A TICKET TINKERER.

CHARGE AGAINST G. B. LONGENECKER, OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

He Changes Names on Pennsylvania Railroad Tickets With a Pin, and Is Arrested by Officer Brady—Given a Hearing and Committed For Trial at Court.

COLUMBIA, Dec. 20.—Officer Brady, of the Pennsylvania railroad police, arrested George B. Longenecker, of Cumberland county, on the charge of fraudulently altering Pennsylvania railroad passenger tickets. He was given a hearing last evening before Squire Hershey and in default of $500 bail was committed to jail for trial. Longenecker did some neat work in altering passenger tickets. He purchased a ticket from Philadelphia to Overbrook and substituted Lancaster for the latter place. A ticket from Norristown to Mountville was altered to Reading and a ticket from Lancaster to Millersville was changed to Marietta. The work of altering was done in such a manner that it was almost impossible to detect, the work being done with a pin. The work was detected by a conductor when the ticket altered to Marietta was given.

The November statement of the Pennsylvania railroad relief department has been issued, which shows the following benefits paid to employes in Columbia: Accident, 15 men, $228; sickness, 18 men, $223. Total amount, $456.

Miss Alice O'Donnell left yesterday afternoon for a visit to Philadelphia.

This amount was presented to Mr. Findley last night, who was deeply grateful for the kindness shown by his fellow employes.

The funeral of Joseph E. Lewis will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Alice Stephenson and children left this morning for a trip to St. Paul, Minn.

A young son of Jacob Hilliar fell on the pavement near the Five Points yesterday, breaking his arm. The fracture was reduced by Dr. Bernthelsel.

Harry M. Upp ran his right hand against a board yesterday at his home. A nail entered the fleshy part of the hand, causing a painful wound.

The annual fair of the A. M. E. church on South Fifth street will open to-night. Rev. Thomas Harrison, of the M. E. church, will make an address.

DIED IN THE FAR WEST.

Death of J. Frank Cushman at Minneapolis, Minnesota.

A telegram was received in Marietta to-day announcing the death of J. Frank Cushman, son of Dr. Cushman, and for many years a resident of Marietta. Mr. Cushman died in Minneapolis, Minnesota, on Tuesday night suddenly of apoplexy. Deceased was a well known young man, 38 years old and left Marietta four and a-half years ago. He was a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and read law with Col. D. Brainard Case. At the time of his death he was enjoying a lucrative practice at Minneapolis. His remains are expected to reach Marietta to-night.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. WM. FONTZ.

She Passes Away With Heart Disease Before Her Physician's Arrival.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fontz, wife of William Fontz, cigar manufacturer, died suddenly at her residence, No. 13 East Frederick street, at noon to-day. She has not been in good health for some time, but was no worse than usual to-day. When her husband came to dinner at half-past eleven o'clock he found his wife in bed, complaining of a headache. He saw that she was very sick and he at once summoned Dr. Ehler, the family physician, but before the arrival of Dr. Ehler Mrs. Fontz was dead. The doctor said she had been a sufferer from heart disease for some time. Deceased was 38 years old and leaves a husband and six children to mourn her loss.

At Charles E. Ochs' hotel there is on exhibition an India ink and water color sketch of the public building as it will appear when completed. The sketch would indicate that the building is to be of fine appearance.

The Pardon Not Yet Received.

The pardon of Joseph Herzog, although expected, had not reached the prison up to 8:30 o'clock this afternoon. It may reach this city on the Day Express.

Presented With a Cane.

The employes of J. H. Bibo's cigar factory showed their regard for their foreman, G. Henry Sachs, this forenoon, by presenting him with a beautifully engraved gold-headed cane. A. J. Keller made the presentation speech, to which Mr. Sachs warmly and fittingly responded.

Lost Their Oldest Child.

Mr. George R. Rohr, business manager of the Freie Presse, and his wife, have met with a sad affliction in the death of their oldest child, John Arthur Rohr. The sad event occurred this morning, and is all the more severe because death was not expected. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Rohr sympathize with them in their sad bereavement.

Coal for the Poor.

The Buchanan-McEvoy-Reynolds relief committee have concluded the hearing of applications for the coal to be distributed under the wills of the above named parties. These applications will be inquired into and those found deserving will receive coal.

Fine Decorations.

One is certainly repaid for the walk and especially reminded that Christmas is near at hand when they look at the beautiful decorations at Charles Eckert's fruit store, East King street. Peeping through wreaths of holly and bunches of laurel we noticed the luscious Florida oranges, golden faced tangerines and mandarines, large clusters of grapes, huge bunches of bananas and the juicy little red cheeked lady apple perched on top of beautiful baskets of fruit. We were asked to sample some of Fry's imported chocolates and a box of Craft & Allen's choice candy, pulled figs, raisins, &c. We declined this offer, but sampled the Cherrystone and Lynn Haven oysters which were delicious.

The Chautauqua Literary and Scientic Circle will meet this (Thursday) evening in Y. M. C. A. Among other good features of the programme will be an address on "Education in Ancient Greece," by Dr. Buehrle.

Last Friday's special sale has cleaned us out.

We might say we sold all our Untrimmed Hats; those few which were left by Friday evening were hardly worth mentioning.

This week we close out a manufacturer's stock of French Felt and Plush Hats. His whole stock! Altogether about 50 dozens.

They are goods which are sold everywhere at $1 to $1.75 apiece, some few are sold as high as $2.50.

We have closed them out at a great sacrifice, and offer them in two lots.

Lot one at 27c, all good styles, not one of them was ever offered at less than $1.

Lot two at 49c, the choice of the lot.

Satin, Felt and Plush Hats and Bonnets. The most desirable shapes and colors.

We call particular attention to our Children's Hats at 27c. You will find among them Soft Tennis Hats, trimmed with cord.

Large open-worked Flats, ready trimmed and bound, and many other good styles and colors.

Some of them worth as much as $2 apiece.

Do not forget to come early, as the best styles are generally selected first.

We would also advise you to come in the morning to avoid the afternoon rush.

Our special offers on Muffs, as advertised last evening, are selling fast. Those thinking of buying any for Christmas had better call at once.

OUR SPECIAL

Effort for the Holidays is on such goods as are most suitable for Holiday Presents, such as Umbrellas, Furs and Canes, and of the success of this effort we are well pleased. Of course the lowness of the prices is doing it. Just think of an Umbrella with gold cap, of Fast Black Goods, for one dollar, or a misses' size Gloria Cloth Umbrella for $1.00. We sold the same things last season for one-third more money, and the same quality that we sold last season for $2 50 we sell this season for $2 00; and last year's $3 00 quality, this year for $2 50; and the goods we sold last year at $4 50, this year $3 50; and just think of a Ladies' Muff for 38c. How they make them for that money we don't know, but we have them, and Children's Muffs for 35c and 50c; six different styles of Fur at 50c, Monkey Muffs for $2 50 and Monkey Trimming for $1 a yard.

And of Fur Gloves our stock is so large that we have reduced the price from 50c to $1 50 on a pair, to make them sure sellers. We have also done the same with our stock of Fur Robes.

Ask for Canes if you wish a Handsome Present for a Gentlemen for little money; you should see ours that we sell for 75c.
