A BIG CLASS CONFIRMED.

106 JOIN HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC CHURCH OF COLUMBIA.

The Rev. Bishop McGovern Assisted in the Rite by Several Clergymen—A Sermon Delivered by Rev. Pape, of York—The Services Close With a Procession.

COLUMBIA, Oct. 17.—Solemn high mass was sung yesterday in Holy Trinity Catholic church by Rev. C. A. Koppernagle, of Shrewsburg, with Rev. George Pape, of York, deacon; Rev. A. Christ, of Lebanon, subdeacon; Rev. F. Brickle, of New Freedom, master of ceremonies. After the mass the sacrament of confirmation was administered by Rt. Rev. Thomas McGovern, D. D., to a class of 174 persons. The bishop was assisted by Rev. James J. Russell and Rev. A. F. Kaul, of York. Besides the above clergymen there were present Rev. Charles Koob, Lancaster; Rev. Neufield, St. Andrew's college, Latrobe; Rev. Kemmerling, Reading.

After the services the bishop was welcomed by Miss Gertrude Kassel in a neat speech.

The services closed last night at 7:15 o'clock with the usual processional services. The sermon was preached by Rev. George Pape, of York.

Caught in the Cars.

Last night Harvey J. Shank, an extra brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad, while coupling cars had his right hand caught between the cars, badly mashing the middle and third fingers.

On Tuesday afternoon a squad of company C. members under command of Sergeant Charles Hofer, engaged in rifle practice on their range. James Hinkle was the only member of the squad who succeeded in classifying. The score: 100 yards, Wm. McDivitt, 22 out of 50; James Hinkle, 17 out of 25; 200 yards, Sergeant Hofer, 13 out of 50; William Tyson, 21 out of 50; James Hinkle, 9 out of 25.

Jacob Booth will leave on Thursday for Philadelphia with the expectation of having Dr. L. Webster perform the final operation on his eyes. Mr. Booth has been blind for years.

Rev. F. J. Clay Moran and Wm. Ives Rutter, jr., left for New York to day to attend the convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrews, from October 18 to 21. They are delegates from St. Paul's chapter of the brotherhood.

The Athletic association will hold a meeting in the rink this evening.

THE BIG PARADE.

Meeting of Committee of Arrangements Grand Industrial Display of Trades.

At a meeting of the committee of arrangements for the parade of Democratic clubs held last evening reports were received from all parts of this and adjoining counties that the Democracy will be on hand on the evening of the 24th to take part in the great parade in this city.

The committees on industrial display reported that the following trades would be represented in the parade and carry the implements of their profession: Bricklayers, brickmakers, carpenters, cigarmakers, rolling millmen, machinists, tobacco packers, plumbers, quarrymen, brewers, blacksmiths, plasterers, railroaders, felloe benders.

The Parade of Democratic Boys.

On Thursday evening the Democratic boys of this city will have their parade. All the ward clubs will participate, and if the weather is favorable the demonstration will be a creditable affair. At 7 o'clock the paraders will meet at 325 North Queen street and move promptly at 7:30. The route of procession is as follows: North Queen to James; James to Mulberry; Mulberry to Chestnut; Chestnut to North Queen; to Centre Square; West King to Manor; Manor to Dorwart; Dorwart to St. Joseph; St. Joseph to Vine; Vine to German; German to South Queen; South Queen to Middle; Middle to East King; East King to Ann; countermarch to Lime; Lime to Walnut; Walnut to North Queen and to Centre Square to dismiss. The chief marshal is Daniel A. Marks; aids, Edw. Flory, Wm. Harrison, Charles Foehl, James Seachrist and Clarence Malone.

Marshal Marks expects there will be 600 in line.

Badly Hurt in a Game of Football.

Yesterday afternoon about four o'clock quite a number of the college, seminary and academy students were assembled on the college campus on the open plot between Harbaugh hall and the academy building. The occasion was a game of football between two teams chosen mostly from among the college students. It was one of their first games of this season. The players soon became deeply interested in the game, which was witnessed by quite a number of spectators. About 5 o'clock the game was suddenly brought to a standstill by a pretty severe accident which was caused by two of the players running together with very great force. They were C. D. Neff, of the junior, and W. H. Keller, of the sophomore class, in college. Mr. Keller received a long gash just above his right eye, barely missing the eye ball. Mr. Neff was rendered unconscious by the collision, and remained in that condition until nearly nine o'clock last night. During this time he appeared to suffer considerably with convulsions and for a considerable time his limbs and body had to be rubbed briskly to keep up circulation. It is thought that he was struck about the stomach. He is not believed to have been injured internally, though that is to be feared. Medical aid was called to the scene of the accident as promptly as possible and rendered the necessary service. Mr. Neff is from Alexandria, Pa., and Mr. Keller from Bellefonte, Pa. The wounded received from their fellow students all the aid they could render. Quite an excitement prevailed for a time. Both the gentlemen were doing well this morning.

DRAGGED BY A TRAIN.

A Man Loses His Foothold in Boarding a Freight and Narrowly Escapes Death.

John Keener, who lives on North Christian street, this city, had a narrow escape from being killed on Tuesday evening. He was up about the Pennsylvania railroad amusing himself jumping on and off trains. Shortly after 5 o'clock he was standing near the Walnut street crossing, when a freight train westward bound came along. It was running at a pretty lively rate of speed, but Keener tried to get on about the middle of the train. He caught hold of the handles of the car, but missed the step with his feet. He was carried in this way to Lemon street. His feet struck the stone ballasting, ties, &c., as the train sped along and people who saw the man being carried in that way were sure that he would be killed. At Lemon street he managed to pull himself up to the platform of the car and get on. He did not again leave the train, but must have been carried on to Columbia. The soles of his shoes were pulled completely off and his clothing was torn. It is believed that the man was pretty badly bruised about the legs, but his escape from death was surely remarkable.

Charged With Assault.

John Musser has brought suit before Alderman Pinkerton against David Smeltz charging him with assault. The prosecutor is a macedamizing part of West James street and yesterday he had ropes stretched to prevent people from driving. Smeltz is the driver of a coal wagon, and when he came to the place he insisted upon driving in. Musser alleges that when he remonstrated with him Smeltz assaulted him. Bail was entered by the latter for a hearing.

Mrs. Trissler's Death.

The funeral of Mrs. Louisa Trissler will take place to-morrow afternoon. It seems that deceased did not die of consumption, as published. On Saturday she burst a blood vessel, and on Sunday was taken with a coughing spell. This clotted the blood in her throat, causing her death in a few minutes. Deceased leaves six children, instead of four, and all live in Lancaster but Harry R., who is in the meat business in Altoona. He is now in town to attend the funeral.

A COLORED COUPLE'S TROUBLES.

The Woman Attacks the Man on the Street and Uses Him Up.

Before Alderman Deen Edward Banks, colored, has brought suits against Eliza White, also colored, charging her with assault and battery, surety of the peace and larceny. It seems that the couple were living in the same family, and were engaged to be married. They had a quarrel, however, and the engagement was broken off. Since that time they have not been feeling kindly towards each other. Last evening they met on North street and it is alleged that Eliza made an assault upon her dusky lover, biting a piece out of his lip and otherwise abusing him. She also threatened to kill him in the near future. Banks appeared at Alderman Deen's office this forenoon with a badly swelled head and a general broken up appearance. The charge of larceny is brought because Banks says the woman entered his room and stole therefrom one satchel, three hats and some other articles. Officers Barnhold and Wittick arrested Eliza, who was committed for a hearing. Before going to jail the woman brought suit against Banks before Alderman Halbach, charging him with assault and battery.

A BEAUTIFUL BANNER

Presented to the Young Men's Democratic Club by B. J. McGrann.

One of the handsomest political banners ever seen in Lancaster is now on exhibition in the jewelry store window of H. Z. Rhoads & Son, on West King street. It is the property of the Young Men's Democratic club and was presented to them by B. J. McGrann. It was purchased by John G. Haas from Hartman Brothers & Co., the manufacturers, of Philadelphia. In size the banner is 48x60 inches. The front is of blue silk with these words in letters of gold: "Young Men's Democratic Club, Lancaster, Pa., Organized May 19, 1887." The other side is of white silk with this inscription: "Public Office is a Public Trust, Unnecessary Taxation is Unjust Taxation." The banner is trimmed with gold open lace work around the edges, with gold bullion fringe around the sides and bottom. There is heavy gold cable cords and tassels at the top and sides with cable cord drapery and tassels. The banner is suspended by six gold lace loops from an ebonized stretcher with gilt dart and feather. At the top of the ebonized and jointed staff there is a metal eagle. The banner will likely be carried for the first time in the big parade of the 24th.

The Dog Show.

The Leonzo Brothers are still wrestling with blood-curdling dramas and dogs at Fulton opera house. Last evening they played "Brother Against Brother," and had a large gallery, but few people, besides the ushers, down stairs. Some new lines were introduced in the play by the pair of "stars" in which they denounced the newspapers because they told the truth about their show when they said it was very bad. The slaughter will be continued this evening.

The Bondsmen Liable.

County Solicitor Shenck to day issued a scire facias on the bond of Graybill S. Withers, ex-hotel keeper of Brecknock township. He was convicted of violating the liquor law and was sent to jail. The costs and fine in the case were not paid and the county solicitor holds that under the present license law his bondsmen are liable. They are Christian B. Renninger and Joseph S. Withers.

Heavy Storm of Thunder, Lighting and Rain.

Between one and three o'clock this morning Lancaster and vicinity was visited by an unusually heavy storm. The lightning was very vivid, the thunder loud, the rain copious and the wind strong. No damage is reported except the "knocking out" of 110 of the electric street lamps—and that had been quite a common occurrence lately, even when there was no storm.

To Be Tried in Dauphin County.

The forgery case, preferred by Solomon Shenk against Frank Bricker, was dismissed this afternoon by Alderman Halbach. In the suit, for a similiar offense, against Bricker, preferred by J. B. Shenk in Dauphin county, Bricker gave bail for his appearance next Tuesday, and was released from jail.

Polling Place Changed.

The court this afternoon made an order changing the polling place in Strasburg township from the Swan hotel, Strasburg borough, to the Bunker Hill school house.

To Nominate An Assembly Candidate.

This evening the Democrats of this city will meet in their wards to place in nomination candidates for the legislature.

CARPET CLEANING.
STEAM
Does Not Touch Your Carpets, when having them Cleaned at LANCASTER
Steam Carpet Cleaning Works,
AS MANY SUPPOSE.
If it did it would ruin them. It simply drives the machinery. The process of cleaning will not injure the most delicate fabric, will not injure a carpet near as much as hand cleaning. To prove it we will give you a new carpet of same quality if we injure yours.
One of the best proofs is to see the machinery working. You are welcome at any time.
It is the only system that will thoroughly clean a carpet and restore the colors.

A purchase of Blankets in the early part of the Summer proved to be a most fortunate transaction for us as well as our customers. A manufacturer needed the money; we the Blankets. The lot was too large for us, but an active reaching firm came to our rescue, and between us the stock was divided. An inspection of these Blankets will prove the greatest values ever offered.
What do you think of an every Thread Wool Blanket 11-4 in size, extra weight, for $5 a pair.
Some call a Blanket with cotton warp all wool. We don't. The next grade, of which we made an error in not purchasing the entire lot, instead of dividing, has a cotton warp with wool filling, 11-4 in size, weighs seven pounds, price $4.12 a pair. This Blanket we will only compare with the $5 a pair Blankets found elsewhere. Colored and Scarlet Blankets among the bargains.
Comforts of our own make in print and sateens, and we know what is inside. No shoddy.
In the China Department Excelsior Cooking Crooks at 30c for all sizes are still on sale. Philadelphia stores are asking double same.
French China Plates, White, as follows: Dinner size, $1.35; Breakfast, $1.15; Tea, $1.00. Quality limited. Also odd lot of French China Cups and Saucers.

EDUCATIONAL.
BUSINESS EDUCATION PAYS.
No young man should go into business while he is ignorant of the manner of regulating books. He may have great natural ability but that will not supply the deficiency of a knowledge of Bookkeeping or prevent the affairs from getting into confusion. The COURSE OF INSTRUCTION as adopted at the
LANCASTER BUSINESS COLLEGE will be of advantage to every man whatever his future occupation may be.
It will teach business habits and attention to accounts, which will give increased interest and success.
Young Men and Ladies having this course in view are cordially invited to spend a day at the College and satisfy themselves as to the merits of the institution.
Day and evening sessions. Address
