DEMOCRATIC CAMP-FIRES.

BAL BIG MEETINGS IN THE COUNTY ON THURSDAY BVENING.

Reform Discussed Before Large Andi s in Ephrats, Elleabethtown, Straeburg od Other Places-Filtren Handred Meetings Steld Throughout the State.

number of meetings were held in th nty on Thursday night, in response to suggestion of Hon. Chauncey F. Black. suggestion of Hon. Chauncey F. Black, resident of the Democratic clubs of the nited States, and the call of Chairman inner, of the Democratic state committee. Thursday night the Ephrata Township emocratic smodistion held a meeting in reddig's hall, and a more orderly and atve audience has never been together ative andience has never been together as such an occasion in that vicinity. The sail, which seats 500 people, was filled long clore the hour of opening the meeting and 7 the stated time, 7:30 o'clock, upwards of 50 people had crowded into the building. The said ence was composed of members of oth political parties. The room was finely becaused with the stars and or largest and on decorated with the stars and stripes, and on the wall hung large portraits of Cleveland d Thurman.

The meeting was called to order by the seident of the association, Dr. D. R. sets, who made a few remarks, and then troduced the speaker of the evening, W. J. Hensel, esq., of Lancaster, who held the large audience for two hours with an eloat address. In the course of his speech referred to the Republican candidates, et no Republican could take offense. He on compared the labor of England with ce, and gave some illustrations, showig how the foreign country is surpassing in different branches of industry. sulogized the patriotism of Presiveland, which four years ago was ed by the Republican party, and wed how he has proved himself to be iotic to his country. The speaker as at length on the navy, and told in at a orippled condition it was four years go. There was not a boat owned by the ow many million dollars had been peropriated for the navy under Re-ublican administrations that was misused. He also gave the amount appropriated inder the present administration, which so less than one-third the amount, and now there are thirteen vessels in course of struction. (Cheers). He next told of the enormous amount of land that had been given to railroad corporations for the connetion of railroads; 180,000,000 acres was

Mr. Hensel reviewed the liberality of the ration to pensioners and showed how vastly greater numbers and amounts were paid now than ever before. He anzed the idea that Republicans alone ant the war and saved the Union. The bugaboos about rebel debt, Confederate pensions, Klu-klux, &c., bad all disappeared inder three years of intelligent, patriotic

The speakers then discussed the tariff on at great length and in detail. He escribed the prosperity of the country to cheep and abundant lands, the energy, an skill and great productive capacity outhloan workingmen. ing labor did not receive 20; that free raw rials conduced to the success of indus tries; that high tariffs produced monopolies, made the rich richer and the poor Milionaires. Mr. Hensel closed a two hours speech with a tribute to American labor and a plea for the restoration of our former supremacy on the seas.

The speech was listened to with marked attention and received with many signs of satisfaction. One-third of the audience otion. One-third of the audience was Republican, including the three local orators 'Squires Krantz and Keller and Mart Fry, all of whom the speaker cheerfully invited to take part of his time and dispute his assertions.

The committee appointed by the association to make arrangements for the meeting consisted of Dr. D. J. McCaa, F. W. Huil, J. W. Leber, R. J. Bickley and M. T. on. The ushers who did good work in seating all that was possible and keeping order were A. B. Uhrich, J. A. Heiser, D. A. Hicks, J. G. Leter and C. G. Ammor. ciation intend holding a mass meeting later on, at which time a general walk-around will be had. About 150 names are enrolled and new members are taken in every meeting.

The Elizabethtown Meeting.

The Democratic meeting at Elizabethtown was a great success. The Cieveland and Thurman club, headed by a band of music, made a short street parade prior to the meet ing. The club halted in Centre Square, the se designated for the meeting. A stand andsomely decorated had been erected for the speakers and officers. Following was the list of officers: President, Philip Singer; vice presidents, John Diffenbaugh, George Wormley, st., Emanuel Hoffman, Levi Engle, William Fietcher, James Whitman and Daniel Brinser; secretary, John G Hoffman: assistant secretaries, John Mc Bride, Benjamin Kaylor, Leopold Wickenhelser, Jacob R. Kon. The speakers of the ening were William R. Brinton and David McMullen, esqs, of this city. The former discussed the benefits of tariff revision and the latter talked on the great d accomplished during President Cleveland's administration.

Magee and Landis at Gordonville. feers. Magee and Landis beld another joint debate on the tariff at Gordonville, Thursday evening. Mr. Emanuel Herabey presided, and there were Democratic and n vice presidents and secretaries. re were only about two hundred per some present, the people of the town having been carried away by the Columbia centennial. The speeches were made atternately, the speakers confining themselves exclusively to the tariff question. Both were entively listened to, and the Democrate sent were more than satisfied with the ability displayed by their champion.

Beeting at Strasburg.

The Democratic club of Strasburg held a ing last evening in accordance with the call of Chairman Kisner. The Mills bill and other measures were read, and the embers of the club then entered into an change of opinions. The meeting adourmed at a late hour. The Fourth Ward Democrats.
