ANOTHER GREAT EFFORT. W. Menterr Speaks at a Pole Ratifug a

The Republicans of Lancaster and Lancaster township held a "mass" meeting and pole raising at the publichouse of Isaac Hetney, at Graeff's Landing, Thursday evening at seven o'clock. Prominent among those resent were twelve or fifteen small boys led by Pete Fordney and Capt. McMellen, who handled the ropes in raising the pole, which is adorned by a bunch of greens, ematic of their knowledge of th tariff. An eight by ten inch flag also holds a prominent place on the pole, but it is evi-dently ashamed of the size of this giant of rest, (about 19 feet), for it refused to WAVE.

After the pole had been put up a meeting was organized. The speakers were Clem Kennedy, whose sudden activity is owing to the fact that he is a candidate for district attorney, Prothonotary John W. Mentzer, who claims the credit of nominating Harrison at Chicago, and Billy Brosius, the Southern End statesman. The bright star of the evening's effortsinment was Mr. Mentzer, who made such great hits at Litiz and in the rooms of the Young Republicans recently. A large number of boys from the lower end of town went down especially to hear John and get some free drinks. The speeches were made from the hotel porch and when the prothonotary was brought to the front there was great cheering and for about five minutes. During that time he made the wildest kind of gestures while the wind pierced his whiskers, but could not say a word. When he finally recovered he said ; "Gentlemen, I am stuck ; 1 am bottered." Clem Kennedy, who seemed to be grooming the star, sat and he and others encouraged him by such remarks as "Steady, now John," "Get your wind," do. This had the desired effect, for the speaker finally recovered from his embarrassment and began his harangue. He spoke until his throat grew sore from the use of "barbed wire" language, and at the close of his speech he sat down covered with perspiration and glory. During his address. Mr. Mentzer touched on almost every subject and did not linger long with any. He was very particular to tell the folks that he was an "alderny" at the Chicago convention, and was for Harrison first, last and all the time. He spoke of the Chinese, and had fire crackers, tes, and Barrison badly mixed up. In referring to the product of the Chicago convention be said, "Where does Harrison ball from? Why from the old man of 1840, who signed the Declaration of Independence." This was a little bit beavy for the audience, but they had pre pared themselves for anything after reading the bill of the meeting and they resolved "play their strings out." In speaking of the surplus Mr. Mentzer said : will we do with the surplus? Why put it in the Sous to educate the people or give it to the soldiers." In conclusion Mr. Mentzer said : "I hear good news from the Sous as well as the Norse, and I know it will be all right. When I see young men coming to these meetings (where drinks are plenty) I know the old ones are all right, and they would come if they possibly could even if they were compelled to take out a license. Gentlemen, excuse me for getting stuck at the beginning, but I am all right now and could talk until the next

The other speakers attracted very little attention at the meeting, as Mentzer had everything his own way, and the boys howied themselves hoarse for him.
