SERVED TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

REV. WILLIAM PEIPER PASTOR OF HOLY TRINITY CHURCH SINCE 1863.

The Celebration of the Event by Services in the Church and a Banquet—Bishop McGovern Attends—The Brother of Dr. F. A. Baden Kills Himself on Tuesday.

COLUMBIA, Nov. 22.—Rev. William Peiper, pastor of the Holy Trinity Catholic church, celebrated the 25th anniversary of his installation as priest of that church today. Solemn high mass was celebrated at 10:15 a. m., with the following officers of the high mass: Celebrant, Rev. Wm. Peiper; master of ceremonies, Rev. A. Kaul; deacon, Rev. M. Muerer; sub deacon, Rev. H. Depman; deacons of honor, Rev. J. J. Russell and C. Koppernagle. In this connection is a most pleasing coincidence. When Rev. Peiper celebrated his first mass 25 years ago, Rev. Muerer and Depman assisted in the same offices as they did today. The church services were followed by an elaborate full course banquet given by Rev. Peiper to his friends.

Among the visiting clergymen were Bishop McGovern, Revs. Kamerling, B. Corves, George Pape, F. Brickel, Joseph Nern, George Borneman, J. Badde, A. Nathe, C. Koppernagle, H. Relt, J. Koeper, Henry Christ, H. Depman, A. Kaul, M. Muerer, J. J. Russell, Dr. McCullagh, A. Christ, F. Schmidt, Schleuter, F. Leubert, J. O'Reilly, Jos. McIlvaine.

Rev. Peiper was born at Car, Westphalia, Germany, and was educated in Muenster. He came to the United States in 1862 and entered the seminary of St. Charles, at Philadelphia. He was ordained priest by Bishop Wood on October 18th, 1863, and assigned as priest at Reading. On November 23, 1863, he was appointed to Holy Trinity church at Columbia.

During his pastorate he has been faithful and earnest in his church work, and the congregation has grown until twelve hundred communicants are enrolled as members of Trinity church. He has been an excellent citizen of the town, liberal and kind to the poor and ready to do anything to advance his church and the interest of the town. The people of Columbia wish him many continued years as priest of Holy Trinity.

Was Not Poisoned.

The examination of the stomach of William Brown, who died on Sunday, did not reveal traces of poison. Drs. Craig and Bockius made a thorough investigation.

The funeral of Lewis Brooks will be held on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. As the Methodist church is so far down town services will be held in St. John's Lutheran, Rev. Thos. Harrison, of the M. E. church, officiating. The order of Railway Conductors will attend the funeral in a body.

Martha Maison and Sarah Watson, both colored, were arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. They will have a hearing before Squire Solly this evening.

The Thanksgiving market will be held on the afternoon previous at 1 o'clock.

John P. Staman entertained the Glee club in a handsome manner at his home last evening.

Henry Clay has been sued by his wife for assault and battery before Squire Solly. Clay has left the town.

A public sale of the property occupied by the Central Pharmacy and Rothehild's shoe store, will be held to night at Wagner's hotel.

The Young Folks' society of St. John's Lutheran church, will hold a sociable this evening at John Sweeney's home.

The Citizens' band, of Mountville, will attend the band fair to-night.

Engine 161 ran into the train of engine 36 in the east yards this morning. The tank was thrown from the track and engine 161 slightly damaged.

Dr. F. A. Baden was summoned to his home at Lutherville, Md., last night by a telegram stating that his brother was found dead in a woods near Lutherville. The Baltimore Sun of Wednesday says: "The body of Maulden Baden, a pilot, aged about 35 years, was found yesterday in a field owned by Mr. Henry Kellogg, about a half mile west of Lutherville. There was a bullet wound behind the right ear, but no pistol or other weapon was found on or near him. The body was discovered by a colored boy named Scriggs, at 11 o'clock in the morning, but for some reason he did not make his discovery known until late in the afternoon. The supposition is that Baden committed suicide by shooting himself and that after the shot was fired he threw his pistol away and crawled off from the spot where the shooting occurred. He had lived in Lutherville with his parents, but all moved to Baltimore a short while ago. No one knows of any cause why he should kill himself, and no letters or papers of any kind were found upon him. An inquest was held and a verdict of suicide rendered."

To-day's Baltimore Sun says: "The body of J. Maulden Baden, who killed himself near Lutherville, on Tuesday, was taken to the residence of his uncle, Mr. Young O. Wilson. On Saturday it will be removed to Plum Point, Calvert county, and interred at the family burying ground on their farm at that place. The family can assign no cause for the suicide."

Paid an Election Wager.

Some time before the recent election William Smith, plumber of this city, who is a Republican, wagered a barrel of beer on the result with Theodore Helb, the well-known brewer of York, who is a Democrat. Mr. Helb lost, so he sent the beer to the Schiller house, this city, yesterday. Mr. Helb and fifteen prominent citizens of York came over with it, and about twenty Lancaster friends of Mr. Smith joined them at the Schiller house. The whole party enjoyed themselves during the afternoon, disposing of the beer and an excellent lunch which Mr. Smith had prepared.

Mrs. Gilgore's Statement.

In the INTELLIGENCER on Wednesday there was published an item about Mrs. Gilgore, of High street, sending her child out begging. The facts were obtained at the station house. Mrs. Gilgore says the facts are not true. Her story is that her little girl, who is six years old, instead of going to school went with a ten-year-old brother to the Northern market with a basket in the morning. She staid out all day and in the evening the boy gave the basket to the little girl to take home while he went to the opera house.

A Handsome Clock.

In the window of Walter C. Herr's jewelry store, on North Queen street, above Orange, there is now on exhibition a very pretty clock. The woodwork is of mahogany and was made in imitation of the large eight-day clocks, which have become so popular, by William Riddle, agent of Ivison, Taylor, Blakeman & Co. In the clock there is a music box which plays Joe Emmett's "Lullaby" and several other pretty selections. The work reflects great credit upon the builder.

The McEvoy Case Dismissed.

United States Commissioner Kennedy rendered a decision on Wednesday evening in the case of Daniel McEvoy, charged with bribing voters. The commissioner dismissed the complaint, because it is not such a prosecution as is contemplated by the United States law. The commissioner holds that if any offense was committed it was a violation of the state law.

Funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Kinzer.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Kinzer, took place from her residence in East Earl township, on Wednesday, and was largely attended. The services were conducted by Revs. Hassler and Brownmiller, and interment made at New Holland.

The Deer Creek & Susquehanna Railroad.

From the Baltimore Sun.

The directors of the Deer Creek & Susquehanna railroad met Tuesday and decided to begin construction at once. The line is from Belair to Stafford, at the mouth of Deer creek, 15¼ miles, and the road is expected to be completed by midsummer. Though a broad gauge road it will connect at Belair with the Maryland Central, and when it crosses the Susquehanna river it can connect with the Pennsylvania system, or be extended to Quarryville, 17 miles, and connect with the Reading system. The latter connection would afford the Reading road a southern outlet for its coal. The president of the company is Mr. George Jewett, son of Hon. Hugh Jewett, formerly president and receiver of the Erie railway.

Suspected of Robbery.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 22.—Chas. Rennar, Otto Smith and Susan Smith were arrested here to-day on information of Fred. Garrett, an umbrella repairer, to whom they told confidentially, while tipsy, about their experience in Lancaster county. One of the men said they had committed a robbery in a "big house with store room," out of which they stole a lot of clothing, shoes and about $40 in cash. One of the men wore a new suit and all three carried well-filled baskets. No sooner had they left than Garrett sought Officer Hale and informed him of the suspicious parties. They were arrested, as they were leaving the city and locked up to await a hearing.

Another Election Wager.

Joseph Haeffner made a wager with William Spangler, of the Schiller house, that if Cleveland was defeated for the presidency he would walk from the Schiller house to Centre Square carrying a hand organ, which he would play along the route. Dr. Colbach, of Elizabethtown, another Democrat, will collect pennies along the route. This evening is the time set for the payment of the wager.

It Is Twenty-three and Successful.

The Columbia Herald, the only Democratic paper in the county besides the INTELLIGENCER, to-day enters upon its twenty third year. The paper has never been more prosperous than under the management of Mr. Given. Its columns are filled with bright, readable matter each week, and it deserves all the success attending it.

Made Good Time.

Fast Line on the Pennsylvania was twenty-five minutes late reaching Lancaster this afternoon. It was much later than that leaving Philadelphia, but made up considerable time, making the trip here in an hour and forty minutes.

The Jury Wheel Filled.

Judge Patterson and Jury Commissioners Diller and Ilyus completed the selection of jurors' names for duty in 1889 on Wednesday afternoon. The tickets containing the names were then folded and placed in the jury wheel, and the wheel sealed by the sheriff in the presence of the court and jury commissioners.

Death of a Young Lady.

Margaret Kate McGlinn, a daughter of ex-Alderman Michael A. McGlinn, died at the home of her parents, No. 122 North Charlotte street, last evening. She had been ill for some weeks with congestion of the lungs. She and her sister have been conducting a confectionery at 47 and 49 West Chestnut street.

Will Read Law.

William Eberly, son of Adam J. Eberly, esq., has successfully passed the preliminary examination and was to-day registered as a law student.

Closed From 9 to 12 O'clock.

The revenue office will be closed from 9 to 12 o'clock to-morrow, on account of the funeral of Collector MacGonigle.

THE administrators of the estate of Godfried Zahm will sell this evening at the Stevens House, that valuable city property on North Prince street, between Orange and West King streets.

A Good Investment for a Small Sum of Money.

In September, 1873, the Equitable Society of New York issued policy No. 84,527 on the life a resident of Montreal. The policy was for $1,000 and the annual premiums charged by the Society was $ 7 36. Premiums were paid for fifteen years, amounting in all to $1,010 40. As the policy was a fifteen-year endowment on the Tontine plan, the holder had, a few days ago, the choice of several methods of settlement. He concluded, instead of taking cash, to convert the assurance into a paid-up policy for $1,248. He now has nothing more to pay, and his heirs will receive in cash $511 for every $100 paid by him in premiums.

If the policy had been for a larger amount, the results would have been correspondingly favorable. n22-1td&1tw

PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED at the Office of the Clerk of the Water Commissioners, No. 32 North Duke street, for the use of the City Water for Street Sprinkling Purposes for the year commencing April 1, 1884. Bidders will state how much they will pay for a two horse sprinkler and how much for a one-horse sprinkler. The successful bidder will have to enter into agreement with the water commissioners, and give bond, before he will be allowed the use of the city's fire hydrants.

Proposals will also be received for the rental of the old pumping station. This station has a good water power, equal to about one hundred horse power, and two good Turbine Wheels are already in place. There are also eight good Boilers, with a capacity of 240 horse-power. The above place would make a good location for manufacturing purposes. Bidders will state how much rent per annum they will pay, they to put property in condition for their purpose at their own expense.

The above proposals will be received up to 5 o'clock p. m., December 5, 1883, at the office of the Clerk, No. 32 North Duke street, Lancaster, Pa.

The Commissioners reserve the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of
THE WATER COMMISSIONERS.

WHAT IS IT?

"HALMA"

—AT—

Herr's Book Store.

"What is it?" you ask. It is the most interesting and instructing game published. Easy enough for the child and interesting and amusing for the older heads.

The long evenings pass almost unnoticed with Halma in the home. Checkers and Chess are no comparison to it.
