Constitutional Catarrh.

Fo single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, the mind, one or more, and sometimes all, yield to its destructive in fluence. The poison is distributed shroughout the system attacks every vital force, and breaks up the most robust of constitutions. Ignored, because but ittle understood, by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and chariatans, those suffering from it hare little hope to be relieved of it this side of the grave. It is time, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hitherto untried method adopted by Dr. fanford in the preparation of his Hadical Curs has won the hearty approval of thousands. It is instanteneous in affording relief in all head colds, sneesing, snuffling and obstracted breathing, and rapidly removes the most oppressive symptoms, clearing the head, sweetsning the breath, restoring the senses of smell, taste and hearing, and naturalizing the constitutional lendency of the disease towards the lungs, liver and sidesoys.
