

The Daily Intelligencer.

LANCASTER, NOVEMBER 22, 1888.

The Philadelphia carpet men who attempt to explain the condition of their business without damaging the high tariff...

Democratic opposition to trusts and combinations explains the rapid Republicanism of some carpet manufacturers...

The Purchase of Canada. General Harrison is said to contemplate the annexation of Canada by force of arms...

Truly it is a glorious conception for the Republicans, and with a whole flock of territories turned into states, they will probably feel most loftily secure in the saddle...

The Reformed Church Messenger publishes in full Dr. T. G. Apple's address delivered last July at the biennial meeting of the Alliance in London, England...

The Goose Bone and Weather Bureau. Weather prophets are busy forecasting the weather and if they do not prevaricate as usual this very fine day is anything but a fair sample of the winter days to come...

PERSONAL. MR. GLADSTONE will leave London on Saturday for Hawarden. He will not return to London during the present session of Parliament...

quite complete, and give hope that by and by the knowledge gained from them may be of more use in foretelling weather. The report of the state weather service, for example, has just been issued, and shows that the mean temperature for October was six degrees below the average...

A Grand Army Howler. If the Grand Army of the Republic wishes sincerely to maintain its claim to non-partisanship it should sit down promptly and with crushing force upon Private Dailz, who has written a letter to the St. Louis Republic expressly to denounce that notion...

He wildly proceeds to claim that "we," that is the Grand Army, "own this country" and "will have no reduction of the surplus." The Grand Army may think that the slakiness of Mr. Dailz's mental structure is so evident that it can afford to let him continue his raving...

The report of General Schofield on the condition of the army appears to have drawn attention strongly to the large percentage of desertions from our ranks, though annual reports have noted this fact and suggested remedies over and over again...

The borough South Bethlehem is making a spirited fight against the obstruction of street crossings by the train of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad company. Judgment has been obtained against the company in the sum of a fine of $25 and costs on a complaint that a coal train had obstructed a crossing for 15 minutes...

THE Reformed Church Messenger publishes in full Dr. T. G. Apple's address delivered last July at the biennial meeting of the Alliance in London, England. It is a brief but pithy essay on the hoped for union of Protestant churches...

The two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the settlement of the Swedes in America was celebrated on Wednesday in a Swedish Lutheran church of Philadelphia. The great credit given to Penn and the Quakers for purchasing their lands from the Indians and for maintaining friendly relations with them, belongs first to the Swedes who made a purchase of land from the Indians fifteen years before Penn's famous treaty under the elm tree at Kensington...

PERSONAL. MR. GLADSTONE will leave London on Saturday for Hawarden. He will not return to London during the present session of Parliament. REV. BOYD VINCENT, of Pittsburgh, has accepted the office of assistant bishop of the Episcopal church of the United States in the diocese of Southern Ohio...
