The stock market this morning was feverish and trregular, and closed at noon in an unsettiod state. The feature of the dealings was a heavy pressure to sell the Granger stocks, particularly St. Paul. Outside of the Grangers there was little or no trading. The stocks named went steadily down under the selling movement, and at the close were of 15 to 35 per cent. The decline in the others were within the range of 14 to 1 per cent.

HOT CORN! HOT BISCUIT! HOT Rolls! Hot Potatoes! Het Eggs!

You think we are in the restaurant business, but we aint. There are the things stamped on Doylies, and so lifelike they are calculated to help your appetite—when worked in the goods that are right. Tray Covers so pretty that you hesitate to use them, and a viving Cloths so rich when worse d with Bargarian or -ope Stitch—that the head of the house is so careful that they won't be care less. No charge for ideas.
