TO THE REV. S. P. SMITH, D. D. Author of "My Country The of Thee," on his 50th birthday, October II, 1884.
While through the lands his strain resound, what added fame can love impart To his, who touched the string that found its ochoes in a Nation's heart?

No stormy ods, no flery warch

His genile memory shall prolong, But on fair Freedom's climbing arch He sheds the light of hallowed song. Full many a poet's labored lines A century's creeping waves will hide, The verse a people's love enabrines stands like the rock that breats the tide

Time wrecks the proudest piles we raise,
The towers, the domes, the temples Isli,
The fortress trembles and decays,
One breath of song outlasts them all.
—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

His Monkey Saved His Life. Paris Dispatch to the Lordon Daily Tele

An instance of the instinct and fidelity of a young monkey comes from Batignoles, a suburb of Paris A little boy (so says a French journal), the son of an inhabitant of that part of the city, was playing in one of the rooms of his father's flat with the monkey, which is a most intelligent and domesticated member of its species. The boy, in a fit of juvenile caprice, tied the cord of a window blind around his neck and pretended to hang himself, to the immense amusement of his Simian playmate, which grinned and chattered on a chair. Suddenity the boy became livid and began to cry, for the cord had got into a real noose around his neck. In a very short space of time the monkey took in the situation and tried to undo the noose with its paws, but had to give up the attempt. It then hopped away to another room, where the boy's grandmother was sitting, and began pulling at her gown, to chatter, grimace and look wishilly at the door. At first, thinking that the animal wanted to bite her, the old lady was frightened, but seeing that it was endeavoring with might and main to drag her toward the door, she rose from her seat and went, piloted by the monkey, to the room where her grandson was moaning. The boy was instantly extricated from his perilous position, though it was some time before he recovered from his pain and fright. Jooko, the deliverer, says the French authority for this strange narrative, received a nice little tablet of chocolate cream for his splendid action, and he deserved it. An instance of the instinct and fidelity of

A cold of unusual severity which I took last autumn developed into a difficulty decidedly catarrhal in all its characteristics, threatening a return of my old chronic maiady, catarrh. One bottle of Ety's Cream Balm completely eradicated every symptom of that painful and prevailing disorder.—E. W. Warner, 165 hudson street, Rochester, N. Y.

Calarrh.—For twenty years I was a sufferer from catarrh of the head and throat. By a few applications of kly's Cream Balm I received decided benefit—was cured by one bottle.—Charlotte Parker, Waverly, N. Y.

Reducing the Surplus.

The disposition of the surplus in the U. S. treasury engages the attention of our statesmen, but a more vital question has our attention, and that is the reduction of the Surplus Consumptives. Since the discovery and introduction of Dr. Ring's New Discovery for Consumption, there has been a marked decrease in the mortality from this dreaded disease, and it is possible to still further reduce the number of Consumptives. How? By keeping constantly on hand a bottle of Dr. Ring's New Discovery and using according to directions, upon the appearance of the first symptoms, such as a Cough, a Cold, a Sore Throat, a Chest, or Side Pain. Taken thus early a cure is guaranteed.

HOOD'S BARSAPARILLA.

OUT OF SORTS

Is a feeling permiter to persons of dyspept'd tendency, or it may be caused by change of climate season or life. The stomach is out of order, the head soless or does not feel right, appetite is capricious, the nerves seem overworked, the mind is confused and irritable. This condition finds an excellent corrective in Hood's farraparille, which, by its regulating and toning powers, soon prestores harmony to the system, and gives that strength of mind, nerves and body, which makes one feel perfectly well.

feetly well.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA

"I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla in my family for three years, and have taken it personally with great success. It has always built up my system by giving me a good appetite, has cleared my skin, and has made me sleep. I have suffered from nervous prostration, and have been cured by nothing but Hood's Sarsaparilla and occasionally a few of Hood's Fills."

G. F. JUNKERHAHH, Supt. of Music in Public Schools, Cincinnatt, O.

Schools, Cincinnati, O.

CURES DYSPEPSIA

"I suffered a great while with dyspepsia, and tried a good many remedies. A friend urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I have now taken two bottles. It has entirely cured me of dyspepsia, and a scrotulous affection has also entirely disspipeared. I can hardly find words to express my high appreciation of Hood's Farsaparilla." ALLEW H. A YER'S SARSAPARILLA.

THE OLD DOCTORS

Drew blood, modern doctors cleanse it; hence the increased demand for Alteratives. It is now well known that most diseases are due, not to over-abundance, but to impurity of the Blood; and it is equally well attested that no blood medicine is so efficacious as Ayer's Sar-saparilla.

"One of my children had a large sore break out on the leg. We applied simple remedles, for a while, thinking the sore would shortly heal. But it grew worse. We sought medical advice, and were told that an alterative medi-cine was necessary. Ayer's Sarsapariila being above all others, we used it with marvelous results. The sore healed and health and strength readily returned."—J. J. Armstrong Weimer, Texas.

"I find Ayer's Sarsapart'la to be an admira ble remedy for the cure of blood diseases.) prescribe it, and it does the work every time." - E. L. Pater, M. D., Manhattan, Kansas. "We have told Ayer's Sarsaparilla here fo over thirty years, and always recommend i when asked to name the best blood purifier." —W. T. McLean, Druggist, Augusta, Ohio.

"Ayer's medicines continue to be the standard remedies in spite of all competition."—T. W. Richmond, Bear Lake, Mich.
