AMERICAN BELIEVED TO BE THE INSTIGATOR OF PIVE MURDERS. stor of the English Path

oum Tolle the Coroner Investigating the Wattechapel Murders of the Strange Request of a Man.

LORDON, Sept. 26.—The coroner, while naming up the evidence taken at the in-ment of the latest Whitechapei murder, fined that shortly after the de-ails of the last sitting had been pub-lished, the sub-curator of the English ogical museum, informed him that ome months since an American visited the um and seked him to procure a number of specimens of uterus for which he would willingly pay 20 pounds each. The American mid that his object in securing the specimens was to issue one with each copy of a book upon which he was then

The sub-curstor promptly informed the applicant that it was impossible to comply with his request. The American continued to urge his request and declared that he wanted the specimens preserved in glycer-ine instead of spirits in order to keep them fiscoid. He repeated solicitation at another institution. The curator immediately informed the officials of Scotland Yard of the strange atlair. It is hoped that pub-licity of the matter will further elucidate the incident and lead to the detection of the criminal who committed the Whitechapel murders. Much sesistance is looked for from the American press in the discovery of the American, who is evidently insans.

suicide of William R. Vandormont, of Chaumont, who was to have been married at 5 o'clock that evening to Miss Frankie Matteeon, niece of Col. L. V. S. Matteeon, assistant librarism to the state Senate. Vandormont was the souled a wealthy farmer, about twenty two years old and a graduate of Exeter college. He was handsome, dashing, well supplied with money and always surrounded by boon companions. He first met Miss Matteeon in July last at a hop at Alexandris bay. It was a case of loves if first sight, and within two weeks their sugagement was announced, but the parents of both parties opposed the match.

Atout two weeks ago Vandormont followed his awestbeart to Sandy Oreak, where she is visiting. For the first week he was lavish with his funds, but a draft made by him upon his father was returned unsattefied, and a telegram announced that he would receive no further assistance from thatsource unless he gave up his awest heart. This he refused to do. The tra-espeople with whom the young manhad run accounts began to feel une-y. We diseaday they got their heads togeth rand decided to effect a settlean his before the wedding. Vandormont called upon several persons, but was unable to effect a loan. This disheartened him and he walked out of the village, the constable and following. They came up to him its a strip of woods. When a few feet away, and after a second demand for money had been made, he drew a pistol and fired through his heart.

been made, he drew a pistol and fired through his heart.

The news was carried to his aweetheart, who, surrounded by friends, was preparing for her wedding. The shock was great and it is feared her reason is dethroned.

Among the men of the labor organisations Harrison is detested. Outside of them he cuts no figure for personal popularity. I will reserve for another letter an account of the attitude of the Labor men and the Prohibitionists, who are to exert a powerful influence in determining the result. The Prohibitionists have an electoral ticket, and have made state and congressional nominations. There is a state Labor ticket, but no organization and no electoral ticket. Or ganized labor is divided, but it is the opinion of well-informed men that the Republicans cannot expect to get a third of the Labor vote of the State. The opposition of the laboring class of Indiana to Harrison is not slient; it is aggressive, and bitteriey so. That it has been feit is shown by the attempts making in the "Opere to close up the office of the Labor Nignal, a vigorous exponent of tariff reform and a supporter of the Democratic candidates. This flank attack by the Republican state committee has interpreted to extends and it floods impression in votes at the polis there may be a political "avalanche" on Nov 6, but it will cover up Harrison, New & Co, and not Cleveland.

The Prohibitionists Mobbed. The big tent of the Probleminists i now pitched at Terre Hill, and a meeting was held in it last night. A number of stupid young Republicans attempted to ak up the meeting by pelting the tent and the people with stones and rotten eggs. Mr. Luther S. Kauffman, accompanied by a deputy sheriff, will go out to Terre Hill this afternoon, and Mr. Kauffman will deliver an address in the tent this evening or " will know the reason why." The same mob violence was attempted last week when the tent was pitched in New Holland. some of the visitors attempting to pull the tent down, and would have done so had it not been for a deputy sheriff who was present. Mr. Kauffman says conservative Republicans are disgusted with the outrages of the "free whisky" rewdies, and many of them will vote the Prohibition ticket Mr. Kauffman will speak at Terre Hill to night.

Sioux Indians Want Eleven Alillion Dollars. Chief John Grass says he will guarantee that every Indian on the reservation, including himself and all the chiefs, shall sign the Sloux act if the government will pay them $1 per sore for 11,000,000 acres of land, but they positively refuse to come to terms at fifty cents per sers.

He also stipulates that the $11,000,000 from the sale of the land shall be immediately deposited to their credit.

distely deposited to their credit.

They want this money as a perpetual fund to belp them toward civilization, as they believe it is the last treaty the government will ever have with the Indians, and therefore they want to make the most of it.

The Pottstown Fair. There was a large crowd of people at the Pottetown fair yesterday, and it is one of the finest exhibition ever given at that place. The 2:45 race in the alternoon was won by W. National Council Officers.

The National Council of the Order of United American Mechanica, in session at New Brunswick, N J, on Wednesday elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Councilior, E. O. Staplea, of Meriden, Connecticut; vice councilior, John C. Smith, of New Brunswick, New Jersey; secretary, John Server, of Philadelphia; treasurer, Joseph H. Shinn, of Camden, New Jersey; marshal, William A. Piper, of Philadelphia; protector, T. B. Lane, of New York city; doorkeeper, F. S. Worcester, of Salem, Massachusetts, The next session of the National Council will be held at the Salem, Massachusetts, on the fourth Tuesday in September, 1859.

The motion to give each state a representative for each 1,000 members was voted down and it remains as before—three delegates from each state. It was decided to give each council in states where there are no state councils a representative who can vote only on matters introduced by his council.

The reports show that there are now 23, 762 members, a gain of 2,924; number of councils 369, a gain of thirty-nine; cash in treasury $439,000, a gain of $4,400.
