INSTANTLY KILLED Perry Rosso Lopes Hits Life While Mt Work &

Word was received in this city late on Tuesday afternoon of the killing of Jerry Rosse, a Lancaster man, at Middletown. Rosse was a carpenter by trade and formerty worked for his brother John at West Wiltow. From that place he went to Philadelphia about a year ago. Of late he had been working for Martin McNeal, a contractor in Middletown. The societat which took his life coursed on Tuesday morning about half past ten o'clock. MoNeal and Rosse were at work at the planing mill of Kendig & Lauman, sweling an elevator. They had the platform propped up about eight feet from the floor. MoNeal told Rosse that they would go above and change the blocks to raise the elevator and then come back and take out the props. Rosse misunderstood MoNeal and remained below. He knocked, out the props himself and the elevator fell upon him. His bead was terribly crushed, one log was broken and his death was instant. The deceased was 44 years of age and was unmarried. His father was the late Abber weee, who resided near Rawiinsville. His mother has been married again and the resides on Boaver street, this city. His two sisters in Lancaster are Mrs. James Kautz and Mrs. Kete Rine. John, a brother, resides at West Willow and Albert makes his home in this city.

During the rebellion Resse served as a

his home in this city.

During the rebellion Reass served as a private in Co. B. Sist Regt. P. V., and after the war he enlisted in Co. K, 1st United States Infantry and served with credit for a period of three years. His remains were brought to this city this atternoon, and the funeral will take place from the undertaking establishment of A. C. Rote to morrow afternoon at 2 o'clook: interment in afternoon at 2 o'clock; interment in soldiers' lot in Laucester cometery.

BISHOP BERR'S PUNERAL.

A Large Number of Priends and Relative Attend the Obseques on Tuesday.

The funeral of Bishop Benjamin Herr, of the old Mennon'ts church, took place on Tuesday from his late home on the Beaver Valley turnpiks, about a mile from Willow Street, and was attended by an immense concourse of friends and neighbors, an setimate making the number hiteen hundred, including many Mennonite clergy-

The religious services at the house were conducted by Bishop Martin Rutt, of East Donegal township, who preached in the German language. Several bymns were also sung. As is usual at who chose to partake of it, and several hun-dred eat down to the table.

The morning service and the dinner being ended, the funeral procession was formed and moved to Brick meeting house. Not less than a hundred carriages were in line. The pall-bearers were: Bishops Jacob M. Brubaker, of Mount Joy; Amos Shenk, of Millersville; Martin Rutt, of First Donegal, and Jonathan Martin, of

At the courch there was an immense throng—seven or eight hundred vehicles tied up to every possible place for hitching, for half a mile distant, while the meeting house was packed with people who wanted to hear the sulogies on the dead bishop and a much larger gathering was outside. by Bishop Amos Shenk, who delivered a eulogy in the German language. Bish-ops Jacob Brubsker and lease Eaby followed in English discourses. At the close of the services the interment was made in the graveyard in rear of the church. There were many ministers present at the funeral, among them being Reva. John B. Harnish, of Paques; Abraham B. Herr? of New Danville; Adam Breneman, of Landia Valley; Joseph Wenger, of New Holland; Elias Groff, of Straeburg; Abraham Brubaker, of Strasburg; Jacob Her-shey and John Ranck, of Kinzer's Station; Landis, of East Lampeter; Henry Longenecker, of Mount Joy; Ephraim Nissley, of Mount Joy, and Jacob Newcomer, of Manor township.

Bishop Herr, whose death occurred or Saturday last, was one of the oldest and ablest preachers of the denomination to which he belonged. He had been a minister for fifty years and a bishop for thirtytwo years, and was regarded everywhere as a pattern of learning and plety. All the speakers at the funeral bore high testimony to his true Christian spirit.

A NEW BAND FOR LANGASTER. The Musicians of the Irequels Club Form

a Permanent Organizati The musicians who composed the band of the Iroquois fishing club held a meeting last evening at John Bruder's Tremon botol, on North Queen street, when a perma nent musical organization to be known a the "Iroquois Cornet Band" was formed. The band will consist of twenty members and will be conducted by Herman Neumyer, inte of the State Capital band of Harrisburg, who is well known to our citizens as an excellent musician. Mr. Neumyer will remove to this city to take charge of the band. Harry Stricker will be the leader and the officers elected are as follows: President, C. C. Donnelly: vice president, Philip Raun; secretary, Fred. Hass; tressurer, John Bruder; trustees, Michael Kuhlman, H. Ritchie and John Dougherty. The band includes several members of the old City band and has the material to make firstclass music. They will go to work at once and will receive their new uniforms in the near future. The headquarters of the new band will be at the Tremont house.

Another Suit Against the County. County Sollettor A. F. Shenck is con-tinually fighting with the constables and magistrates, whose bills he refuses to approve. Squire Samuel Evans has just brought a civil suit against the county to recover the amount of a bill of costs in cases disposed of by him which Shenck refuses to pay. Within the last couple of months a large number of suits have been brought against the county and if it loses the additional costs will make the bills much larger.

Alderman Hersbey's Court. John Gilgore has brought a suit against Caroline Waltz, charging her with amount and battery. The prosecutor alleged that Mrs. Waltz threw several basins of water on his five-year old son Charlie. The accused and her husband Henry will also be held to answer the charge of being common

A Case Dismissed for Want of Evidence. John Brackbill, who was sued before for being drunk and disorderly, had a hearing last evening. The alderman heard all the evidence and was satisfied that there was nothing whatever in the charge, but it seemed to be a malicious prosecution. The case was promptly dismissed.

Hearing Continued The suits against Landford Rishell, of the New Michael house, for selling liquor to minors and on Sunday, preferred by David Mingle, which were to have been heard by Alderman Halbach this afternoon, have been continued. The prosecutor was not able to get here from Huntingdon in time. To morrow afternoon has now been lime. To morrow afternoon has now been designated for the hearing.

A Desperate Appeal.

A circular from James P. Foster, president of the Republican League, was mailed by mistake to a Democrat, who very properly brought it to this office as a curically. It is curious because of the difference in tone as compared with documents of the kind issued in former presidential campaigna. "All we sak of you is a small contribution. Immediate action is necessary. Will you aid us, be it ever so little, to take Will you aid us, be it ever so little, to take

THE TALK ABOUT THE CASH PRICES OF THE Original and Only Cash Grocery

DUKE AND VINE STREETS, One Square South of the Court House, Continues as much as ever. The fact is, paying cash for anythin r saves, or at least ought to save the purchaser money.

If you deal at a Cash Stree it will save you money, but if you pay each where go dis are sold on credit you will, as a matter of course, pay credit prices, even though you do pay cash.

Is that fair? Is it right that he who pays cash should pay the same as the one who pays once a month, orce a year, or not at all?

At the Original and only Cash Grocary every customer is placed on the same level—one price and one system—the Cash—for all. It is evident, therefore, that all get their goods at the lowestingure.

BOOTS AND BHOM. HONEST GOODS AT LOW PRICES.

August is always a duli month, but we are determined that if low prices will do it, it shall not keep our trade back.

All gods will be sold at the lowest possible price, while we will give you the best goods to be had for the money.

No goods that have been sold at Auction, and that have been made specially for Auction Houses, but all good, honest, well-made shoes that will give satisfaction and bring the oustomer back.

Good shoes are cheap enough now, and there is no excuse for buying shoddy and finding yourselves disappointed in the wear of them.

We have a reputation which we mean to keep. Respectfully,
