The Daily Intelligencer, Lancaster, Pa.

The Reserves. Our citizens thoroughly appreciate the honor conferred upon them by the selection of Lancaster as the meeting ground of the survivors of the Pennsylvania Reserves...

Falling Together. The announcement by the Philadelphia Record that there will be no opposition to the renomination of Mr. Randall is gratifying as an exhibition of the harmony prevailing in the Democratic ranks...

PERSONAL. R. K. BECK, a member of Allen Camp, Sons of Veterans, of Pendleton, O., who voted for Blaine in 1884, has declared for Cleveland and tariff reform.

Professor Baldwin, of Yale college, in a speech introducing Mr. Mills, of Texas, to a New Haven audience, the other day, eloquently and truly expressed our party sentiment upon this issue...

Fighting Fever. Yellow Jack is reigning sternly in that town of his in Florida, and there are indications of his passing on to other fields of conquest...

LUMBER, COAL, &c. Wholesale and Retail Dealers in all kinds of LUMBER AND COAL.

COAL DEALERS. OFFICE—No. 12 North Queen Street, and No. 10 North Prince Street, near Reading Depot.

Handkerchiefs. G. SENER & SONS, FRINGE AND WALNUT STS.

Notice to Clubs. ERISMAN'S, NO. 42 WEST KING STREET.

these equipments for the fight will not gain much for suffering humanity by the peril of their life. "The frail thing we call human existence" is not a trifle to be tossed away with a generous emotion...

BISHOP KNICKERBOCKER, of Indiana, has ventured to solve long vexed problems. The bishop is in Paris and he confidently tells a St. Louis Herald reporter that Mr. John C. New, of the Indianapolis Journal, created candidate Harrison...

The bakers of Paris combined to put up the price of bread and there was great excitement until the mayor succeeded in breaking the ring. In America men of great wealth combine for the same purpose and they wisely call it a wheat pool and everybody is satisfied.

Wool staple dealers in Halifax have failed. If they had done business on the American side of the Bay of Fundy it would be announced that tariff agitation caused the failure.

The report of the exports of mineral oils in August shows an increase of $281,699 over the exports in August, 1887. For the whole year, however, the exports were only $334,294 greater than in the year preceding...

PERSONAL. R. K. BECK, a member of Allen Camp, Sons of Veterans, of Pendleton, O., who voted for Blaine in 1884, has declared for Cleveland and tariff reform.

PERSONAL. ALBERT G. CLAY, of this city, who recently left Franklin and Marshall college to attend Muhlenberg college in Allentown, has returned and will resume his studies in the first named institution.

PERSONAL. JAMES SULLIVAN, a life-long Republican, a good soldier and a wealthy business man of Dunkirk, Ind., has announced his intention of voting for Cleveland and Thurman.

ADAM FOREPATON talks freely to a Rochester Post-Express reporter on the subject of politics. He is sure to go Democratic in 1888 because he thought he would make a good president.

CANDIDATE THURMAN made a speech in Columbus on Monday evening. The Democratic ladies of Columbus presented the Thurman Guard with a beautiful silk banner bearing the portrait of the Old Roman.

It is not yet a year since President Cleveland—our great president—great in rugged, direct honesty of purpose, that sweeps away considerations of personal or party expediency, when right and duty are involved...

Whatever we say of Linen we can never say a better word than that Linen here is really Linen. How many stores can you make sure of that in?

We were never in better shape with Fine Linen. In Tablecloths or Table Linen by the yard the three best makes now are Irish, German, Scotch. Irish for extreme fineness and extra weight; German for fineness, softness, and good designs; Scotch for pattern, quality, and wear.

Take Irish, Tablecloths, with Napkins to match, tea, lunch or dinner sizes. Cloth big enough to spread a table 18 or 20 feet long and yard and a-half wide. Whatever the design—rose or daisy or leaf perhaps—it lies in relief on the snowy ground as it is thrown there.

German Damasks at $1.10 are moneysful; but we have a wonderful 60-inch wide quality at 56c. Bleached, clean, clear yarn without roughness or knots. Hold it to the light. No flax bark there. The more it's washed the better you'll like it.

Scotch Double Damask, 68 inches wide, 98c, medium and large designs. Or plump 2 yards wide, almost the perfection of fine Damask, $2. A little coarser, 2 1/2 and 3 1/2 yards wide, $2 and $2.25.

Linen Sheets, 2 1/2 yards square, hemstitched at both ends are hard to keep on hand. If not here when you ask, leave the order. They are coming in dribs all the time.

Six or six and a-half pounds of good wool in a pair of Blankets for $4. Broad, long, generous Blankets. We never heard of their match.

Light, graceful, artistic, clean Brass Bedsteads. Models of beauty and durability. 32 special designs. Third floor. Four elevators.

Two items that will make a stir all along the Glove line: 1—3,600 pairs of Women's Real Kid Suedes, made by Foster; new tans and black, 5 hooks; exactly half price, 62 1/2c. You will marvel at the cost when you carry off the goods.

2—A new arrival of those famous 4-button Kid Gloves, in all the shades of tans, browns, grays, also black. These are real kid (not lamb), handsomely embroidered, $1. If anything, better than last season, and then they easily led the procession of competitors.

Best boned C. P. Corsets that can be made, $2.50; white and gray, all sizes, $3.75 has been the least before. A $1.25 Corset for 85c. A bright day or two will carry them all off.

The new line of imported woven Corsets, including the long-waisted "Wanamaker," has been chosen with the greatest care. We guarantee them in all respects.

26 inch Umbrellas, twilled silk, paragon frame, "gold" or silver caps, $2.25. Same, 28 inch, $2.75. Either is half the usual selling price. A second lot.
