

OLD HAMBURG TOWN.

IT IS NO LONGER INDEPENDENT OF GERMANY.

Hamburg ranks fourth among the ports of the earth, and has a most magnificent harbor—its edifices, too, are fine, and it has some history.

The free state of Hamburg is a thing of the past. It is no longer absolutely independent, but it is a free state in name, and its laws are made by its own assembly.

DISCARDED FINERY.

WHAT BECOMES OF THE CAST OFF CLOTHING OF RICH LADIES.

Discoveries Made by an Impulsive Reporter—Garments Found in Second Hand Clothing Stores of the Better Class—The Poor Relations Not Forgotten.

DR. RAUB'S LOCOMOTIVE. With cab and coal trucks removed to show the mechanism.

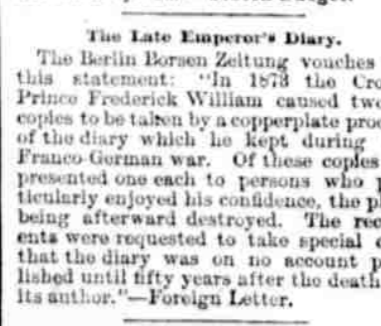

It is claimed that this engine will use so much less coal than the ordinary locomotive that it can be carried ten times as far with a single supply.

The city of Hamburg ranks fourth among the ports of the world.

CHURCH OF ST. NICHOLAS.

Thought that certain important advantages would be obtained by entering into closer commercial relations with the empire.

THE ENTRANCE TO THE COLONNADES.

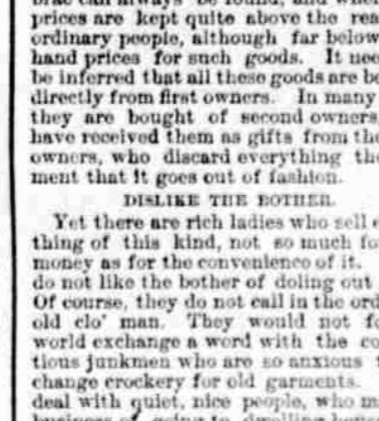

A magnificent bridge, begun in 1808 and finished in 1872, crosses the Elbe, and six other bridges span the river and canals.

Some of the buildings of Hamburg, and especially the churches, are among the famous ones of the world.

EDWARD MARTIN.

After the breaking up of the Confederate army, Mr. Martin returned to his home in Georgia, where he began a course of study, entering an academy for boys.

Mr. Martin left a widow and three children, and the newspaper men of Savannah, Ga., are raising a fund for the benefit of the bereaved family.

MISS LEONARD.

As to the leading actresses who have large and expensive wardrobes, they do not need to be very rich.

Results of Mouth Breathing. Many disease germs enter through an open mouth.

The Late Emperor's Diary. The Berlin Boreas Zeitung vouches for this statement.

A Change of Base. "Dimple, have you been at the preservers?"

Anecdote of "Old Hutch." One evening, after a day of unusual excitement on the old board.

Various Japanese towns are building water works, the Tokio works having proved so successful.

THE PEOPLE'S KITCHEN.

Food Furnished at Cost for the Working People of Switzerland.

During my recent vacation I had an opportunity of visiting one of the "Cuisines Populaires" that are coming to be a peculiarity of some of the mountain regions in Switzerland.

EDWARD MARTIN.

Between meals hours food can be had by any one who wants it, but no wine is ever served except when accompanied with food.

Various devices are resorted to. Two such are most in favor, the "melancholia" and the "cappuccino" cryostat.

MISS LEONARD.

The virtues of the milk. The milk is very rarely sick or near so much sounder.

A Terrible Downfall. Mrs. Higginson—Oh, my daughter, you are ruined—ruined!

The Man Who Has Money. "The keeping of money is a harder job than the earning of it."

A Special Inducement. Agent—'I'd like to insure your life. Respectable Old Party—I don't want my life insured."

Way down on the Suisun River. The bookkeepers stopped their work and listened to the man who was engaged in something else.

A Special Inducement. Agent—'I'd like to insure your life. Respectable Old Party—I don't want my life insured."

A dog winks good if ye fell him wi' a bone.—Scott's Proverb.
