line of parade.

A New Rifle Range.

A meeting of company C was held last evening, when it was reported that J. H. Pargle and the Heise estate will allow the company the use of ground for a rifle range. The range will be situated between the Marietta and Chestnut Hill turnpikes. On Wednesday Dr. E. W. Goerke, C. E., will lay out a 100, 200 and 500 yard range. The company decided to invite Col. D. B. Case to marshal the national guard division of the third day's parade. Invitations will be sent to the field staff of the Fourth regiment to attend.

Personal and Other Notes.

Harry B. Dean left for his home in Boston this morning.

Joseph McFalls went to York county to collect relics for the centennial.

Miss Ella Bennett is visiting friends in Harrisburg.

Miss Brennan, of New York, is visiting at St. Peter's convent.

Sam Hing, of the Chinese laundry, has been very much annoyed by small boys throwing dust into his room, spoiling his newly ironed shirts. This incensed the Chinaman and last evening one of the tormenters received a couple of hard blows with a mallet.

A crowd of boys have organized a club called the "Harrison Dudes." They will appear in high hats, white umbrellas and linen dusters.

A dance was held last evening at the house of Harry Nolte, on South Third street, and a good time had by all.

Work has commenced in building the new market house on South Fourth street. The fence and stable on the property have been removed.

Cocalico Lodge, No. 108 of Odd Fellows, of Reamstown, have declined to parade on the second day.

Deaths.

Harry C. Kidders, an eight-weeks-son of Orville Kidders, died last night at 10 o'clock. The death was caused by spasms. The funeral will be held on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mary Gertrude, wife of Charles H. Haldeman, died to-day at the residence of her parents, John B. and Isabella K. Bachman. Mrs. Haldeman was in the 21st year.

Binding of the School Books.

The text book committee of the school board met on Monday and opened bids for the rebinding of the school books damaged during the past year. The bid of the Inquirer Printing and Publishing company was 34 cents each, that of Harry L. Trout the same, and that of Wm. H. Roy 24 cents and special rates for the larger books. The total amount of the Inquirer bid was $49.30, H. L. Trout the same, and Wm. H. Roy, $38.65. The contract was awarded to Mr. Roy.

Went to Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Henry F. Musser, of Ephrata, left on Monday for a trip to Council Bluffs, Iowa, to visit her sister.

Cut His Finger Off.

William S. Mochel, while putting a hinge on an ice box for E. C. Hall at his restaurant in Centre Square, let slip a clasp knife with which he was working and it closed over the end of his middle finger, cutting it completely off.

Official Visit to the Water Works.

The committee on water work improvements paid an official visit to the water works on Monday afternoon. They found the improvements progressing as fast as expected.

Sale of Horses.

Samuel Hess, auctioneer, sold at public sale on Monday for Daniel Logan, at his mule and exchange stables, eighteen head of Illinois horses at an average price of $193 50 per head.

THE READING EXCURSION.

About Eight Hundred Democrats of Lancaster Have a Good Time There on Monday.

The excursion of the Young Men's Democratic club of Lancaster to Reading on Monday was a grand success. There were about 800 excursionists from this city. The Lancaster excursionists were met at the Reading depot by a committee of the Americus club of Reading and escorted to Lauer's park. The Liberty band of this city discoursed excellent music during the day. Many of the excursionists visited Mineral Spring, Highland house and other points of interest. The afternoon and evening were devoted to dancing. Edward Hartman was master of ceremonies, and he had a corps of able assistants, who looked after the comfort of the large number of excursionists.

In the afternoon and evening a number of Democratic clubs from Reading visited their Lancaster friends, and brief addresses were delivered. Mayor Kenney, the judges of the court, and other Berks county officials were among the distinguished citizens who paid their respects.

About 200 of the Lancaster Democrats with the band visited the headquarters of the Americus club in the afternoon and were entertained most hospitably. The club visited several newspaper offices and were applauded for the serenades they tendered.

Two of the oldest Democrats of Lancaster attended the picnic. They were Henry Stanter, aged 88, of North Prince street, and Peter Hoover, aged 85, of Mulberry street, and they greatly enjoyed the festivities.

The special train arrived in this city at 11:40 last night and all expressed themselves well pleased with the trip. The committee in charge of the arrangements deserve great credit for the faithful manner in which they discharged their duties. Over five hundred dollars was added to the treasury of the club as the result of the picnic.

HANGED HIMSELF IN HIS GRANARY

Because He Imagined He Committed a Sin for Which He Would Not be Forgiven.

Deputy Coroner H. C. Gibble to-day filed in the coroner's office the inquisition held by him on Monday on the body of Christian Haldeman, of Rapho township, who committed suicide by hanging himself.

Mr. Haldeman was 60 years old and a farmer by occupation. He went to work about 5 o'clock on Monday morning and not appearing for breakfast his wife went in search of him and found him hanging in the granary. He was dead when found. He was in good health up to the time he committed suicide, and the only reason assigned for the rash act is that he imagined that he had committed some sin for which he would not be forgiven. The coroner's jury were Henry Hummer, Elias B. Sherer, Henry Sherer, John Luttman, Wm. D. Ulrich and A. S. Garman, with Dr. C. J. Snavely as their physician. Their verdict was that Haldeman committed suicide by hanging.

THE FARMERS' SOUTHERN MARKET.

Store Rooms, Dwelling and Basements Leased A Janitor Chosen by the Directors.

The board of directors of the Southern market house company met at the Fountain Inn, Monday afternoon, twelve of the thirteen directors being present.

The principal business of the meeting was the fixing of the rent for the three stores, the three basements, and the dwelling house connected with the market. The president was authorized to lease them at the rents fixed upon.

Samuel Martin, of Ephrata was elected janitor of the new market.

The lighting of the market house was put into the hands of a committee, who will determine whether gas or electricity will be used.

The thanks of the board were given to Mr. Joseph Wacker for the beautiful golden eagle presented by him and placed upon the front of the building.

The market will be opened early in September. The market days will be Wednesday and Saturday mornings, early, and Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Funeral of Frank B. Doyle.

The funeral of the late Frank B. Doyle took place from his mother's residence, on North Duke street, at 8:30 o'clock this morning. The services at St. Mary's Catholic church were at 9 a. m., when a requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Dr. McCullagh. The choir sang Ohnewald's mass and the solo parts were taken by W. O. Frailey and Misses Rhoads, Reilly and Lowell. The pall-bearers were John C. Carter, Dr. D. R. McCormick, R. M. Reilly and Dr. John J. Stewart. The interment was made in the family burying ground in St. Mary's cemetery.

Before the Mayor.

Henry Fordney, a professional bum, was arraigned before the mayor this morning. He was arrested by Officer Boas for begging and loitering in the vicinity of the tobacco warehouses along the railroad. When arrested he told the officer that he never would work until compelled to, as it was too hot to labor in the summer and too cold in the winter.

John Carvel, imbibed too much whisky and was pulled in by Officer Stormfeltz. He said he wanted to go to the soldiers' home and the mayor thought a ten days' rest in jail would improve his appearance, and that was the punishment he received.

Prof Gleason's Exhibition.

Another large audience attended Prof. Gleason's horse taming exhibition at McGrann's park last evening and were delighted with the manner in which the professor subdued the most vicious horses. There were kickers and buckers and shiers and bolters, but all of them gave way to the professor's persuasive methods.

August Kummer, 655 North Queen street, claims that Prof Gleason injured his horse on Saturday evening last while operating with it, and that the horse has been lame since that time. Dr. Gleason sent two of his men to Mr. Kummer's stable to look after the animal.

Death of An Aged Woman.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kauffman, aged 76, widow of the late Jacob S. Kauffman, died this morning in this city. Mrs. Kauffman had long been suffering from a dropsical affection and her death was not unexpected. She leaves a family of grown up children; all well known in this city.

Arrested For Forgery.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Aug. 21.—Robert Henrickson, a prominent citizen of this city, was arrested last night charged with forging a check for $142. He gave up the money and says he don't know what made him do it. He was bound over to court.

On for Two Weeks' Stay.

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Aug. 21.—When the express on the Lake Erie & Western railroad pulled out of the depot at 7:15 o'clock this morning a drizzling rain was falling and it had been raining heavily all night. But few people were at the depot as it was not generally known that this was the train Gen. Harrison would take. General and Mrs. Harrison were taken on board at the Massachusetts avenue station which is most convenient to the Harrison residence. They were accompanied by U. S. District Judge William A. Woods, his wife and daughter. One ordinary passenger coach had been attached to the rear of the train for the convenience of Gen. Harrison and his friends. Press representatives accompanied the general's party. Gen. Harrison's route is via. the Lake Erie & Western to Peru, Ind., arriving there at 10:25 a. m.; thence via. the Wabash railway to Toledo, stopping at Fort Wayne, at 1:40 p. m., for dinner, and arriving at Toledo at 4:25.

He is an Italian.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21—The body of the man who was murdered in Park Row, yesterday afternoon was identified this morning as Ferd. Serganio, an Italian, 44 years old, a foreman by occupation. Two Italians, named John Jameo and and Michael Parlino, friends of Serganini, identified him. They said he had been missing for a month, and hearing of the murder determined to see the man.

At the corone.'s office the newsboy who claimed to have seen the murderer a moment after the shooting leave the hallway where the body was found failed to identify Manning, who was arrested on suspicion. The police are inclined to the belief that Serganini committed suicide.

Relics of the Campaign of 1840.

EDS. INTELLIGENCER.—As soon as the nomination of Benjamin Harrison was announced there followed the resurrection of the superannuated trappings of that memorable "hard cider campaign" as though they intended to endow them with the privileges of a vote for the Republican party. Old songs of the "Coon" and "Rooster" order of literature "turned up," battered as well as well preserved medals and badges, containing log cabin and cider barrel impressions or profiles of the hero of Tippecanoe; flags and banners, old "latch strings" and tin cups used in quaffing the hard cider of 1840, buttons, shin-bones—relics of ox roasts and barbecues of that noted campaign, besides other objects that pandered to the merely sensual man forty years ago, just as if during the interval between, all the schools, seminaries, colleges and universities of the country had been closed, and their tutors, teachers and professors had been banished from the country. The best minds of the Republican party themselves are disgusted with this excessive manifestation of bourbonism, and have so expressed themselves. Relics of course haves historical value, but every epoch in the history of the country only represents itself, and cannot arbitrarily transmit its fossilizations to posterity. SECTOR.

He Will Get the Figures.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21—Mr. Mills said this morning concerning the statement put in circulation by the Senate managers of the tariff measure that the surplus would not far exceed the appropriations that he intended investigating the matter and that with this object in view he had written a letter to the secretary of the treasury asking him for an exact statement of the condition of the surplus.

To Restrict Chinese Immigration.

The bill to restrict Chinese immigration was on Monday passed by the House without division, with the amendment providing that the repealing clause shall go into effect upon the ratification of the pending treaty.

Arrested on Suspicion.

FORT FAIRFIELD, Me., Aug. 21.—Three men, supposed to be the murderers of Mrs. Howes, who was shot last Sunday while canoeing with her husband and family on the Tobique river were captured on the river this morning. The police arrived later and took the prisoners into custody, and they are now in jail in Andover, N. B.

Dr. Hark's Book.

Dr. Hark's book, "The Unity of the Truth," is still receiving a large share of the attention of the critics. The Sunday School Times recently gave its very favorable leading review; while an entire article of nearly fifteen pages was devoted to it in the August Andover Review, mainly in opposition to Dr. Hark's opinions. On the other hand this months Christian Union, a paper second to none in the country in the ability and fairness of its literary criticisms, in a leading review speaks of the book in terms of warmest praise. Among the rest it says: "We have seen no volume which seems to us so thorough and intelligent in its purpose to consider the relations between modern evolutionary thought and ancient Christian faith and doctrine. * * * The volume deserves to take rank with the works of Munger, Newman Smyth and Professor Drummond in what we may call the literature of the New Theology." We believe the first edition of the work is already nearly exhausted.

Make No Mistake,

But go to the Seashore to morrow morning Train starts from Pennsylvania railroad station at 5:45 Question. Can we stop off in Philadelphia? Not going down, but coming back. Yes. Any day or train until August 29. Don't mistake the railroad—"Pennsylvania."
