two years he was one of the city regulators. He leaves a wife and two sons, Alvin and Dr. D. R. Summy, of Columbus, Ohio. He elder's support, presented by Rev. W. H. Heard, of Philadelphis, was discussed. The committee favored a fixed sum on each church. A number of the members favored a per capita tax, but the report of the com-mittee was adopted after several hours talk. Just before adjournment Bishop Turner, of Philadelphis, arrived and was enthusi-setically received by the conference. After listening to the discussion for a short time he said there was a great necessity for pre-siding elders and mentioned the growth and strength of those denominations which have always had presiding elders. The ex-project closed with the benediction, proed by the bishop. In the evening there was a large attendance at the church. It was opened with a service of song, after which Bishop Turner preached an elequent sermon from Collos-ians vi., 12. His theme was, "All things through God." After the bishop's sermon there was a collection taken and a brief address by Rev. A. J: Campbell, from Monrovis, Africa. He asked for the encour-sgement of all members of the African hurch for the missions in that field. This morning's services were opened with prayer by Rev. J. T. Hammond, of Carlinie.

The question of the presiding elder's salary was further discussed and after revising the assessments made the committee's report was finally adopted. Bishop Turner instructed the members as to the proper way in which church re-cords should be kept. Rev. J. H. Buckaer, of Germantown, submitted the report of the committee on uniformity of church service. The committee recommended the rituals prepared and published by Dr. Embry ; on the administration of the Lord's supper, the pread should to prepared in small bits and served from the plate ; the use of unfer-mented wine and that love feast should be held before communion. The report of the committee was adopted and after the singing of the doxology, the conference adjourned, with benediction by Rev. Witksheim, of Steelton.

MANAGER REESE RETIRES.

He Served the Telephone Company Nine Years and Will Now Engage in the Insurance Business.

A. D. Reese, manager for Lancaster county of the lines of the Pennsylvania telephone company, to-day sent in his resignation to the company. The reason for this step is that the duties of the position have become too onerous for Mr. Reese. It is not known as yet who will be the succossor to Mr. Reese. That gentleman has accepted the position of general agent for central Pennsylvania of the National Alilance insurance company, of New York, of which W. Allen Carr is state manager.

Mr. Reese has been with the telephone company for the past nine years. For three years he had charge of the Columbia exchange only. He then came to Luncaster, where he has been for almost aix years. During that time he had charge of the Lancaster exchange and was manager of the entire county. When Mr. Reese first came to Oscar Brinkman, salesman for Kirk Johnson, musical instrument dealer on West King street, met with an accident last evening while on his way from New Holland. He was driving along the pike near Bare-ville when he heard the approach of a team. The night was dark and he tried to get out of the way, but it was too late. The team, which was a borne and dog cart of Moses Huber, dashed into his wagon, breaking the tongue. The cart was tossed in the air and badly damaged. Mr. Huber was thrown out and was stunned when he struck the ground. The force of the col-lision was so great that Mr. Huber's watch was thrown from his pocket, but was afterwards recovered. It was some time before all the repairs were made and the teams could proceed.
