Executions and Processions Brought Against John D. Rishell—Ex-Beto-Kerper
Mingle and Thomas Pendergast
Are Also Seed.

Margaret Rishell issued execution on Tuesday evening against J. D. Rishell, proprietor of the Grape hotel, for $3,000, and the sheriff levied upon the personal property at the hotel. Shortly after this execution was issued Catherine Mingle, from whom J. D. Rishell purchased the hotel furniture, also issued execution. The amount of her claim is $1,800.

In addition to the executions issued there have been cross suits brought against Rishell and Mingle for violating the liquor law.

nated in the taking away of some property by Mingle. J. D. Rishell purchased the furniture and business from Mingle and alleges that when Mingle moved sway he took with him property to the value of $300 which was included in the sale to him. When Rishell learned that Mingle was leading execution against him for the $1,800, the amount of the judgment given to him-be determined to protect his mother who had advanced him $3,000; he gave her a judgment and on it an execution was is-attempted to get the best of him in the civil court by confessing judgment in favor of his mother, he went before Alderman Haisch aud entered suits against Rishell for selling liquor on Sunday and to minora Rishell gave ball for a hearing on Wednes

Mr. Rishell thereupon made complaint against Mingle for selling liquor on Sunday and to minors. The case will be heard by Alderman Patrick Donnelly. Mr. Rishell also made complaint against Thomas Pendergast, Mingle's son-in-law, who boarded at the Grape, charging him with the larceny of certain property belong-ing to the hotel. The case will be heard by Alderman Donnelly on Thursday. UNDER SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES, I'wo Men Supposed to He Making an Im pression of a Mail Box Lock.

When Letter-Carrier Donnelly passed the corner o' East King and Lime streets or Tuesday evening he saw two men at the letter box acting in a suspicious manner. Upon opening the box to take the letter from it he found some wax in the keyhole The matter was at once reported to Post-master Slaymaker and he notified the police authorities to arrest the parties if pos-

The supposition is that the men obtained or were endeavoring to obtain an impression of the lock so that a key could be made to open the mail boxes of the city.

The men are described as being young hve feet seven inches in height, wor seersucker coats, dark trousers and stiff hats. The postmaster has also instructed the police officers to arrest all parties found lounging or lollering around the mail

The complaints of surety of the peace and drunken and disorderly conductorought by Mrs. Pallant against her husband, Lewis Pallant, were withdrawn before Alderman Spurrier, Tuesday.

Amos Dyer, arrested for assault and battery on John Riley, gave ball for a hearing before Alderman Spurrier on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Rism Lyons was held for a hearing on Saturday evening before Alderman Spurrier to answer a complaint of assault and battery on James H. Gray. Henry P. Dorwart and John F. Bear, charged with huckstering within a mile of the Rawlinaville campmeeting, had a hearing before Alderman Spurrier and were discharged. Charles Seigler, arrested for drunken ten days by Alderman Deen.

The Larg A large deed was filed for record at the recorder's office on Tuesday. It is five feet, three inches long and two feet, six inches wide and contains as much reading matter as fifteen ordinary deeds. It was made on March 3, 1796, and to for five tracts of land in Donegal township. It is part of the large tract of land recently purchased by David B Landis. Eighteen other old deeds for the same tract of land were also left at the cilics to be recorded.
