HARVEST HOME SERVICES.

HANDSOMELY DECORATED CHURCH DECORATED FOR THE CELEBRATION.

Flowers and Vegetables Around the Altar—Sermons by Rev. Pannebecker—The Public Schools Opened For Another Term—Personal and Other Notes.

COLUMBIA, Sept. 10.—Harvest home services were held on Sunday in Trinity Reformed church, and were of a very interesting character. The decorations consisted of fruits, flowers and vegetables. Three bushels of wheat, decorated with flowers, were placed on the altar, the remainder of which was covered with garden vegetables. At the back of the altar were a number of sheaves gracefully arranged. The pulpit and reading desk were covered with vines and bouquets. The altar steps were covered with a mass of fruits and vegetables, consisting of grapes, peaches, pears, turnips, pumpkins, radishes and everything of that kind. Among these were flowers, the whole making a beautiful sight. The music was appropriate to the occasion. In the morning Rev. J. H. Pannebecker preached on the subject, "God gave us these things"; in the evening, "How to use them."

Opening of the Schools.

This morning the public schools opened for the school term of 1888 9. The streets were full of children on their way to the different school buildings. A visit to the several buildings found Superintendent Hoffman and his excellent corps of teachers hard at work. The promotions had been made at the close of the term of last year and everything was in shape to assign lessons to-day. The chapel building is occupied by the school taught by Miss Clara Leaman, giving one room in the Cherry street building for a secondary school. The attendance, Superintendent Hoffman states, will compare favorably with other years.

Harvest Home Services.

There were interesting harvest home services at Christ Lutheran church on Sunday. The church was prettily decorated with sheaves of grain and fruits of all kinds. Rev. Reed, the pastor, preached a sermon at 10:30 a.m., his text being "A voice of rejoicing and salvation is heard in the tabernacles of the righteous." In the afternoon there was the regular Sunday school service and at 7:30 p. m. the harvest home services. These consisted of questions and answers by teachers and pupils, having reference to the fulness of the harvest and the thankfulness it should inspire. City Superintendent R. K. Buehrle made an address of some length, in which he spoke of the many wonderful things he saw in his recent visit to the Pacific coast. Rev. Reed followed with a brief address. The singing by the school was very creditable. Collections were taken up during the day for the poor fund.

How a Stamp Was Sent.

W. F. Hambright, of the Pennsylvania railroad, received a queer postal card on Saturday. The writer desired to know whether Fast Line stopped at Parkesburg, and it closed with these words: "N. B.—By return mail you will find a two cent stamp under the head of this postal for an answer." Mr. Hambright was puzzled to know a postage stamp to be used again could be fastened to a postal card, so he examined the card. He found the card had been split on the top edge, and in the crack was found a two-cent stamp nicely doubled up. This was not seen by the postoffice people, and it was the last place that any one would look for a stamp.

During the afternoon there will be dancing by the members of the society and their families and friends. To-morrow afternoon the last practice shoot will be held.

Taken to York.

George Watson, colored, was released from prison, where he had served a fourteen months term on the charge of felonious entry. It seems that before George was committed to prison here he had been in York county. He there brought a charge against some person and the bill was ignored with George for the costs. When he heard of this he skipped from the county and came to Lancaster. When he was released this morning he was given to an officer from York, who took him back to that place. He will now either have to pay the costs or stay in jail the required time.

Injured His Hand.

Frederick Dinkelberg, butcher, 401 East King street, severely injured his right hand this morning. He was placing some meat on a wall hook and missed it, the hook catching his hand in the palm, penetrating the member deeply.

A DOZEN BABIES ENTERED.

Names of the Little Ones Who Will Compete for Many Articles.

The meeting of the directors of the county fair, which opens on next Monday, met to-day. The attendance was large and from the reports presented from all sections of the county indications point to the largest fair ever held in the county.

In less than an hour this morning over one hundred and fifty entries were made.

Another entry for the baby show, to be held on Tuesday of next week as one of the attractions of the farmers' Lancaster county fair at McGrann's park, was made at Mr. B. F. Montgomery's office, on Duke street, this morning, making twelve entries in all as follows: Mrs. Emma Forrest, Lancaster, son Albert, born January 11, 1888; Mr. B. F. About a dozen essays have thus far been entered in the contest for Mr. B. J. McGrann's $50 prize for the best essay on "Corn, and Its Uses," and the time for entering these essays will expire Tuesday evening.

The entries for the trials of speed will also close Tuesday evening.

Stole From a Milkman.

Sunday morning Hambright's milk wagon stopped on Orange street, between Shippen and Lime, and a small boy soon began to converse with the driver. The latter then went into an alley of one of the houses in the vicinity to deliver milk. As soon as he had disappeared behind the house, the boy reached into the money box, which was on the floor of the wagon, and took a handful of its contents. He then ran down Jefferson alley and disappeared. A lady in the vicinity saw the bold thief's operation but she did not give the alarm in time to have him caught.

A Railroad War.

Some days ago the Knights of the Mystic Chain arranged to run an excursion over the Philadelphia & Reading railroad to Harrisburg, to attend the state meeting in that city on Wednesday. The rate of fare was fixed at $1.40 for the round trip. When the Pennsylvania railroad company learned of this rate they agreed to sell tickets for $1. That is the way the matter now stands, and the Reading may come down lower.

The Grape Hotel Sale.

The sale of the Grape hotel furniture and fixtures which Sheriff Burkholder postponed from last Monday until to-day at 2 o'clock, was again postponed until tomorrow at 2 o'clock.

Thurman Passes West.

Hon. A. G. Thurman passed through this city for his home in Columbus, Ohio, on Fast Line yesterday afternoon. The private car occupied by him was on the rear of the train. There was no demonstration of any kind, as very few people knew that the Old Roman was on the train.

Johnny Huber on the Town.

Johnny Huber, the one armed soldier, who is insane, was around decorated with bouquets, flags and ribbons, on Saturday, ordering saloons, banks and other places to close up. This afternoon he went to Columbia carrying an immense flag, and he will organize a "club" there. He is again getting to be somewhat of a nuisance.

The Street Committee.

The street committee has had time to cool off now, and this evening it will be safe to hold a meeting. Clerk Pinkerton, who threw down the books in disgust at the last meeting and resigned, is likely to be found in his old place again.

Bound for Columbus.

On the western bound train there are large numbers of soldiers on their way to the Grand Army reunion at Columbus. In a Pullman car in Fast Line this afternoon were the officers of the New Jersey department.

Valuable Property Sold.

At private sale on Saturday, Jacob B. Long sold for Mrs. Mary Shenk and D. B. Shenk, the properties in the northeast angle of Centre Square, now occupied by Edward Hall as a saloon and Jacob F. Sheaffer as a wholesale liquor store. The purchaser was A. B. Sheaffer, liquor dealer, of 63 North Duke street.

Twelve Hundred Pounds of Live Catfish.

George Kriner, the fish dealer, has twelve hundred pounds of live catfish swimming around in the big tanks at his place of business, corner of Water and Grant streets. They were caught in the Susquehanna just below the Maryland line. Some of them are of immense size.

Made an Assignment.

George Jarrett and wife, of Martic township, made an assignment of their property to-day for the benefit of creditors to Amos E. Gibble, of Bart township.

Funeral of George Elliott.

The funeral of George Elliott took place from his residence, No. 328 West Lemon street, on Sunday afternoon, and was largely attended. Posts 84 and 405, Grand Army of the Republic, attended in a body. The interment was made at Lancaster cemetery.

Charged With Desertion.

Joseph Houser, who resides on West James street, has been held before Alderman Patrick Donnelly to answer the charge of desertion preferred by his wife.

A Team Stolen.

Chief Smeltz received a telegram this morning to be on the lookout for a black mare and Dexter top buggy, with brown velvet cushions, stolen on Saturday night from S. L. Marherse, of Blue Ridge, this state.

A New Business Firm.

John Falck, for many years engaged in the merchant tailoring business, retires to-day, on account of ill health. His successors in the business are Richard McGrann and James Nowlen, both well known young men. Mr. McGrann is a thorough business man, and Mr. Nowlen acquired a reputation as a cutter at A. H. Rosenstein's, where he worked for a number of years.

The new firm took possession to-day, and on Monday next they will have a grand opening of a large stock of the newest goods in the market. They will no doubt be successful in their business venture.

Has a Fine Stock.

Al. Rosenstein, the fashionable clothier, whose pretty store is at the southeast corner of North Queen and Orange streets, has just received his fall and winter suitings, embracing a hundred styles of the best made goods in the world, including new styles of Scotch and English cheviots, wide wale worsteds, French Montague beaver overcoatings, and many other foreign and American goods. Mr. Rosenstein shows these goods on racks made for the purpose, so that customers can see them at a glance. He has also added to his other attractions Mr. Ritner, a New York cutter of large experience, who guarantees a perfect fit every time, and at prices as low as good goods can be sold.

ASTRICH'S Palace of Fashion will be closed on Saturday, September 15, until 6 p. m. sep10-3td

DO YOU DO ANY SPICING OR PICKLING?

If you do, don't risk your fruit in low grade vinegar.

To keep fruit nice you should have the very best OLD CIDER VINEGAR or High Grade WHITE VINEGAR. The ordinary vinegar usually sold, will not answer the purpose.

GRABILL!
—THE—
Original and Only Cash Grocer
IN LANCASTER, HAS
OLD CIDER VINEGAR

Of Special Strength for Pickling and Spicing Purposes at 15 Cents a Gallon, and

WHITE VINEGAR

At 15 Cents.

These prices are a trifle higher than some common vinegar is sold at, but when you take into consideration the fact that this vinegar is of such age and strength that for ordinary use one quart will make two, the price is very low.
