"All things come to those who wal',"
Faithful love and bitter bate,
Curses, blessings—this is fate.

Swiftly turns Dame Fortune's whitel, Now to wound and then to heal, Now to selten, then to steel.

Hound and round the reasons roll; And, as stretches out the soul, Leave a bounty or a dole.

"All things come to those who wait, 'Close barred door and open gate—Masters we, or slaves of fate.

A Hint to Puny People.

From their arrival on this planet to their usually early departure from it, people of weak constitutions and angular physiques pass a sort of half-existence. Like dormice they burrow in their home retreats, afraid of heat, afraid of cold, constantly afraid that the heat, afraid of cold, constantly afraid that the shadow of the dread reaper will materialize and exact the forfeit which he demands from all, sooner or later. No finer medicinal assurance of comparative vigor for the feeble exist than that afforded by Hostetter's Stomach Ritters. Used with persistence—not with spuris and spasms—this genial and professionally commended tonic will do much toward infusing strength into a puny system, and rounding off scrawny angles in the human figure. Appetite, nerve tranquility and nightly repose are encouraged by it, and a malarial, rheumatic, billous tendency overcome. It re-establishes digestion and prevents kidney troubles.

Bome Feelish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away, "Ould they be induced to try the successful medicine called Remp's Halsam, which we sell on a positive guarant e to oure, they would immediately see the excellent affect after taking the first dose Price 50 cents and $1. HOOD'S BARBAPARILLA.

Almost a Wreck It is often the case that a person gets into a ron down condition, the cause of which it is almost impossible to determine. From a weak-ened system and impure blood, more and more serious disorders appear, until the constitution breaks down and some definite powerful disease gains a firm hold. When that tired feeling comes on it should be overcome at any cost; thood's Sarsaparilia should be taken to revive the declining powers, restore the appetite and vitalize the blood.

"I feel it my duty to tell what I think of Hood's Sarsapararilia.

Hood's Sarsaparilla I was in a very poor state of health for several months; for four weeks I was unable to work, and nothing seemed to be what I needed. My sppetite was poor, I could not sleep, had headache a great deal, pains in the small of the back, my bowels did not move regularly. Why! I seemed almost a complete wreck. In this condition I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and in a short time it did me so much good that I feel Like a New Man pains and aches are relieved, my appetite improved. Had I realized how much good a single bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla would do me, I would gladly have paid ten dollars for it. I say to others who need a good medicine, try Hood's Sarsaparilla and see." Gword's F. Jack-W. Raybary Station. Conp.

WATCH REPAIRING.

A Watch is the most delicate and intricate piece of mechanism made by man, and the one that receives the least attention. Your steam engine, your wagon receives more. It is an established fact that there are more Watches ruined by the average Watch Repairer than by the Watch Carrier.

We have a Watch in our possession made by the undersigned; this, coupled with an ELFREIS NOW OF SIGHTERS YEARS AT THE BENCH, enables us to turn out work of the Highest Grade at reasonable prices and with satisfaction to our customers.
