THE FRESIDEST AS & WITNESS. Decided That He Cannot Be Compelled to Go on the Stand.

WOMAN'S WISDOM.

The motion to compel Grover Cleveland to testify sgainst his own character in the libel case of Ray, G. H. Ball sgainst the New York Ecening Post was made before Judge Lewis in supreme court chamber in Buffale, on Thursday morning. John G. Milburn argued the motion for the de-fendant, and Frank C. Ferguson for the plaintiff. Mr. Milburn said :

plaintiff. Mr. Milburn said : Is this court going to give an order that Mr. Cleveland shall be forced to give evi-dence to the effect that he is a liberine? It is evident to me that this application was not made in good Jaith. They do not need him in this case. Do you think they need him as a witness to come here and swear that his reputation, was had? Now, I say, sir, that it sicks out in this case that this application was made only to gratify still further the insame craving of this plague of notoriety.

further the insane craving of this plague of notoricity. Judge Lewis-Suppose the president re-fuses to textify; what then 7 Mr. Milburn-We can't put him in jail. He'd have to put himself in jail. Mr. Milburn and Mr. Ferguson got into a bistorical discussion as to the facts in the Burr case, and Mr. Milburn read extracts in support of the statement that the court in that case had run against a suag. Jeffer-moved the court that the process be en-forced, and that Mr. Jefferen be brought before it under the unal process. Judge Lewis-I am satisfied from what I

Judge Lewis-I am satisfied from what I know in this case that it is my duty to deny this motion. Mr. Ferguson-Before the court does so, 1 wish it would take the papers in the case. Judge Lowis-I don't think the reading of the papers would change my views. Of course the process can be issued, but I don't see how it could be enforced. I don't think the president is amenable; to the courts. I hardly think he is amenable to any court, even for any orime he might commit. It cannot be isw that a president, the router. I hardly think he is amenable to any court, even for any orime he might commit. It cannot be isw that a president, the ruler of a great country, can be put in jail, leaving the nation without a head. I assume that a man coupying the posi-tion of president of the United States would not under any circum-stances give testimony in such a case. It would be a disgrace to the country even if he testified in a manner to exculpate hor a moment think of obeying a process, This court ought not to send a process un tess it can be convinced that the process, the plaintiff has some grounds to surmise that the president would obey the process, it will be the duty of this court not to issue this process unless this is shown. If coun-set can show me that the president will obey this process I would like to hear from the mine the court out is a manner to the sum the plaintiff has some grounds to surmise that the president would obey the process. Mr. Ferguson-Before the court does so.

them. Mr. Ferguson-I may drop this notice now with the privilege of renewing it later when Mr. Cleveland may, as is very possi-blo, have again become a private cit zan. The judge refused to take the papers, and

The court will give its decisions and rea sons now. I deny the motion, because I do not believe it was made in good faith. The court cannot conceive that counsel believes that the issuing of this process would avail him anything in getting evidence. For these reasons I decline to issue the process. The motion is denied.
