The Prison Board.
The prison board held their regular meeting to-day, and all the members but Mr. Underkeeper A. M. Caldwell was allowed $10 for extra work. It was resolved to employ Clarence M Kemp, of Baltimore, to give the gas ma-ohina an overhauling. Mr. Kemp is the man who made the machine, and it was rught best to have him do the work.

The board then adjourned to meet on the first Saturday in November instead of the first Monday in order to accommodate Mr. Raby, who cannot attend on Monday. Attempted Burglary.

Last night an attempt was made to rob the shoemaker shop of Frank Stough, 33 West Chestnut street. Three men were seen by Mrs. Myers, who lives next door, te themselves under the steps leading to Mr. Slough's basement. Mrs. Myers ened away to give an alarm and secure help, whereupon two of the burglars ran away. The other remained and broke the glass in the basement door and attempted to reach the lock, but did not succeed in doing so. Mrs. Myers, accompanied by two men, soon returned when the third burglar also ran away and escaped. He got

A Very Sudden Death. Mrs. David Keyser, who resided at Smyrns, died very suddenly Sunday morning. She retired to bed feeling well on Saturday evening and awoke about o'clock Sunday morning. She and her husband spoke to each other for a short time and the latter then fell asleep. When he awoke an hour and a-half afterwards he found his wife lying dead beside him Heart disease was the cause of her death. but no inquest was held. Besides a hushand she leaves five children. Fell Down Stairs, about 50 years of age.

Frank Marion, boller-maker, met with an ocident on Saturday evening which might have been fatal. He was about going down the stairway leading to the rear of the Central hotel, between the stores of S. Clay Miller and George W. Locher. At the top he accidentally tripped and fell to the bottom of the stairs. He cut his head and bled very freely from his nose and mouth. He was partially unconscious when picked up, and upon examination it was found that one shoulder was dislocated.

The Night Schoots.
The night schools of the city will open this evening, and a good attendance is looked for on the opening night. All the books and supplies necessary are furnished to pupils, and those who are obliged to work during the day, should avail themselves of the opportunity presented. He Left Town. A. C. Rahter, who for several years past has been keeping the Eagle hotel at Orange and North Queen streets, went away last Wednesday evening, and he is no likely to return. Several weeks ago he shipped all of his furniture and household goods away. The cause that is given out for Hahter's sudden disappearance is that he has become very heavily in debt.

In Favor of the City.
Alderman Spurrier to-day entered judge sent against the Edison Electric Light company for five dollars on each of the thirty suits brought to recover a penalty for violation of the city ordin. inco. Judgment was also entered against F. Mettfett & Bro. for $25, Henry Shaub 36, and J. Val. Wise for $10, for failing to take out a license for their vehicles.

Mayor Edgerley disposed of five cases this morning. All were mild offenses except James Maiston. He was sent to jail for five days, and the others were displayed. Before the Mayor.

OLIVET BAPTIST CHURCH

The Dedicatory Services Reid in the New Edifice on Sunday.

The dedication of Olivet Baptist church, East Vine street, near Duke, took place Sunday, and the services were attended by large congregations, morning, afternoon and evening.

The morning service was opened with choral singing, Mrs. Jos. C. Biggs presiding at the organ. The sermon was preached by Rev. C. H. Thomas, of the Spruce street church, Philadelphia, his text being from Mark, 11th chapter, 22d verse: "And Jesus answering saith unto them, 'Have faith in G d.'" The sermon was an able and im-

In the afternoon there were Bunday school exercises by the children, and short addresses by Revs. Folwell, of the First Baptist church ; Gray, of the First Methodist; Titzel, of the First Reformed; Thompson, of the Presbyterian Memorial, and Miss Jones, of the Baptist mission.

The pastor, Rev. Frayne, read a history of the church from its organization to the present time, from which it appeared that the congregation began ten years ago with 35 members, has added by baptism 13, by letter 10, and by experience 2.

A history of the Sunday school was also read by Rev. Frayne, (who is its superintendent) showing its rise, struggles and present condition. The evening services consisted of a very interesting missionary lecture by Miss M. Jones, followed by a sermon by Rev. C. H. Thomas.

Arrested in Harrisburg The two Stone women and Mrs. Albert Finefrock, who came to this city on Baturday and stole the child of the latter from its father, was arrested in Harrisburg Satur-day afternoon by Officers Wittick and Barnhold. They entered ball there for a hearing before Alderman Deen. Mr. Finefrock took out a writ of habeas corpus, and this atternoon the woman appeared by counse before Judge Livingston. The child was not produced, and the court continued the matter until Wednesday, when the woman and child will be in court. The Centennial Knocked Sim Unt. Friday evening a man wearing a fancy cap and badge, who had been to the Columis centennial, created some excitement on North Queen street. At the corner of Chestnut street he fell on the pavement and eemed stunned. A crowd gathered around him and Officer Weaver soon arrived and took him to the station house in a cab. He was found to be under the influence of liquor and was also suffering alightly from a fail. He sat in a chair for a while, but soon recovered and was allowed to go. He was a resident of Coatesville.

This morning a new seminary for ladies was opened at Christiana with 24 pupils. The principal is Miss Ferron. The trustees are Lewis Coates, Calvin Carter, Dr. E. H. Piank, J. D. C. Powell, Levi Moore and Henry Rakestraw.

No Burgiars in the House, Jacob Basch, of No. 343 Middle street, thought there were burglars in his house on Saturday night, and he called upon Officer Dare to search the house. A thorough search falled to find any traces of
