COLUMBIA, Nov. 16 .- The regular mathly meeting of the school board was old last evening in the council chamber All present, but Mr. Slade. The finance mittee reported as follows:

Balance on hard at last report Orders paid during the month......

The property committee reported new matting placed in the recitation room used by Miss Sauber and tin roof over the room repaired. The Public Ground company had donated money to have the room papered. A number of small black boards in Cherry street building repaired. Purchased three donen ergeers. Mesara, Slade and North reported having completed and executed lease with Public Ground company for the chapel building. Their action was approved.

Bills were paid amounting to $207.75. Orders were drawn for $600 for bonds cancelled, and $24 75 for cancelled coupons. Death of Mrs. Corrigan.

Mrs. Eilzsbeth Corrigan, widow of the late John Corrigan, died this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Culp. The deceared was in her 76th year. Her death was caused by consumption. She had been alling for a number of years, but had been confined to her bed for three weeks. The deceased was born in Bucks county and has been living in town for the past fifty years. She was a member of the United Brethren church. Three children, Robert and John Corrigan and Mrs. Henry Calp, survive. The funeral arrangements have not been made. Caught in the Cog Whee's.

Christian Hershey, a young son of Mrs. Catherine Hershey, met with a serious sceldent yesterday afternoon. He was at the stable of his grandfather Christian Hershey, and was turning the wheel of a haycatter. In trying to change hands he had the fingers of his right hand caught in the cog wheels and badly mashed. Dr. Lines. weaver was summoned and amputated the middle finger at the first joint and the end of the index finger. A very successful ball was held in Athletic hall last night by Columbia lodge, Brotherhood of Railroad Brakemen. The Good Will fire company, with a band, will be in town on Saturday ovening to visit the Shawnee company.

A meeting of the Sons of Veterans was held last night and officers nominated for Miss Kitty Rhoades and company presented "Foust" last night. "Galatea" be the play to-night. A matinee will be given on Saturday afternoon.

Charles Rose, brakeman on engine No. 902, sprained his right ankle yesterday in jumping from the train. George Boyer, working in the round house, received a check for $28 yesterday for his month's wages. In coming from the Columbis National bank he lost ten dollars of the money. The loss falls heavily on the The Republican parade will be held on Saturday night.

Will Oarleton Engagetted. Seldom have the people of Lancaster they were last evening by Will Carleton with his unique posm-lecture, "The Science of Home." Seldom too have our local Greek letter societies had the honor of entertain ing so distinguished a guest and brother as fell to the lot of the local chapter of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity, of F. & M. col lege, last evening.

After the entertaining and instructive lecture the under-graduates and alumni members of this chapter numbering sixteen, together with their distinguished brother, repaired to Hotel Lancaster, where Al Smith in his characteristic way had prepared a rich banquet. Two hours were spent around the festive board in replenlabing the inner man and in toasting. Truly this was a gala time for Chapter Tau. The occasion seemed to bring Mr. Carleton back to college days.

Capt. Lewis A. Heke's Funeral. The body of Capt. Lewis A. Hoke, who died in York on Tuesday, was brought to Lancaster to-day and taken on the 9:35 train to Mt. Joy, where the interment was made. The funeral services were held last evening in Allieon U.B. church in York. In attendance were the members of Sedgwick Post No. 37, G. A. R., Ivy Castle and other Kulghts of Mystic Chain, Moss Rose Commendery, and other Knights of the Golden Eagle, besides members of Harmonia Lodge, 1. O. O F., and Co., G. 9th Pa. Cavalry, all of which organizations the demed was a member, and the letter carriers of the postofiles of whom he was one. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. P. Smith, and Rev. A. Stapleton, of Trinity Evangelical church and chaplain of Bedgwick Post, G. A. R.

Representatives of the above organizations scoompanied the body of deceased to Mt.

A Colored Entertalement, Last evening a number of colored people gave what they called an "Emancipation Kntertainment" in Mannerchor hall. The affair was managed by Fenton Harris, but It was not the big success that it was expected to be, as Lancaster colored pec ple did not turn out. The Middletown colored band and part of the Goodwill band, of this city, were present. There was a supper early in the evening which was followed by speaking by Samuel Harley, of Middletown, and Fenton Harris. There was singing by the Silver Star Quartette, dancing and other amusements. The entertainment came to a rather abrupt termination at 12 o'clock when the hall was closed, because Harris and his friends could not pay the rent.

Married in Reading.

Elmer E. Marsh, chief clerk in one of the departments of the Pennsylvania railroad in Patisdelphia, and formerly of Mt. Joy, and Miss Ida A. Doyle, daughter of Rev. Dr. M. P. Doyle, of the United Brethren denomination, Reading, were married on Thursday siternoon, at the residence of the bride's father, in the presence of over 100 guests. The bridesmaids were Miss L. Augusta Doyle, sister of the bride, and Minnie Marsh, of Harrisburg, sister of the groom. The groomsmen were J. M. Snyder, of Mt. Joy, and Frank Marsh, of Harris burg. The ushers were Fred. Mobus, of Muntingdon, and James Denny, of Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Marsh, after their wedding trip, will reside in Philadelphia.

Struck in the Eye.

George Smith, living at No. 316 Middle street, met with a serious accident this morning. He was employed by John Kendig, contractor, and while at work breaking ice, a piece of stone struck him in it e eys. Dr. Shirk dressed the wound, but it will not be known for a few days whether the sight is lost.

Real Estate Withdrawn. The real cetate belonging to the estate of Thes. Commings on West Chestnut, Beaver and South Queen streets, offered at public mole. n Thursday evening by Auctioneer Hains, ass withdrawn for want of bidders.

BERSOHEL LODGE ANNIVERSARY.

Grand Secretary Nichelson Delivers an Inter-esting Address—A Banquet Follows. Herschel Lodge, No. 123, I. O. O. F., celebrated its first anniversary on Thursday evening. The lodge held a business meet-ing from 7 to 8 c'clock, and then marched to the court house headed by Drepperd's drum corps. After several selections had been rendered by the Lancaster quartette a history of the lodge was read by Joseph A.

The lodge was started originally with 26 members and when instituted had 123 nembers. Now the membership is 181 and the financial standing is good. The lodge owns regalia worth $1,200, has beween $500 and $600 invested, and $500 in cash in the treasury.

The address of the evening was by James B. Nicholson, grand secretary of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania. He traced the history of Odd Fellowship from its inception in England, spoke of it vonderful growth and rapid spread to all parts of the world. It was only a secret society so far as it was necessary to address occupied one hour in its delivery and the speaker had an appreciative au dience. After the address the members of Herschel lodge and their invited guests marched to Grant hall, where an elegan repast was spread for two hundred and thirty persons. The banquet was prolonged until I o'clock this morning, when all de parted for their homes well pleased with the first anniversary of Herschel lodge.

During the evening a telegram was te ceived from Rabbi Ungerleider, a member of Herschel, congratulating the lodge on its first anniversary.

The committee in charge of the auniversary were George Forrest, chairman; Dr. M. W. Raub, Henry E. Hoffer, Henry Shindle and John C. Horting. They did their work well and to the entire satisfaction of all the participants.

The banquet was gotten up under the direction of the wives of the members of the lodge, and the manner in which it was appreciated showed that they thoroughly understood their business.

AWARDED TO THE PATHER.

The Child in Dispute Between the Risters Is Now on the Road West.

Before Judge Livingston a case which has attracted considerable attention was heard Thursday afternoon, The facts of 1 are about as follows: In the year 1877 George R. Risser was married to Miss Marie Niesley, a daughter of John K. Niesley, of Mt. Joy. The couple went to Paris, lilinois, where they intended to make their future home. They had been living there about a year when the parents of the wife went to visit They asked her to come East with them and she accompanied them ostersibly on a visit. She never returned to her husband and has not lived with him since. Soon after she came East a son was born to her. The husband has been trying for some time to get possession of the child. Two years ago C. G. Kennedy, esq., his attorney, had a habeas corpus issued. When the sheriff went to serve the writ upon the mother she left the state, going to Claremont, on the James river in Virginls, where she remained until last summer. She then came home, Mr. Kennedy soon learned of her whereabouts. He found that she would attend a funeral on a certain day, and be sent Deputy Sheriff Armstropg and another man to be on the lookout for her. They succeeded in serving the writ which commanded her to bring the child into court. She then ran away again, and the court issued an at tachment for contempt. She found that she would never be able to come back without be ny subject to arrest, so she agreed to surrender. Yesterday she came to town and with the child, her husband and others went before Judge Livingston. The woman then surrendered the child to when she so desired. When an attempt was made to take the child from the mother there was quite a scene. The boy fought, kicked and screamed. He was finally placed in a cab from which he kicked out the front window in his struggles. He was finally pacified and accompanied his father to the West last

KNIGHTS OF MYSTIC CHAIN.

A New Council to He Instituted on Next Thursday Evening.

There are now two castles of the Knights of the Mystic Chain in Lancaster and these have increased so rapidly in membership that the institution of a third castle is made necessary. It is only a few years since the first castle was instituted here and Lancas ter Castie, the first organized, has a membership of 250 and Stevens Castle, although only a trifle over a year old, has 140 mem-

The arrangements for instituting a third ouncil have been made by District Deputy John B. Bushong. The first meeting of its members was held on Thursday evening and some of the officers were elected. The remainder will be elected and the council formally instituted on next Thursday evening. The council will be instituted by some of the officers of the Select Castle. The new castle has now 74 names on the roll and this number will be added to before the installation.
