LANCASTER, JANUARY 9, 1890.

What Judge Cooley says of it. Chairman Cooley, of the Interstate Commission, addressed the Boston Merchants' association at its banquet on Tuesday evening, upon the subject of the working of the interstate law. Judge Cooley is recognized, the country over, as a very able man, and he has made a great deal to give effect to the interstate law, in whose effective working he takes very great interest.

In the course of an editorial upon a course of musical readings which it proposes to lead for its patrons, the Musical Herald expresses the opinion that the time is probably not far distant when the musician will be thought of for public office as naturally as a merchant or a lawyer. This will strike many readers as a very wild flight of imagination, but the writer goes on to argue that no man can be worthy of the name of musician without a liberal education. To this should be added executive ability and business capacity and if the rare combination should occur, the political success of that exceptional musician might be followed.

THE FIDELITY BANK OF CINCINNATI failed, Harper is insane, Baldwin and Hopkins are dead, the latter having died on Tuesday just after his liberation from jail by pardon.

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW Miss Mary Anderson talks vigorously about the amateur actress, who seeks fame and wealth on the professional stage. "It would be a destructive blow to the existence of such a thing as dramatic art if a social leader, equipped with a pleasing personality, a degree of drawing room grace and less lessons in elocution, were to give an actress the approval of thoughtful observers." What can Mrs. Foster say for herself?

THE NEW YORK WORLD is not noted for modesty, and when it claims with wild enthusiasm that the Klein, who has been heard from in Hamon, is its special correspondent, the readers will probably have the good sense to assume that once upon a time the enterprising journal published a letter from a man named Klein. Just now the World is quite belligerent over the Hamon matter, and seems disposed to treat the offending German as so many pirates.

PERSONAL. PRINCESS BISMARCK, wife of the chancellor, is seriously ill. FORTY MILES, an old member of the New York produce exchange, is dead. He was a lineal descendant of Roger Sherman, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

MRS. CLEVELAND is engaged in translating a French novel into English, and though she undertook the task as a recreation only, she has received offers from several publishers, who are anxious to obtain the copy.

GENERAL WARNER, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, and others, have applied to Senator Hale, as chairman of the committee on census, for hearing on the question of statistics relating to the surviving veterans of the rebellion being embodied in the next census, and the committee will be in session at 11 o'clock on Friday for that purpose.

CARDINAL MORAN, archbishop of Hyderabad, in an interview with the Herald on Tuesday, stated that the so-called "Parnell letters" were offered to Archbishop Walsh, of Dublin, before they were placed in the hands of the press. He said that Walsh refused to have anything to do with them, for the reason that, upon examination, he found them to be forgeries.

CO. A. K. McCLURE tells a New York reporter that Mr. Cleveland will be a strong presidential possibility for 1892, if he does not share the popular impression that Hill is the strongest Democratic candidate.

MR. CLEVELAND is in New York, and makes his prediction in regard to Mr. Cleveland, however, "contingent on the failure of the election to meet the unqualified desire of the country to remove the tariff." But he looks for such a revision, and predicts that General Harrison will go much farther than the Mills bill before his administration is over.

MR. BURTON T. GERRY, in whose efforts the law in New York providing for execution of murderers by electricity is mainly due, will go much farther than the Mills bill before his administration is over.

De Loew's New Scheme. The Panama canal difficulty has been temporarily averted, all the contractors having consented to receive shares in the Panama railway as a guarantee for becoming due to them in the immediate future. The shares of the new company will be reserved exclusively for the present stockholders. A circular has been sent to the presidents of provincial committees, inviting them to secure subscriptions to the new company before the meeting on the 20th instant. The money will be deposited in the Bank of France, and will be returned if insufficient. The shares will be of 500 francs each and will bear 5 per cent interest until the canal is opened. They will be entitled to 6 per cent interest on the 1st of January, 1891, and will be paid in cash.

A Reporter's Confession. Alton H. Curtis, one of the proprietors of the Frederick News, was accused and publicly convicted in the office of the Carlin House in Frederick on Tuesday night, by Joseph D. Baker, president of the National Bank of Frederick. Curtis is the Frederick correspondent of a Baltimore evening newspaper, to which he on Monday sent a report of the rumored wedding case in which Baker had suffered a loss of $5,000. Baker alleges that the item was incorrect.

It is a woman who sustains her fine complexion, the most admired of all, and the most frequent use of Lassar's, the great blood purifier.

There is nothing more harrowing to the eye than a child that has a crying baby. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup will give instant relief to the little sufferer. For sale at all drug stores.

made our civilizing influence felt throughout this hemisphere. Each band of savages disposed to massacre should be made to feel that if no local authority existed they would have to reckon, in good time, with these United States, and if Hayti cannot govern herself we should take her and govern her,—no nation has a better right.

A half-truth may be the greatest error. If, therefore, certain remarks in this column yesterday meant materials for evening wear led you to suppose that all the stuffs we have for such uses are silks, then let us supply the other half truth and destroy the seeming misrepresentation.

The facts are that all down through the Dress Goods are stuffs and stuffs, some costly as rare silks, others cheaper, beautiful and quite a la mode. They make quite a list.

Satin Striped Veiling, 23 inch, $1.50, $2, $2.25; 46 inch, $1.50 and $3.

Broche Figured Veiling, 23 inch, $1.50; 46 inch, $2.25 and $2.50.

Silk-and-Wool Challis, satin striped, 23 inch, $1.50 and $2.

Satin Striped Bengaline, 23 inch, $2.

Satin Striped Barege, 23 inch, $1.25 and $2.25; 46 inch, $2.50.

Broche Figured Cashmere, 40 inch, $2.25.

Printed Cashmere, especially for tea gowns, 40 inch, $1.25, $1.50 and $2.

These stuffs are in many light colors. You may have a choice of cream white, several blues, Nile green, with various figures and tints in the decorative patterns.

The following are all cream white, and are beautiful. Silk Warp Henrietta, 40 inch, $1 and $1.50; wool both ways, 45 inches 75 cents and $1; Wool Cashmere 38 inches, 37 1/2 and 75 cents; Drap d'Alma 38 inches, 60 cents; Mohair 27 inches, 31, 37, 50, and 75 cents; Serge 38 inches, 50 cents; Albatros 38 inches, 50 cents; Gloria 44 inches, $1; Crape Japon 46 inches, $2.50.

All sorts at your service. If there are any evening dress stuffs not represented here that ought to be, just tell us, please, and get our "Thanks."

Once more—pardon, please—let us say that we know the value of words. "Henrietta" is to us an exact term meaning a definite thing—not an omnibus phrase used to carry anything which fancy without conscience may choose. And so on and on.

Doubtful advertising talk is sometimes willful falsehood, often careful statement, and the latter often causes advertisers to be amusing.

James Payn, of London, says in a late number of the "Independent":

"It is curious, considering the enormous amount of advertisements, how very careless and even ridiculous is their writing. I read, to-day, two charming advertisements about a horse collar. The first was a horse-collar big enough for any town in Britain. Every owner of a horse, it says, should use this collar. The Photograph Albums. We've had $10 Albums before. You've proved long ago that our $10 Album was always a little better than anybody else's. This is really monstrous. I have known many of our $10 Albums have come to us that should secure a sensation at that price, possibly lower. Not so. They shall go at $10.

Let the great critic read American papers. The consuming powers of some, the rigor with which others "throw" things, the strange way in which some discredit their own honesty by telling their customers that "it pays to examine our goods before purchasing" amuse the careful and critical reader.

Why spend our money to print that? Just because we want to promote critical reading and crucial testing of advertising.

When that comes about honest merchants will win their rights. Then you will not be deceived in Muslin by an end of a couple of yards with trademark outside, wrapped on the outer end of a piece which you may see, while what you buy is cut from the piece of inferior goods concealed within. Then talk and action must coincide if business is to be done.

The Bargain-making goes on day by day. A notable addition of leather goods will be found in the following, which will not be open for sale until 9:30 this A. M. Imported Hand Bags.
