to be in earnest about going into the league, George Goodhart, who is interested in putting the Lancaster club in the field, is now in Hartford, Conn., with the Baldwin dramatic company, but he expects to be ne in good time in the spring to start the club. The new league does not allow big salaries and the Lancaster team will likely include a number of home players strengthened by some from abroad.

Voganville and Vicinity.

Samuel Steffy, sr., who had been suffering for quite a while with a complication of diseases, died on Saturday night from nervous prostration. Rev. B. G. Welder, of Reamstown, conducted the obsequies in the Evangelical church in town, and the remains were taken to the Centre church emetery, where interment took place or Monday afternoon.

A lyceum has been organized in the school house in this place. W. Scott Burk-holder has been elected chairman, Miss Bara Sprecher secretary, and Frank Hartman editor. The society convenes every Tuesday evening.

Mr. A. E. Burkholder, who is teaching a Quaker institution in Chester county, was at home for a week, having very severe on his neck.

M. D. Mull, esq., has returned to Washington, D. C., taking the train at Lancaster on Sunday. Protracted meeting has commenced in the Evangelical church and is to continue several weeks.

Another Great Figale.

Dismayed by the fizzle held in the village two weeks ago, the Republicans of Rawineville made up their minds to retrieve their lost glory on Baturday evening. They posted bills some time sgo announcing a grand parade by visiting clubs was promwiches. The night came bright and clear, but the people did not. The only visitors were a club of eight horsemen from the Back. "Cock" Gatchell came late and was so disgusted at the fizzle that he soon left. Those who were active in getting up the Mair slunk sway like cowards.

The very small crowd (it did not exceed fity persons of all sizes, ages and colors), innehed on preizes, and it was not a free lunch either.

Before Aldertoan Deen.

Otto Williams was arrested by Consta bles Barnhold and Wittick for being drunk and disorderly, and was taken before Al-derman Deen. It was the intention of the magistrate to give him a light sentence, but while in the office the man became very abusiwe, cursing and swearing at a furious rate. The alderman added fivedays or each time the fellow opened his mouth. and he will have to stay in jall for 60 days. George Lan's gave ball for a hearing on the charge of cruelty to animals. Edward Lloyd, who was drunk and disorderly in the castern part of the city, was looked up by Constable Shaub, and the John Fisher, who is charged with obtain-ing money from John A. Shober by false representation, was held in ball for a bearing.
