Prepared for the Holideys.

The many handsome Christmas goods in the-windows of Charles S. Gill, jeweler, Mc. 10 West King street, indicate the near approach of that holidey. Those in the window represent but a small portion of the large stock isid in. One of the cutest clock's ever seen in this city is in the west window. It is small, with the face set in the side of a dog and with every tick of the clock the dog's itongue appears and his tall wags. It has attracted great attention. In the show cases and on the shelves of the store are many imported articles suitable for Christmas presents. Among them may be noted fans, table gongs, triple mirrors, spoons, knives, forks, inkstands, paper cutters, paper knives. On the shelves is a large variety of silverware and there can be no difficulty about being suited. The prices are reasonable and within the reach of all. There is also in stock a large assortment of diamonds and precious stones. Those intending to buy this line of goods would do well to consult Mr. Gill.

HOUSEFURNISHING GOODS, &2.

KEEPING EVERLASTINGLY AT IT BRINGS SUCCESS!

Have you noticed the Tyler Flour Sifter, which is now exhibited in our window. It is something entirely new in these parts, and will commend itself at once to every good house-keeper. All those who give any attention to household affairs must have observed that one of the great problems is the proper and convenient care of flour. If it is kept in the paper bag in which it is sold, it is likely to become musty. If it is kept in a common tin box, it is difficult to get at for sifting purposes, and a good deal of it may be spilled. The Tyler invention combines the receptacle with the sifter. It can be placed in a corner of the kitchen and will hold 50 pounds of flour. By simply turning a small crank, the simply turning a small crank, the flour comes out already sifted! No a look at it! The slight fall of snow this week caused quite a spurt in our Snow Shovel Department. The wide range of choice in these goods and their cheapness commends them to all, and those who come to inspect are sure to remain to buy.

And speaking of the subject of snow, recalls the fact that Christmas is now only a little more than three weeks distant. We have just received a big stock of Sleds, Express Wagons, Children's Knives and Forks, etc., which would make very fit Christmas presents.

This was a big week for Stoves, Heaters and Ranges. The invitation we extended to the public last week caused many new visitors to drop in upon us, and we were kept very busy supplying our trade with heating and cooking apparatus. We have many bargains in our Stove Department still waiting upon those who give us an early call.
