

WORK OF A SCOUNDREL.

UNKNOWN PERSON STRIKES WM. F. HANMAN WITH A STONE.

While the Fireman is on His Engine the Hit on His Head. On the Road, Proceeding a Fairly Good—Several Cases Wrecked Wednesday Night.

COLUMBIA, Nov. 15.—William F. Hanman, fireman on engine No. 352, was struck on the head by a stone last night and received a severe bruise. The train was going east and the accident happened near the Susquehanna rolling mill. The stone was thrown by some person unknown, injuring the fireman so badly that he was unable to go with his engine. A fireman was sent from the C. D. office to take his place. A wreck occurred on the Pennsylvania railroad at Locust street last night. The freight train drawn by engine No. 1,171 was going west and was passing the train drawn by engine No. 224 going east. An oil tank of the former train jumped the track and struck the cars of the latter train, which caused the cars of the bound train and three empty cars of the west bound train were very badly damaged. The loaded cars were so much damaged that the merchandise had to be transferred. The wreck was cleared the wreck.

The fair in the armory has not been very well attended. The fireman's hand held a meeting last night and decided not to allow persons running for the different offices to solicit votes in the armory. Visitors to the fair will not be annoyed in this manner, as only dancing will be permitted in the building. On Saturday a supper will be held from the fireman's hand. The fair was sent to the Republican club of Wrightsville to visit the fair which has been accepted. The club will visit the fair in a body on Saturday evening.

T. J. Wisman, jr., chief engineer of Harrisburg, and William Becker, auditor of Philadelphia, both of the Pennsylvania Canal company, accompanied by Mrs. Becker and a lady friend, passed down the canal yesterday. They occupied the steamer "Swiata," of the canal company. Last night they were joined at McCall's by J. Frank Danner, of the Susquehanna Canal company, and D. F. Schuler, superintendent of the "Tidewater" canal. The party will go to Havre de Grace to-day. While in town the party examined the property of the canal company.

The Pennsylvania railroad pay car was in this morning. The Brotherhood of Railroad Prayers will hold a ball in Athletic hall to-night. The regular monthly meeting of school board will be held this evening.

Miss Kittie Rhoades and company presented "Hazel Kyrle" last night. To-night "Fanny" is the play.

Assaulted a Man in His Own House. Last evening Harry Brubaker, a resident of Middle street, was assaulted and badly used up by a pair of men. About 9 o'clock the men called at Brubaker's house and demanded admission. Brubaker told them they could not enter, as he was out. One of the men drew a bottle partly filled with whisky from his pocket and struck Brubaker in the face as he stood in the hallway. A terrible gash was cut on the nose and another on the side of the head. Brubaker died a great deal, and it was found necessary to send for Dr. C. Upmeyer, who attended the wounds. Brubaker knows the men who made the attack, and he will in all probability sue them.

Death of an Old Farmer. Manor town, an old citizen of Manor town, died at his residence at Turkey Hill, aged 81 years. The deceased was a farmer and a life-long Democrat. Among his children living are: Edward H. Kaufman, the well-known hardware dealer, residing near Dillerville; L. E. Kaufman, of Mountville; Mrs. David E. Kaufman, of Manor; Mrs. Benjamin H. Witmer, of Millersville; and Abraham Taylor, of Safe Harbor. Abraham Kaufman, do, who kept the Buck hotel, was also a son. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning and the interment will be made at the Masonville, Monocline meeting house.

At the Station House. James Corral, a vagrant, was before the mayor this morning and at his own request was sent to the workhouse for 20 days. He had a wooden leg which was broken and he wanted to lay up for repairs. The man was the name of another customer who had come in from Mountville to see the parade and got soaked. He succeeded in both and he is yet in the station house to sober up.

Burt His Eye. William Snyder, son of John A. Snyder, saloon keeper of North Queen street, met with an accident last evening. He was putting up Chinese lanterns and when he went to cut a piece of wire one end of it flew around, striking him in the eye, causing a painful injury. The sight will not likely be impaired. Dr. Kohler is attending the case.

Two Speakers This Afternoon. The Third Ward Republican club had a banquet at the Swan hotel after the parade last evening. Speeches were made by John W. Menzies, the man who nominated Harrison at Chicago on an "Alderman" ticket, and Alderman K. Barr. They are said to have been intellectual treats.

Settled the Case. Jacob Harrison, of East Lampeter, who went gunning on the lands of John Leffler and was arrested for trespassing, was to have been heard before Alderman McClellan last evening. The case was compromised, however, and the accused paid the cost.

The Ladies' Entertainment. On Monday evening next the Lancaster Entertainment and social in the Grand street. Great preparations are being made for the event, which promises to be a success.

At the Hanging. There was a large crowd at the execution of William Showers at Lebonon, yesterday, and among them were Michael Burns, Prison-keeper Smith, A. C. Welch and Sheriff Burkholder. The Lancaster folks came home carrying pieces of the rope with which the hanging was done.

The New California. Last night the police appeared for the first time in their new hats and overcoats. The hats are of the latest New York style with gold peak and are very handsome. The officers are very proud of them, and they are all mounted on themselves.

The Gasoline Lamps. So far 425 gasoline lamps have been put in the city to do service as long as the electric lights can be used. Although many of them go out at night the majority are doing very well.

To be Buried at Mt. Joy. Captain Lewis A. Hoke died in York on Tuesday, aged 49 years. Deceased formerly resided in Mt. Joy, but moved from there to York many years ago. His body will be taken to Mount Joy for interment.

Not Postponed. The business property of Wm. C. Datz, on South Queen street, was offered at public sale at the Cooper house last evening. On account of the confusion incident to the sale the sale was adjourned until next Wednesday evening.

In Town. Philip Gerhart, of Lewis Gerhart, of Mountbourn, Australia, arrived in Lancaster on Tuesday evening. He is a business trip and is the guest of his uncle, Henry Gerhart.

TWO DUELISTS CARVING EACH OTHER.

A Circumstantial Account of a Fight With a Knife Between Two Men in Alabama.

Some time ago Dr. Robert Nabors, who lived at Montevallo, Alabama, employed W. W. Shortridge, a lawyer, to collect a few claims against delinquent patients. Dr. Nabors was delinquent and the men quarrelled, but parted without coming to blows. On Saturday Nabors called at Shortridge's office, and the old iron broke out afresh. They finally agreed to fight with bowie knives in a darkened room just to the office. Nabors drew his knife and showed the men and the room and fought blindly but desperately for nearly ten minutes. Persons living in the lower story heard the noise as the duellists rolled upon the floor and ran up stairs. When the door was broken open, Nabors staggered into the office with blood streaming from his forehead and his face and breast. Without saying a word he rushed down the stairs, still clasp ing a gory knife in his hand. Lying upon the floor of the room was Shortridge. His head had been slashed in a fearful manner and the arteries of his neck had been severed. He was dead. Nabors, after leaving the scene, was arrested. He seemed to be crased with pain, and staggered along the street until he reached a house where Albert Keenan, a negro, stood the doorway. With a man's word Nabors rushed at Keenan and struck at him with the knife which he held in his hand. The negro tried to run into the store, which the man made another desperate lunge at him. Keenan seized a gun which was lying upon the floor and fired at Nabors. He missed the madman, who was in the act of making another swing with his knife. The woman cowered, but Nabors, who was thrown upon the floor. Before he could get upon his feet again Keenan dealt him a blow on the head with the butt of the gun, and then leaping over his body, ran into the street, and cannot now be found. Nabors never regained consciousness. Both bodies were buried on Tuesday.

THREE BOYS IN THE STOVE.

Headings of Years' Hard Toil Destroyed by Children.

From the Chicago Herald. Mr. and Mrs. Grube arrived in this country many years ago, and by their industry and economy saved the sum of $500. The money was put in a bank and the interest was used to pay for the education of their children. One day the children were playing in the stove and the stove was overturned, and the children were killed. The money was lost and the children were buried.
