PURSUING A CLUE.

AMERICAN BELIEVED TO BE T INSTIGATOR OF FIVE MURDERS.

rator of the English Pathological Museum Tells the Coroner Investigating Strange Request of a Man.

LONDON, Sept. 26 .- The coroner, while ing up the evidence taken at the in-of the latest Whitschapel murder, d that shortly after the de-of the last sitting had been pub-ed, the sub-curator of the English clogical museum, informed him that the since an American visited the oum and saked him to procure a number of specimens of uterus for which he would willingly pay 20 pounds each. The American said that his object in securing the specimens was to issue one with each sopy of a book upon which he was then

The sub-curator promptly informed the epplicant that it was impossible to comply with his request. The American continued to urge his request and declared that he ed the specimens preserved in glycer-natead of spirits in order to keep them id. He repeated solicitation at another itution. The curator immediately ormed the officials of Scotland Yard of the strange affair. It is hoped that publicity of the matter will further elucidate iminal who committed the Whitee murders. Much assistance is looked for from the American press in the discovery of the American, who is evidently insens.

FOR THE COLUMBIA CENTENNIAL. Big Rush For the Neighboring Town Has

Everybody is talking about the centen-nial at Columnia, and there will be a tremendous rush for that town to-morrow. This morning a special train ran up the Pennsylvania railroad, It lett bere at, 8:30 and up to noon over afternoon trains were crowded.

One hundred and fifteen tickets were sold for the 2 o'clock train, making 515 tickets for Columbia to-day. A good many more will be sold for the 5 o'clock train this after-Bood, and it is expected that at least 1,000 will be sold to-morrow. Both railroads run specials to-morrow, and a great portion of Lancaster's popula tion will go to the big borough on the river. The different lodges of this city that will erticipate in the parade there to-morrow will make a short street parade here before leaving. There will be between 600 and 700 men in line. The first division, which will be composed of Knights of the Golden Eagle, Knights of the Mystic Chain, and Herschel Lodge of Odd Fellows, will form on North Queen street, the right resting on Centre Square. The second division will form on South Queen street, right resting on Centre Square and will be composed of Lancaster and Monterey Lodges of Old Fellows. The third division will form on West King street, right resting on Centre Square, and will be composed of

The route of procession will be as follows: Centre Square to Duke, to James, to Prince, to Reading station, where the societies going on Reading railroad will leave the line; thence to Frederick, to North Queen and the Pennsylvania railroad station.
