STRUCK BY A TRAIN.

AR OLD MAN SERIOUSLY INJURED NEAR CHICKIES, ON MONDAY,

Phile Getting Out of the Way of an East Bound Freight, He Is Buried Over a Fence By a West Bound Train. Out and Bruised Terribiy.

COLUMBIA, Ost. 16,-Frederick Breneman, age 72, was struck by an engine of a soon about 4 o'clock, a short distance east of Chickies station. He had gotten on the 2:45 p. m. train for York instead of the train for Marietta, and did not discover his mistake until he reached the bridge. He then started to walk on the rail road to Marietta and was walking on the south track. Near Chickies he noticed an east bound freight train apning and to get out of the way, stepped on the North track, directly in front of a West bound train. The man was struck with considerable force by the engine and was thrown over a fence into the yard surrounding the Haldeman property. The an was carried into Chickies station and Dr. Craig summoned. He is badly bruised about the body and head and a long gash out across the centre of his head caused by the fail. On account of his age the injuries may prove fatal. Breneman is a resident of Norton county, Kansas. was removed to Wild Cat, where his brother resider.

A Slaughter House Drama Given by Mer and Dogs at the Opera House, At the opera house there was a fair sized udience last evening to greet the Leonzo Brothers, who opened for three nights in thunder and lightning dramas. The plays given by this couple are of the most sensational and trashy kind. Some idea of them can be learned from the description of the ture on a six-speet bill that they use to dvertise their attractions. In the rear there is a waterfall and "yawning abyes." Over this is a log, and on it stands a badlooking man who has "necked" another, probably worse than himself, and is about to plunge him beneath. At the other end of the same log, a villain with a gun is in the set of scattering a fair maiden's brains. Near by is an Indian tied to a stake with a small fire at his feet. He is supposed to be toasting while a big dog is chewing the necktie off his com panion. A colored man with a red shirt and a revolver at the other side of the bill is keeping six men with guns at bay. Every person on the bill has pistol, gun or knife, and the scene is therelore quite thrilling. Last night's play was called "May's Devotion, or the Maniac Hunter." The Leonzos and their dogs have the principal characters. One of the brothers is a fair actor, while the "business" of the other is to wrestle with the big dogs Among the support is Miss Pauline Markham, at one time a leading burlesque actress of this country. She does very well in the char-noter of May Percy, and Eugene Mass is capital as Pete Green. The dogs do their work eleverly, and are always on hand to thew up the evil doers.

Tought "Brother Against Brother : or, Man vs. Dog" will be played. It is of the same wild class as last night's piece, and street sprinklers of blood will be spilled. The "strong attractions" that the management of the opera house is now presenting are something that our amusement-loving people a hould feel proud of.

Before the Mayor.

The mayor had eight cases to dispose of this morning. The most distinguished prisoner was Emma Archey. Officer Boss found her at the corner of Orange and Grant streets last night, too drunk to walk and he took her to the station house. Emma mid her only offense was cheering for Harrison, and a person ought to have the right to cheer for the Chinese candidate. The meyor told her that his valiant force would not think of arresting any body who cheered for Harrison, but on general principle he he would send her to jail for 30 days.

Israel White, from near Mt. Joy, had to be carried to the station house by Officer as. He was discharged upon the pay ment of costs. William Kauffman, arrested for the same offense, was discharged, it being his first appearance before the mayor. Five lodgers seeking work were discharged.

INEW : AD VERTISEMENTS. DO YOU WISH TO SAVE MONEY?

In these days of tariff argument we wish to say a word on so interesting a subject. To refuce first cost is the object of every one, by their theory Free frade or Protection. Especially is this so on wearing apparel. We favor the policy that protects your pocketbook. If you can save a dollar or two on your winter clock it means just that much more you have to spend for something else you may want.

If you will look over our Price List and then come and look at our gar nents, we believe you will see the point we are trying to make, that we have taken the tariff of and at the same time given you the highest form of protection.
