The Biemaderfer conspiracy case came to a end this morning with a verdict of not ality being entered by concent of all the crites interested.

The commonwealth closed their side last realing, and in the opening speech of the bandanta' counsel it was stated that it rould be shown that all the money solved by the Biemsderfers in he sale of the totscoo purchased from procedutors was applied to the payment of debts owed by them to other parties, that their business failure was an

The terms of the settle ment were not made public, but it is under-stood that the procedutors received a certain percentage of their claims.

The commonwealth was represented by District Attorney Weaver, J. L. Steinmetz, George Nauman and T. J. Davis, and the endants by A. F. Hostetter and J. Hay WRIT OF REPLEVIN ISSUED.

These parties intended to go into business ogether and Royer paid for the machine, which was placed in the care of Dyer. James McCoy, the little thirteen-year-old son of Rev. John McCoy, was introduced the orator of the occasion, and his appearance was the signal for prolonged cheering, after which he delivered in fine style the following speech :

Fellow Democrats and Citizens—In raising this hickory pole and unfurling to the errs this Democratic flag, the stars and stripes, the youth of this place wish to show that when we become voters we will cast our ballots to perpetuate the principles of the Democratic party—a party that has lived and conquered while other parties have come and passed away. (Cheers.) The Democratic youth believe in an administration of government affairs that knows no North, no South, no East, no West, but the whole people of this entire union. (Great applause.)

On the issues that divide the two parties we prefer to have free wool and free sait, necessaries of life, that our party offer, than to have what the Republican party offers—free whisky; and we believe that the good citisens of this great country will, in Rovember next, triumphantly re elect our bootest, upright president, Grover Cleveland. THE LOCAL TOBACCO MARKET.

Several Hundred Cases Turned Into Cash by Lancaster Packers. There is nothing to be said about the '88 crop, except that it is curing in a satisfactory condition, all but that part of it which was cut too green or too late—the latter of which is suffering from the cold weather we have been having. Buyers have been looking at it, but no purchases have been The following transactions in cased leaf are reported : D. A. Mayer bought 210 cases '87 Havans, and sold 186 cases Havans and seed leaf : Harry C. Moore sold 154 cases '86 Havans and seed ; Skiles & Frey sold 150 cases and seed leaf: Sites, of Mountville, and Long. enecker of the same place, sold about 500 cases; S. M. Seldomridge, of Farmersville, sold to Oblender Bro. & Ca., 50 cases '87 The New York Market. The New York Market.

From the U. S. Tobacco Journal.

October has not opened as conspicuously as September did, although the market is still in a very active condition. The sales in seed leaf for the week ran up to 3,000 cases, in which every kind of the new leaf had its share. A special feature was the disposal of 400 cases of '86 Wisconsin, which is considered now excellent stock for binders.

The boom in Havana leaf is as extensive as eyer. And if it should continue it would not take very long to deplete entirely the stock on haud. For some time past we have laid our wires to get at the quantity of Havana stored in our bonded warehouses and we have at last succeeded. On the let inst. there were in our public stores close to 24,000 bales. One-third of this stock is sold, which would reduce it to 16,000, and of this amount about 2,500 bales belong from various reasons to the black belong from various reasons to the black list of "unsaleable." The available stock would therefore amount to about 13,500 bales—a quantity which may be exhausted in from six to eight weeks. Time could hardly be remembered when the stock of Havana in our market was as low as this. Havara in our market was as low as this.
Its revelation will undoubtedly be a surprise to both the importers and consumers.
More attention is also being now paid to the new Sumatrs. It's necessity, not love, which drives our manufacturers to it. They feel instinctively the scarcity of wrapper less. The active participation of American buyers at the Rotterdam inscription on Thursday shows their policy of providing themselves for the unavoidable stringency of the leaf market.

of the leaf market.

Gans' Weekly Report. Following are the sales of seed leaf tobacco reported for the INTELLIGENCER by J. S. Gans' Son, tobacco broker, No. 131 Water street, New York, for the week ending Oct. 8, 1888 :

400 cases 1888 Wisconsin Havana, (@12e; 350 cases 1887 Wisconsin Havana, 9½@13e; 400 cases 1887 Wisconsin Havana, 12@22½e; 200 cases 1887 Pennsylvania Havana, 12@22½e; 250 cases 1887 Pennsylvania seed, 9½@13a; 300 cases 1880 Pennsylvania seed, 7½@13a; 300 cases 1887 New England Havana, 13½@35a; 200 cases 1887 New England seed, 13@18e; 250 cases sundries, 5½@35a. Total 2,550 cases.

The Senate Tariff Bill, From the U. S. Tobacco Journal. A reduction in the surplus of $2,281,000 is calculated from the tariff section on tobacco in the Senate bill. There was never a more faliscious miscalculation. A duty of 75 cents on Sumatra will not prevent the importation of a pound less than the trade needs or the quality of the Sumatra will warrant. The stubborn ignorance which warrant. The stubborn ignorance which prevails on this point among those who pretend to speak for our domestic growers, and among those who permit themselves to be influenced by them, is almost exasperating. If the time shall come for a decision, we will prove to the Senate the absurd fallacy of such a calculation. Besides, a reduction of the duty to 20 cents on Havana will increase the importation of this commodity by at least 50,000 bales more, and will thus have the effect to swell instead of to reduce our surplus.

will thus have the effect to swell instead of to reduce our surplus.

After carefully estimating the total amount of eigar leaf fit for wrappers (including Sumatrs) the U. S. Tobacco Journal can find only 15,920,000, and as 25,000,000 pounds will be needed, there will be a shortage of over 9,000,000 pounds, or a shortage of wrappers to cover 1,300,000 clears. 000,000 cigars.

Tax receipts can be obtained at the rooms of e Young Men's Democratic club every even ing from 7 to 10 o'clock.

HELVETIA!

"And what is this Heivetia Umbrella you offer with gold and silver caps at $1.50?" we are asked. We'll tell you. Helvetia is a finely finished umbrella cloth, gotten up in imitation of Gloria Cloth. It looks so much like the latter that it requires an expert to tell the difference. Gloria is made of silk and linen, while Helvetia is silk and cotton. It wears first-rate and will give satisfaction. There are 10) Helvetia sold to one Gloria, yet unserupulous dealers persist in calling Helvetia Gloria. The manulacturers frequently bill the Helvetia as Gloria and in this way the retailer can quiet his conscience. When you are offered what is called a Gloria Umbrella with gold cap at $1.75, or anything like this price. don't believe it is genuine Gloria. It in't. Gloria can't be sold for that. Gloriosa can. It is an Helvetia. s an Helvetia.
