

The Daily Intelligencer. LANCASTER, NOVEMBER 30, 1888.

After the Election. The election is over, and the voters are about to select their representatives...

Are They Happy? We do not know how happy our city authorities, and particularly the street committee, feel over the condition of the city's streets...

We have received two copies of Part II of the report of the agricultural experiment station of the Pennsylvania state college for the year 1887...

A DISPATCH from Cleveland, Ohio, says: Aspirants for the several offices of this district are springing up in great profusion...

Ethric Ferce. The wonders of discovery have been so great, that there are a great many people, and probably a majority, who may be persuaded that nothing is possible in mechanics...

Street Lighting. A complaint comes from the east end of no light, and the whole town is impatiently struggling along with a poor light in the hope of a good time coming...

PERSONAL. MARTIN L. BOAL, of Sterling Ill., who has been visiting in this city, returned to the West last evening...

much higher than others; those that charge a very low price do it for the purpose of getting their wires along the streets...

Not only in the spring time, but all the year round people will need a reliable doctor. We would recommend a doctor of the name of Dr. J. H. Dewees...

That's neither a joke nor satire. Solemn fact. Papa and mama may think about their part. It's worth your thinking and ours. We have caught on to the notion that toys must be on the level of the period...

Billiard tables and game boards, mechanical toys of the cheaper sort or the choice, rare, costly and curious French and German animals and men doing strangely amusing things by machinery are all in the same line of thought...

The school-boy seriously pleading in our doorway with his friend to "come back and see the Billy-goat department," the dainty, perfumed little miss from Fortune's nursery...

Measured by floor space covered, by money invested, by time, thought and care bestowed on gathering it, this Toy stock is by all odds the brightest and best.

Incongruous. Yes, we own it. Consistent everywhere and we would be perfect. Perfection precedes decay. Hence harmony in incongruity...

The trained ear and refined taste may be satisfied with a choice from these "sublime harmony" boxes. Works of metal, but nothing metallic in tone. Close your eyes and listen to one of the finer piccolo you hear?

Strange, too, that when all but the most highly trained orchestras fail, these delicate machines often succeed. For example, "The Lost Chord," by Sullivan. When you hear that you will hear—not see—what we are driving at.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA. Catarrh in the Head. Is a complaint which affects nearly everybody. It originates in a cold, or accumulation of mucus...

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA. Cures Catarrh. I had the worst symptoms of chronic catarrh for two years. No medicine was of any use to me until I found Hood's Sarsaparilla...
