AT A RES DING.

The spare Professor, grave and bald,
Began his paper, It was called,
I think, "A Brief Historic Glance
At Nussia, Germany and France."
A slance, but to my best be lef
'T was almost anything but bilef—
A wide survey, in which the earth
Was reem before mankind had birth;
Strange monsters bashed them in the sun,
Behe moth, armored glyptedon,
And in the dawn's unpracticed my
The transient dodo winged its way;
Then by degrees, through silt and alough
We reached Berlix—I don't know how,
The good Professor's monotone
Had turned me into seneplese stone
Instanter, but that near me sat Instanter, but that near me sat
Hypatia in her new spring het,
Blue eyed, intent, with lips where bloom
Lighted the heavy-curtained room.
Hypatia—ah, what lovely things
Are fashioned out of eighteen springs— Are fashioned out of eighteen springs—
At first, in enus of this amount.
The eighteen summers do not count.
Just as my eyes were growing d in
With heaviness, I saw that alim,
Erret, elastic figure there.
Like a pond-il'y taking air.
I he looked to fresh so wise, so nea',
So altogether crisp and sweet,
I quite forgot what Bismarck said,
And why the Emperor shook his head,
And how it was Von Hottke's frown
Orst France another frontier town.
The only facts I took away
From the Professor's theme that day
Were these: a forchead broad and low
Such as the antique soulptors show;
A chin to Greek perfection true;
Eyes of Astarte's tender blue;
A high complexion without fleek
Or flaw, and curis about her neck.
