

A BARN DESTROYED.

Lightning strikes it and fire soon consumes the structure.

This season's crop and three hundred bushels of last year's wheat were in the barn.

Wednesday night a rain storm passed over this city and it was accompanied by very heavy thunder and sharp lightning.

The barn on the farm of Tobias Kreider, which is situated about half a mile east of Lancaster and Mechanicsburg and a short distance north of the New Holland turnpike, was struck by lightning.

The building was struck about 11 o'clock and in a short time it was enveloped in flames.

The fire was very bright and soon plainly in this city. The neighbors ran to the place, but it was too late to save the building.

No live stock was burned. There were 150 sheep in the building; they were all rescued.

All the hay, straw and grain of the past summer's crop was burned, besides 300 bushels of last year's wheat, which was in bags.

The building and contents were insured, but not nearly for what they were worth, and Mr. Kreider's loss will be quite heavy.

Chief Smith received a telegram on Wednesday to arrest John O. Shillens, for a larceny committed at Harrisburg.

Officer Lehr, who knew the young man, was sent in search of him, and he found him at his home on Cherry street, and arrested him.

Shillens was taken to the station house, and the Harrisburg authorities notified. This morning Detective Erb took Shillens to Harrisburg.

The facts of the case are these: Some weeks ago Shillens stole a gold watch and chain from his sister, Mrs. Neumann, of Harrisburg.

When the theft was discovered Shillens remained the watch and skipped to Camden. Knowing that his home was in this city the telegram was sent to this city for his arrest.

The accused at first denied having stolen the watch, and it was not found in his possession.

The detective did not leave Lancaster with his prisoner until 9:50 this morning, and while waiting for the train young Shillens weakened and made a confession.

He acknowledged that he had stolen the watch and chain. He said that he had sold the watch at the jewelry store of Henry Fochl, of Harrisburg.

When the watch was recovered the place, which he took with the prisoner to Harrisburg.

Another building association. The "Home" started and a committee appointed to arrange the preliminary details.

A meeting was held on Wednesday evening at the office of John A. Coyle, esq., and the formation of a new building and loan association was discussed.

James C. Gable was made temporary chairman, and John A. Coyle temporary secretary.

After a full discussion it was named "The Home Building and Loan Association."

NOMINATED BY ACCLAMATION.

On the reassembling of the Democratic convention in Buffalo on Wednesday evening the choice of D. Oady Herriot for permanent chairman was confirmed, and he was escorted to the chair, when he spoke briefly, commending the convention and the Democracy of the state.

His remarks were harmonious, and would result in presenting a united front to the common enemy.

The Democratic party, he said, had ceased to be a party merely of opposition, and in its conventions it is no longer a mere political attack.

It is now a party of promise and promise of what it will do, and it is intrusted with power.

It is now a party of promise and promise of what it will do, and it is intrusted with power.
