Charged With Carrying Weapons. J. Frank Butler, who says his home i in Williamsport, was arrested on Saturday evening by Officer Barnhold, who thought wanted in another county. When the man was taken to the station house a seven shot Smith & Wesson revolver was found upon him. It was leaded with cartridges and he was committed to await a hearing before Alderman Deen on the charge of carrying sealed weapons. This morning Constable Barnhold received a telegram instructing him to hold the prisoner until the Williamsport authorities are heard from. Butler is a colored Contract for Bridge Awarded.

to-day for the building of a bridge over the county commissioners opened bids gs creek at Martindale. Following were the bidders :

Iron Superstructure-King Iron Bridge company, $795; Pittaburg Bridge company, $780; Mt. Vernon company, $787; Columbia Bridge company, $726; Dean & Westbrook, 8800 ; John Denithorn & Son, $819 ; Berlin Iron Bridge company,$811 ; Wrought Iron Bridge company, $832.

John G. Bowman, $360. Wooden bridge and masonry, Ellas Mcfellen, $939. The contract was awarded to Capt. McMellen, the lowest bidder.

Charged With Stealing Rum. Early last summer complaint was made against a number of colored men who were charged with entering the cellar of the Grape hotel, then kept by David Mingle, and stealing a lot of whisky and other drinks. Among the accused was Augustus Kiehls, who fled to Atlantic City, where he has been working as a waiter all summer sturned to Lancaster a week ago, and on Saturday was arrested by Constable Barnhold. He gave ball for a hearing before Alderman Spurrier.

A Horse Dies of Fright. Theodore Herr, of Retton, was driving slong West James street on Saturday evening, and just as he reached the railroad which crosses the tracks of the Pennsylvanis railroad a train ran under the bridge The horse began to rear and kick and seemed anxious to get away. In his strug-gies be fell down and died in a few momenta. He is believed to have been frightened to death.

Wanted-A Number of Good Orators. This morning a meeting was held by the depublicans in the rooms of the Young Men's Republican club to consider the advisability of holding a mass meeting. Those present included representatives of the clubs in the county, the presidential electors and delegates and "aldernies" to the late national convention. They resolved to hold a meeting and parade on Saturday, September 29. Here is an opportunity for John Mentzer and the young men who have been kicking for a chance at a big meeting.

Change of Ball,

This morning Uriah Bitzer, who was the sall for William Schneider, charged with obbling the mails, surrendered the accused to Marchal Burns. He was taken before commissioner Kennedy, when he fur-shed new ball in the sum of $1,500, his ster, kira Ruma Bramm, of Philadelphia, coming his surety.

SEPTEMBER ARGUMENT COURT. The Current Business Transferred at the First Beesten of Court.
The September term of the agument court was opened at 10 o'clock this morning.
There were presented and confined nisi

the accounts of 65 administrators, executors and guardians, 6 trustees and 23 widows

Urlah Bitzer, city, was appointed guardian of the minor grandchildren of Henry Webb, deceased, late of Drumore. Calvin Carter, Sadsbury, was appointed guardian of the minor children of John L.

The liquor store license of H. M. Bowman, Second ward, city, was transferred to Ames Sheaffer.
The tavern license of Wm. H. Deichler,

Ninth ward, city, was transferred to his widow, Mrs. Emma Deichler. A charter was granted to the Pioneer ateam fire company, of Ephrata.

An lasue was granted on which Wm. E Johnston was made plaintiff and Catherine E. Johnston defendant. William J. Johnaton died some time ago and there was at insurance on his life in the U. B. Mutual Aid society of $975.40 and this issue is to determine who is entitled to the money. The exceptions filed to the auditor's re port in the trust estate of Daniel L. Fra were withdrawn and the report absolutely confirmed. The rule to show cause why order of court made on William Elmer to maintain his child, should not be discontinued, was made absolute. Mr. Elmer now has his child with him. In the mandamus proceedings brought by A. P. Miller to compel the Clay town-ship school board to issue the school tax duplicate to him, an enewer was filed by the directors to-day. They deny that there was a tax collector elected last February, claim that no proclamation was issued for such election, that the voters did not know there was such an officer to be elected, and that of the 272 votes polled there were only seven cast for tax collector. The court is now engaged in hearing argument of cases on the common pleas list.

Bloodshed in Kentucky. CATLETTSBURG, Ky., Sept. 17.-A deplorable state of affairs exists at Tug river, whose waters divide the Hatfield-McCoy settlements. ness is completely paralyzed and will be until the trouble is adjusted. Men who are not in any way engaged in the feud are afraid to venture out of their own neighborhood for fear of being shot from smbush. There was another invasion by the West Virginians last Friday The McCoy faction attempted to arrest a man named Casey, whose neighbors rallied to his support. In the fight that followed two of the West Virginians were killed and two others badly wounded. None of the Kentucky faction were injured. Just what will be the outcome cf the feud no one can tell. During the last month the West Virginians have raided the Kentuckians twice and have lost five men Killed His Wife and Himself. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—Word reaches here from Steiner's Flat, an isolated spot in Trinity county, in Northern California, that last Tuesday night, Iverson, a man whose mind had been growing weak for several months, shot his wife dead and then after reading sections in a prayer book placed the muzzle of a rifle in his nouth, pulled the trigger with his toe and killed himself. The deed was committed at night when both were in bed. When the neighbors found their bodies next morning they also found the I verson babe killed outright.

A Colored Cake-Walk.

Saturday evening the colored people had cake-walk in Roberts' hall and there was quite a large crowd in attendance. A num-ber of couples participated in the walk, and the prize, a big cake, was taken by Mr. Edward Banks and Mice Elizabeth White. The Archey Brothers furnished the music. Johnson & Siavin's minstrels and the "Zig Zag" company, both on their way West. With the latter was young Tannihili, who spent most of this summer in Lancaster. -AND-WHITE FRUIT VINEGAR Advertised in the INTELLIGENCER last week is having an immense sale at the Origi-nal and Only

CASH GROCERY.

N. W. CORNER DUKE AND VINESTS. LANCASIER, PA.

The opportunity to get such vinegar at 15c a gallon does not come always, and this fact no doubt explains the enormous demand. For ricking and spicing nothing but an old high grade cider or White Fruit Vinegar will answer satisfactory. SOAPS are advancing. All the soap manufacturers are advancing prices. We have, however, a large supp'y on hand at our old low prices.

MACKEREL are, as everybody knows, very high. We have in to-day a small, White Fat Mackerel at 5c apiece. Large fish at 13c per pound. Mess Shad, 7c per pound.
