A CORRECTION.

The Sinnder of the New York "Herald" Ex plained by Mr. Barr.

NEW YORK, NOV. 20, 1888. Bilitors Lancaster Intelligencer : In your edition of Weduesday, Nov. 14 you state under the heading of "A Bro-ker's Tragic Death," referring to the suicide of Thomas A. Botts, that I was his brother in-law. This is an error which I d like you to correct, as he was in no way related to me. The blunder occurred with the reporter of the New York Herald and may have come from the coroner, who telephoned me to inquire if I could assign any cause for the act, as 1 knew the man very well, he being a cousin of my former partner. My wife was a Miss Weld.

THE PROHIBITIONISIS. They Arrange For Lectures and For Medale

They Arrange For Lectures and For Medals For Boys and Girls. The Prohibition League of Lancaster met on Tuesday evening, in the office of Luther S. Kauffman, eq., 43 North Duke street. Mr. Jas. E. Crawford, president of the League, presided. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. J. N. Folwell. The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. The committee on lectures re-ported they had written to secure either Miss Willard or Mrs. Lathron to lectures in Lan. Willard or Mrs. Lathrop to lecture in Lan-custer on December 20th, but no replies had yet been received. The second Tuesday evening of each month was fixed as the regular time for the meeting of the league. A committee, consisting of Rev. J. B. Funk, Mr. W. G. Hean, Miss S. S. Le Eavre, Miss Lou Myers and Miss Eager, was appointed to prepare programme for regular meetings of the league, the proramme to consist of music, speeches,

Property of Butcher Diffenbaugh Destroyed

By An Incendiary. H. W. Diffenbaugh, butcher, who resides at North Queen and Lemon streets, met with a serious loss by fire this morning. He is the owner of a property on the Old Factory road in Lancaster township, on which are quite a number of buildings. This morning after two o'clock fire was discovered in the buildings, and an slarm was struck from box sixtyfour at Rockland and Chester streets. Although the fire department quickly responded they were able to do little of suy account, as the fire had gained too much headway. In a short time a brick stable, four pig pens, the slaughter house, wagon shed and refrigerator, which were all very close together, were destroyed. The dwelling house was on fire several times, but it was saved as were several other buildings. The contents of the buildings included 600 pounds of lard, four wagons, two sleighs and some hay. They were all burned. The entire property, including the house, was insured with Eckenrode & Myers for $3,675 in the New Hampshire company, and $3,375 in the Union of San Francisco The loss will be greater than the insurance How the fire originated no one seems to know. There was fire in the engine up to 6:30 in the evening, but the buildings did not catch. It is likely that it was the work of an incendiary, as the fire started on the

One of them walked up to the prostrate body of Brake, and grasping his gun by the barrel he litted the stock in the air and brought it down with great force upon Brake's head, crushing the skull and causing instant death. Slaton, who stood by powerleas to help Brake, next received the attention of the men who were concerned in the deed. They started toward him, when he began to run and call for help. The men then became alarmed and left. A meawinger who was sent to Clarksville for a coilin gives the particulars as stated above, but declined to divuige the names of the men concerned in the shooting. The Ordinance to be Enforced. There have been numerous complaints made to the mayor by patrons of the Central market that bucksters have been forestalling the market by buying butter and eggs, so that they have been scarce articles the past few weeks. The officers have been notified to be on the lookout for the offenders and this morning Officer Dare detected Michael Grafel, a huckster, in the act of buying a basket of butter. He reported the matter to Market Master Bush ong and the result was the arrest of Grafel, whose place of business is on North Queer Grafel was taken before the mayor at 8 o'clock and without the formality of a hearing entered a plea of guilty. The mayor imposed a penalty $2 and gave notice that in the future those convicted of forestalling the market would be dealt with more severely. The practice of these hucksters is to go to market very early and engage all the butter and eggs they see. It was 5 o'clock this morning when Grafel was arrested and at that early hour he had bought up all the butter on market to ahip to Philadelphia. There are others in th same business that the officers will keep an eye or, and for any attempt to forestall the market will be promptly arrested.

An Elizabethtown Man Killed. David M. Barnhard, of Elizabethtown, while walking on the railroad at Collins Station on Tuesday morning, was struck by a train and fatally injured. One of his legs was broken and on his head was a big gash. He was removed by trainmen to the hospital at Harrisburg and, after lying in an unconscious state until evening, death ensued.

A dispatch to Elizabeth town was answered by the brother of deceased who arrived in Harrisburg and took the remains with him to Elizabethtown in the evening. Barnhard had been husking corn near Collins Station.

To Be Investigated.

Complaint has been made at the station house that a woman named Gilgore, living on High street, daily sends out her child to beg and if the child returns without her basket filled she is not allowed to go in the house. The policemen of the Eighth ward have been instructed to investigate the matter and if Mrs. Gligore persists in sending the child out to beg to have her arrested.
