A Life on the Ocean Wave

Indurates the stomach against sea sickness, but a single or occasional transit across the "illimitable wetness" is productive of grevious qualms, especially when it is stormy. Ocean travelers, yatchmen, ship surgeons, commercial buyers sent abroad, voyagers by steasebeat, and all who are occasionally or frequently called upon to be where "billows are buffetted" should take along Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the finest known antidote for sea sickness, malaria, billousness, and disorders of the stomach and bowels. Many travelers by railroad, with delectae stomachs bud nerves, likewise suffer severely en route. These will find the latters surely helpful and consolatory. Traveling, even in swift, steady and commodious steamships and sumptious palace care, is not always a source of unnitixed by and delight, and the Bitters does much to counteract the discomforts attending it, aggravated by delicate health. Rheumatism, brought on by damp weather, kidney troubles and debility, are effectually relieved by the Bitters. a single or occasional transit perosa the "illimit.

I cannot say enough in praise of the Curicura Remudies. My boy, when one year of age was so bad with exzems that he lost all of his hair. His scalp was covered with eruptions, which the doctors said was scald head, and that his hair would never grow again. Despairing of a curw from physicians, I began the use of the Curicura Remedies, and I am happy to say with the most perfect success. His hair is now splendid and there is not a pimple on him. Catarrhal Dangers.

To be freed from the dangers of sufficients while lying down; to breathe freely, sleep soundly and undisturbed; to rise refreshed, head clear, brain active and free from pain or ache; to know that no poisonous, putrid matter deflies the breath and rots away the delicate machinery of smell, taste and hearing; to feel that the system does not, through its veins and arteries, suck up the poison that is sure to undermine and de-troy, is indeed a blessing beyond all other human erjoyments. CRAIG'S GOLDEN TONIC.

WHAT IS

It is a purely vegetable medicine, containing no mercury, quinine or other injurious drugs. It is compounded by an entirely new and improved process, whereby each ingredient is thoroughly extracted and properly combined.

WHAT DOES IT DO?

PRILABELTRIA, July 16, 1883.

terms: Please send me another bottle of your Tonic. The one dollar I paid for a bottle of Uraig's to den Tonic has done more for me than the hundreds I have paid physicians, and for other medicines. For twolve years I have suffered with Uyapepala in its worst stages. I've had that dull feeling over entire body with abarp pairs in the side, in the region of the heart, which increased with every movement of the body, at times making work an imposibility. Was compelled to take purgative medicines continually. Since taking your Tonic all pains have left me, my bowels have been resulted, I have regalized my appetite and reel no oppression after eating. I not only can work, but feel like working, for with the new life your 1 onle has given me all billiousness and dyspepala has left me. I now wish another bottle that every vestige of dyspepala may be driven from my system.

Yours truly,
