Richmond is a lively city but well laid out. The people seem to be happy and have plenty of business. The markets are not so complete as those of Norfolk, but a visit to them with their many funny looking negroes will cause any one to laugh.

In one thing Richmond seems to be far ahead of most other large cities, and that is in the railway. They have a large line, which is run entirely by electricity and carries great loads of passengers up the steep hills. The line is a big success and the citizens are proud of it.

One of the best features of the entertainment at the opera house is the entertainment at the opera house is the entertainment at the opera house.

At 11 o'clock the party was back at Harve-de-Grasse, at their starting point. The club had arranged to go again next year and have already secured a large sailing vessel, in which they will not only visit the Chesapeake, but will cruise along the Atlantic coast.

A Market House For Ephrata. EPHRATA, Aug. 28.—A market house is talked of for this town and the following plan has been suggested: a two-story building, with room for seventy-five stalls and stores in front, and to have a large second story room suitable for a lecture hall and entertainments. The scheme is sure of popular support.

The waiting rooms of the station have been papered and painted. Samuel Sloat, the tobacco dealer, appeared here wearing a Cleveland and Thurman cap, which he will wear until Cleveland is re-elected.

When the news reached this place last week that President Cleveland had sent a message to the Senate in retaliation of the fisheries treaty his action was heartily endorsed by the Democracy and a few of the Republican leaders. A prominent Republican is authority for "it is a good step and will make a good many votes for him next November, but he should have done it a year ago. But better late than never."

Ephrata was well represented at the U. B. camp meeting at Durlach on Sunday and on the same day a lecture hall and entertainments. A number of Ephrata sports gathered some black eyes in a fight at the Akron festival. A large number of names were added to the list of the Democratic club at the Saturday meeting.

Accident to a Ballooning Party. The balloonist Simmons, with two companions, made an ascension from the Italian exhibition in London, on Monday. The balloon descended in Essex, and dashing against trees was overturned, placing the occupants were thrown out.

Result of Ball Games. Monday's championship contests resulted: Athletic 6, Louisville 4; Baltimore 2, Cincinnati 3; Boston 4, New York 2; Pittsburgh 1, Indianapolis 0; Detroit 0, St. Paul 1.

On a Vacation. Mr. C. F. Newell, of the firm of Brinkman & Newell, wall paper dealers, and wife are spending some time at Philadelphia, Atlantic City and other places in the East.

The Southern Market. Workmen are putting the finishing touches to the Farmers' Southern market; the market is in place and will be sold by public auction on Saturday, September 29, and Wednesday, September 30. There have been already many applications for stalls and the basements.

Robbed at Atlantic City. R. D. Moore, tobacco and cigar dealer, of this city, while spending a week at Atlantic City, was robbed on Saturday last of a gold watch, a chain, diamond ring and $30 in money. Mr. Moore was taken to a bath-house and tied his valuable in a bath-house for the purpose of having them checked. He left the bath house for a few minutes to talk to a friend and when he returned the handkerchief containing the money and jewelry was gone. He has placed the matter in the hands of a detective.

"The Boy Hero." Last evening the second attraction under the management of the opera house was given. It is a sensational drama entitled "The Boy Hero." The star is Martin Hayden, a young man who not only is of his own, who of course plays the part of the hero. He is a slight, clever actor and has company that did fairly well. The audience, of medium size and the people seemed to be satisfied with the performance. The play will be given to-night and to-morrow afternoon and evening.

West South. This afternoon at 2 o'clock, Mr. Cyrus H. Colvin and B. J. McGrann left for Honker, Virginia, where Mr. McGrann has large railroad works. Mr. Colvin will be on the road with pleasure on his trip, and in the near future may hear of him returning with a fine drove of horses.

To Continue the Inquiry. WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—At a meeting of the House committee on manufactures, this morning, it was decided to go ahead with the investigation of trusts, taking up the cotton bagging trust on next Friday.

Sent to Jail. Michael Rogers, an old Irishman, was found on the streets with his head full of booze and he was run in by Constable Barnhold. Alderman Deen gave him 20 days in the school for this offense.

Carl Thorbahn will open shortly a school for orchestra playing. Further particulars will be given later.

Miss Bertha Collins, who is home from California on a visit, will give readings Wednesday evening, August 29, in the Octagon Presbyterian church, for the benefit of Hart W. C. U. S. Single admission, 25c; family, 50c. Doors open at half past seven o'clock. 114 W.

At Fulton Opera House.—On Thursday night Tom Taylor's comedy, "Our American Cousin," with Mr. Holland as Lord Dundreary, will be presented, and on Friday and Saturday nights "The School for Scandal" and "Money" will be the plays. Mr. Holland's company contains some of our best actors. There will be a matinee on Saturday.
