N. Reynolds from his father, who is sum-mering on the coast of Maine. He writes : Our state is covered with speakers of both parties, both spending iots of money. Our people trying to out down the majority of 4 years ago and the other aids to keep it up, I think we shall make a gain, as our vote will be fully canvassed. Our people have the money to pay the expense of so doing. There have been some few ohanges from both parties, but not enough, I think, to obange the result very much, though some of our very sanguins friends are sure we shall mearly carry the state. I don't see much of the canvass and perhaps am not ab e to give a good opinion of the current of affairs of one thing, though I am stire the fishermen are not boiling us.
