

BULLETS IN HIS BRAIN.

A CHICAGO SPECULATOR ENDS HIS CAREER WITH A PISTOL. One of His Friends Says He Lost a Big Sum in the Recent Wheat Deal, and Another Believes He Was Discouraged Because He Was Not Employed.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—George H. Foebel, a Board of Trade man, shot and killed himself this morning at his residence, Wabash avenue. Foebel was about 40 years old. He has a father residing in Cincinnati.

Mr. Foebel fired two shots into his brain, either one of which would have caused his death. The clerk of the committee was directed to notify John Keagly, the contractor, to be at once put Duke street in passable condition.

The committee took no action on the proposition of the Little Turpin company for the keeping in repair of their turpin.

John C. Hager, president of the West End street railway, appeared before the committee and asked for permission to use the carcase, one Centre square and the Orange street, for the purpose of erecting a bridge over the street.

A general discussion followed as to the Miller's company refusing to put down flat rails, and Mr. Hager said that company was ready to adjust their rails to the grade of Centre square.

COLUMBIA, Nov. 20.—The body of Lewis L. Brooks, conductor on the Pennsylvania railroad, who was killed on Monday, was brought home last evening and after given attention by Undertaker Musser was taken to his home on South Eighth street.

His remains brought home. Conductor Brooks to be buried on Friday evening at 8 o'clock; services in the Methodist church.

Mrs. Michael Musser, of West Hempfield township, near the Pennsylvania railroad, about two miles from town, died last night from child-birth. She was twenty-two years of age, and had been married about two years.

Early Frankman A. Meek, of Harrisburg, had his hand injured this morning while coupling cars in the east yards.

A man was found along the P. E. R. at Collins this morning by the crew of engine No. 475 east. He was badly injured about head and his leg broken.

LODGING ITEMS. Rev. T. G. Apple, D. D., and Rev. E. V. Gerhart, D. D., went to Harrisburg this morning, to attend the burial service of Rev. Dr. J. C. Bucher, who died at his home in Lewisburg on Friday last, aged 85.

An attractive entertainment was given to a large audience at Liederkranz hall last night; music by Grosh's orchestra, recitation, dancing, etc.

William Leaman attorney for John Feagley, today filed a motion against Norbeck & Milroy for $5,000. Arrangements are under way for a settlement of the financial difficulty and Mr. Norbeck will resign business.

Thompson's glass blowers and novelty company will be at the King street theatre during Thanksgiving week.

The grand jury in the United States district court of Philadelphia found a true bill on Monday against William Schneider for sealing letters from the postoffice in this city. On motion of Schneider's counsel the case was continued until Wednesday.

Henry Hawthorn, prosecuted by his wife for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, has been locked up for a hearing before Alderman A. F. Donnelly.

Ross Doster, a bootblack, was very drunk last evening and it required a strong detachment of the police force to effect his arrest and restore the comfort of a large crowd in front of the opera house that was awaiting the "big lug" band.

"On The Frontier" was given in the opera house last evening to a large audience. The show is far better than the average sensational drama snags. Both Mr. Hardie and Miss Von Leer are capital artists, and their play, although very tame novel, is not without merit.

Andrew Crosby, of this city, will leave Lancaster to-morrow to join the Leonzo Brothers, with whom he will travel the remainder of the season. He has been with them before and knows them.

At the package party held at Schiller hall by the Lancaster Turner Verein, No. 135, won the gold headed umbrella; No. 302, held by Miss Stella Hensel, Walnut street, drew the ton of coal. The holder of 135 can get the umbrella by calling at Arnold Haas' saloon.

The tobacco market. The local leaf tobacco market was very dull during the past week. The sales amounted to about 200 cases, of which 115 were sold by Skiles & Frey in small lots to jobbers and manufacturers.

The farmers are busy preparing the '88 crop for market. The few buyers who were in the field the past few weeks have withdrawn, and not a crop has been disposed of by farmers during the past week.

Sales of seed leaf tobacco reported by J. S. Gans' son, tobacco broker, No. 131 Water street, New York, for the week ending November 19, 1888: 400 cases 1887 Pennsylvania, at $15.00; 120 cases 1887 Pennsylvania and Havana, at $15.00; 150 cases 1888 Pennsylvania, at $15.00; 200 cases 1888 Pennsylvania, at $15.00; 200 cases 1887 State Havana, at $15.00; 200 cases 1887 State Havana, at $15.00; 200 cases 1887 New England Havana, at $15.00; 200 cases sundries, at $15.00.

Death of John Kauz. Another printer has gone to his rest, and this time it is a former employe of the INTELLIGENCER office. John Kauz died this morning at the residence of his father, Israel Kauz, the cysteman, No. 422 Lafayette street. He had not been in good health for some time past. Deceased was a well-known printer, and he learned the trade at this office, where he was employed for years. He was worked on different papers in Philadelphia, New York and other cities.

Funeral of Henry F. Carson. The funeral of Henry F. Carson took place this afternoon and it was largely attended. The pall bearers were vestrymen of St. John's Episcopal church, of which Henry was a member, and they were: James Miller, J. W. M. Grier, J. H. Hartman, Adam G. Grier, Morris Zook, W. C. Marshall. Rev. Pratt conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Thomas B. Baker, of Adams, Pa., a former pastor of St. John's, who came here especially for the funeral. The casket was placed in the hearse at Woodward street.

STREET COMMITTEE MEETING.

A Talk About Street Railway Matters, Not No Action Taken. At the meeting of the street committee Monday evening, S. H. Reynolds, esq., representing the Little Turpin company, appeared and made an argument in favor of the city accepting the proposition to be made by the turpin company to pay $100 per year for keeping in repair that part of the turpin in the city limits.

The clerk of the committee was directed to notify John Keagly, the contractor, to be at once put Duke street in passable condition.

The committee took no action on the proposition of the Little Turpin company for the keeping in repair of their turpin.

John C. Hager, president of the West End street railway, appeared before the committee and asked for permission to use the carcase, one Centre square and the Orange street, for the purpose of erecting a bridge over the street.
