THE TROUBLE OVER THE RED RIVER VALLEY RAILROAD IS SERIOUS.

Onlarns of Manitoba Desire the New Line t Oross the Canadian Pacific-Soldiers to Arm Themselves With Cannon-Constables Supplied With Weapons.

WINNIPEO, Oct. 25 -The situation here has assumed a most grave attitude. At the instance of the Canadian Pacific rathroad, a local militia corps has been ordered out to the scene of action, where they will be prepared for any emergency. They will take cannon along with them. For the purpose of arming the government special constables, a large number of revolvers were purchased last night.

The justice granted another interim inunotion last night to the Canadian Pacthe railroad, upon strong stiidavits that the plaintiffs could prove that the road was being built by the Northern Pacific railroad and not by the Manitoba government. It will be argued on Friday, and will surely be dissolved. Much surprise is expressed at the judge's action.

At a mass meeting of cit zens held here last night, resolutions denouncing the government and the Canadian Pacific ratiroad and backing up the local government were

Mr. Hand, the donor, was a grocer in Charleston before the war, and being of Northern sentimente, was forced to fly to the North, leaving all of his property, about $130,000, charge of bis confidential clerk, Mr. Williams, who used the property profitably during the war and by investment in Southern pine lands became very rich. Mr. Hand's counsel advised him to seek a settlement with Williams. Mr. Williams came to New Haven and honorably paid up the original sum and interest, amounting to $648,000. This amount, with the accrued interest, forms the great bulk of the sum now returned to the South by Mr. Hand.

Charles Davis, a brother of the murdered man, seized a hatchet and beat and cut Jordan so that he died in a few minutes. Charles then went to Benton and surrendered to the sheriff. All three men concerned are prominent in their neighborhood, and are men of family. There is much excitement, which may lead to a factional war,

A Good Turnout and Decided Interest Manifested in Telling Speeches. The meeting held at Littiz Springs hotel yesterday under the auspices of the Democratic club there was not expected to be a cratic club there was not expected to be a large affair, in view of the heavy rains of the night before and the concentration of political interest in the parade in Lan caster in the evening. But by two o'clock on Wednesday alternoon there was a concourse of people on the green, west of the hotel, to whom any speaker might be glad to talk, and the several hundreds who composed it were made up of the best representative men of the vicinity. best representative men of the vicinity, including many Republicans and men of widely ranging views on politics. Mr. J. G. Plauts presided and for two hours and a baif the audience, constantly increasing in number, listened with interest and unflarging attention to H. W. Bland, of Reading; D. F. Magee, of White Rock; Jes. A. Flaherty, of Philadelphia, and W. U. Hensel, of Lancaster, while they ex-pounded Democratic doctrine and the tarin reform issue. It was sundown when Hensel quit, but the stardy yeomanry who heard the speeches pondered over them until fer into the night.

THE REPUBLICAN PARADE

Heat the Democratic Display.

The Republicans were annoyed at the size of the Democratic parade last night and all admit it was a fine one. They have been working for two weeks to get up a demonstration that would throw that of the Democrats in the shade. Now they are not so sure that they can. Word was sent to all the clubs in the county to day that they must come in to-night. One gentiemen, who has money and is anxious to see the parade a success, even went so far as to offer to pay the expenses of a Lebanch club to and from this city if they would but come. The clubs promised from West Chester, Phoenixville, Reading and some other places are not coming. The Beat the Democratic Display, and some other places are not coming. The Don Cameron club of Harrisburg, decided last night that they would not come to Lau-last night that they would not come to Lancaster. The Republicans were astonished at the number of veterans turned out by the Damocrate and their people have been notined that they must best that to-night. The Watch Factory club was to have had the right of the line, and the Young Republicans the tail end. To-day the arrangements fell through and the York Plumed Knights must have the front or they will not come. The Young Republicans must take the rear, new coats and all. The route to-night is:

Form on North Lime, right on East Orange, to Shippen, to East King, to Centre Square, to South Queen, to Andrew, countermarch to German, to South Prince, to West King, to Charlotte, to West Orange, HARRISON VETERANS.

About 150 old mer who voted for "Tippecanoe" Harrison and are going to vote for Benjamin Harrison because he is the grandson of his grandfather, gathered at the Stevens house. The "business men," headed by the Iroquois band, Lewis S. Hartman and Samuel M. Myers, marched from the rooms of the Young Republicans to the Stevens house. They excerted the old men to the court house where a meeting was held. As the line passed through Centre Square there were many exclamations of surprise as to the large number of old voters, but it was soon found out that the line was padded with a great many for, including nearly every Republican politician in the county.

The court house doors were kept locked until the arrival of the veterans. They were first admitted and after they were seated others were allowed to enter and in a short time the large court room was packed with an enthusiastic audience. The Columbia Glee club sang a campaign litty which so pleased the crowd that they

Francis Shroder was named for president and one vice president and sec retary was selected from each district of the county. Mr. Sproder returned thanks for the honor conferred and called upon the

A FOOLISH FARMER FLEECED He Allows Three Swindlers to Victimize Him

For $2.987 Joseph H. Guest, a well-to-do farmer of Brandywine Hundred, Del., was neatly fleeced out of nearly $3,000 by three sharpers Wednesday afternoon. Two of them approached him with an offer to buy a portion of his property at a liberal price. Each side was to put up $3,000 forfeit, the money to be held by the third of the confederates. Mr. Guest, not having the funds on hand, came on to Wilmington way home, and at the edge of a woods, he was met by the sup-posed negotiators, and the party en-tered the woods to complete the trans-scion. After some dickering Guest turned over the $3,000 forfelt to the third swindler. who also received from his confederates what appeared to be a roll of notes. Guest then became suspicious and grabbed for this roll, which he obtained. The sharpers quickly departed with their "boodle," and the farmer started for home. On the way he examined his "money," and was dum-founded upon discovering that he had $13 in notes and a large wad of newspaper slips. The swindlers were then out of sight. Guest came back to Wilmington and notified the police. The authorities in Philadelphia. hester and West Chester and other have been notified by telegraph, but there is no clew to the robbers. Guest is about 50 years of age, and is worth at least $80,000. His describes his flacers as dark-com-plexioned. Two of them are short, while the third is rather tall.

Had Enough of Texed Wool. George B. Graves, the well-known and Wealthy woolen manufacturer of Indiana. Pa, has announced his intention of voting for Cleveland and Thurman. Mr. Graves has heretofore been a staunch Republican, and his "flop" is regarded as having a great deal of significance by both parties. His change of political heart was the result of the nigh tariff on wool plank of the Re-publican platform adopted at Chicago. Mr. Graves says the tex on wool has been detrimental to manufacturers, and that he is now strongly in favor of the Mills bill, which he considers an excellent measure for the people of this country. In addition to cast ing his vote for the Democratic national ticket, Mr. Graves will vote for the state candidates. His firm is the Kelleysburg woodlen factory.

A committee of influential Republicans left Evansville on Tuesday night for Indianapolis to A short time ago local Republicans and many Recubilican papers boasted that Frank P. Hunt, a prominent attorney of Medin, N. Y., would vote for Harrison and Morion. On Wednesday Mr. Hunt issued a letter, in which he says that ne will not vote for the Republican nomines. "If firmly believe that the prosperity of our country will be better conserved by a government animated by the true principles of Democracy than in any other way." The latter has greatly chaptined the Republicans and appearance at Evansville at a Republican raily to be held there next week. They hope that he may possibly stem the tide of disaster.
