PROGRAMME OF EXERCISES

FOR THE THREE SESSIONS OF THE SUN DAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Addresses to Be Delivered by Revs. Harrison, Haupt, Dohner and Moran—Miss Coffin, of Millersville Normal School, to Explain Model Lessons For Infant Classes.

COLUMBIA, Dec. 7.—The Sunday school convention will commence this evening at 7:30 o'clock, in the Methodist Episcopal church. The convention is composed of delegates from all Sunday schools from Columbia, Lancaster city, the Hempfields, Manor, Lancaster, Pequea, Conestoga and Martic townships. The programme in full for the three sessions is as follows:

Friday evening session—Devotional service, Rev. Thomas Harrison; opening address, Rev. Thomas Harrison; response to opening address, A. R. Myers, Mountville, Pa.; music; address, Search the Scriptures, Rev. C. E. Haupt, Lancaster, Pa; music; discussion, five minutes' speeches.

Saturday morning—Devotional service; report of delegates and appointment of committees; music; model lessons for infant class, Mathilde E. Coffin; discussion, three minutes' speeches; music; address, The Graded System, Rev. H. B. Dohner, Lan-Lancaster, Pa.; discussion; close.

Saturday afternoon—Devotional service; report of committees and election of officers; address, The effect of the present Sunday school system upon the attendance of the children at church; discussion, Rev. Thomas Thompson, M. D., Lancaster, Pa; music; question box; address, How shall we teach temperance in the Sunday school? Rev. F. J. Clay-Moran, B. D., Columbia, Pa; discussion and close.

One of the features of the programme will be the model lesson for the infant class by Miss Coffin, of the Millersville Normal school. She has consented to teach a Sunday school class a lesson from the most approved methods of teaching in the secular school. The programme is an attractive one to Sunday school workers and large audiences will greet the speakers.

Officers Elected.

The following officers were elected last night by General Welsh camp, No. 68 Sons of Veterans: Captain, Harry Hasselbach; 1st lieutenant, Harry Albright; 2d lieutenant, Edward Reuter; chaplain, Amos H. Groff; 1st sergeant, Sherman Kidders; quartermaster sergeant, John S. Dean; sergeant of guard, Albert Yeanish; color sergeant, Albert Lilly; corporal of guard, George W. Young; camp guard, James Henry; picket guard, Harry Welsh; musician, Charles Hull; delegate to Erie, Albert Yeanish; alternate, George W. Young; camp council, Sherman Kidders, James Henry and Amos H. Groff.

A meeting of Columbia Lodge, No. 286, F. and A. M., was held last evening when the following officers were elected: Worshipful master, H. F. Yergey; senior warden, A. W. Rogers; junior warden, J. M. Livingston; secretary, Andrew J. Kauffman; treasurer, J. A. Meyers; trustees, George Crane, Milton Wike, J. W. Yocum; representative, John A. Slade.

After the closing of the lodge the members proceeded to the armory where a very elaborate banquet had been prepared by the ladies of the Second Street Lutheran church. The bill of fare included oysters raw and fried, turkey, chicken salad, fruit, ice cream, etc. After enjoying the supper the members spent a pleasant hour in singing, speeches, etc.

The Columbia fire company will meet this evening.

An important meeting of Chippota Castle, No. 583, K. G. E., will be held to night.

The Columbia wheelmen will close the season on Tuesday next, when they will hold a banquet at Warren's restaurant.

The M. E. Mite society held an entertainment last night at the home of Gen. Wm. Patton, on Second street. Tableaux, etc., made up the programme.

The Ladies' Mite society of the Second Street Lutheran church will hold a supper in the armory to night.

Not Yet Identified.

Although more than a dozen people have called at the almshouse to view the remains of the boy who was killed on the railroad, since yesterday, none have been able to identify him. While an INTELLIGENCER reporter was at the dead house this morning several ladies called to see the body, thinking it was a relative. They did not seem certain, however, that the person they were looking for was missing, and had little grounds for thinking him dead. Many of the people who go to see the body do so out of morbid curiosity, and not because they expect to recognize the boy. Dr. Landis stated at noon to day that the body would be buried this afternoon as they could keep it no longer awaiting identification. Among the articles found on the boy's person was a large number cigarette pictures of prize fighters, base ball players, flags, &c. He also had a card of Franke's Railroad and Steamship agency, No. 347 Broadway, New York, and Day's shoe store, at 31 Church street. From these it is believed that the boy was in New York recently.

Suicide of John Mayser.

From the Harrisburg Patriot.

On Wednesday evening John Mayser, an aged patient at the state lunatic hospital, in this city, committed suicide by hanging himself with a small clothes line. Coroner Shindler held an inquest yesterday morning and the jury rendered a verdict of suicide. Readers of the Patriot will remember that about three months ago charges were made against Rev. F. P. Mayser, of Lancaster, to the effect that he had caused his aged father, who was not insane, to be incarcerated in the insane asylum. The charges were investigated by the church council of the church of which Rev. Mayser was pastor, and found to be wholly without foundation. The superintendent of the hospital said there was no doubt as to the insanity of old Mr. Mayser, although he gave them no trouble. Mr. Mayser was brought to the hospital last February. He was about 75 years old.

Chief Smeltz's Improved Regulations.

Chief of Police Smeltz has established a system by which officers report to him by telephone at stated intervals during the day. The new system works satisfactorily and under it he can reach his officers at any hour of the day. When he first went on duty the officers went on duty at 8 o'clock in the morning and he heard nothing from them until they returned to the station house in the evening.

He has also established a system by which there is a police officer on duty at Centre Square at all times during the night and day, except for a few minutes before and after 8 o'clock in the morning.

Will Carleton at the Court House.

Nearly all the benches in the big room of the court house were occupied last evening, and the audience was given a great literary treat by Will Carleton. The lecturer was introduced by Rev. Dr. T. G. Apple. An hour and forty minutes were devoted to the subject "The Chain of Success." The famous Brooklynite was liberally applauded and lavishly praised for bringing, in his inimitable manner, word pictures, humorous and pathetic, so naturally before his intellectual auditors.

A School Teacher's Severe Whipping.

A school teacher named Rhody in the graded school at Rohrerstown is said to have given a little son of Tobias Denlinger a terrible whipping, and the boy was so badly injured that he can scarcely walk. It is likely that a law suit will be the result.

Found a Pocket-Book.

This morning Stamp Clerk Knight, of the postoffice, found a very pretty black silk purse, with beads on it, on North Queen street. It contained 75 cents, and is at the postoffice.

Wanted In Cumberland County.

Officers Barnhold and Wittick arrested John D. Zell at the house of Brice Painter, on Chester street, on Thursday afternoon. Zell is wanted at Churchtown, Cumberland county, for assaulting with intent to kill Samuel Kost, hotel-keeper. There was a row at the hotel on Sunday, and Zell struck the landlord with a chair and followed up this assault with an attempt to shoot him. Zell admits his guilt and expects to be severely punished. The Cumberland county authorities have been notified of the arrest and are expected here this afternoon.

Adjournment of Court.

In the suit of Ella M. Hastings vs. Annie E. Hilton and Ceylon H. Hilton, terre tenant, judgment by consent was entered in favor of plaintiff for $2,549 74. H. R. Fulton for plaintiff; M. Brosius for defendant.

The suit of Mark Mowery vs. the Lancaster city street railway was discontinued.

There were no other cases ready for trial and court adjourned until Saturday morning.

He Was Discharged.

George Lentz had a hearing last evening before Alderman Deen on the charge of cruelty to animals. There was not a particle of evidence against him and he was discharged.

FOR CHRISTMAS BAKING USE ONLY THE BEST.

Unparalleled Demand! The like was never known! Eight Thousand and Five Hundred Pounds of received within a week. The "Pearl" brand is one of the finest made; it gives satisfaction where other makes fail. The demand is so great that at times we can't supply it—that tells the quality better than all the talking. Think it over. Four Tons of Flour received in a week. What a stock! Would it sell so if the quality were not of the very best?

THE "PEARL" FLOUR IS "PEARLY" WHITE.

Present price, 75c. We can sell it at that price because it comes direct from the mill—no agent's or middleman's profit in it. Do you see?

The "ARBUTUS" is not as high grade, but bakes good light bread. Price at present, 60 cents. It is full Roller Process.

MOLASSES! MOLASSES!

The price of SYRUP has dropped immensely—never was so low. CANE and CORN SYRUP, sweet, good body, clear as honey—only 30c a quart, 20c a gallon. Finest Sugar Syrups, also way down, 12c-45c a gallon.
